

ward gave an enjoyable ball at the ward hall last evening.

Herbert R. MacMillan and wife returned home Tuesday from a month's pleasure in California.

A large number of Ogden's prominent society people went to Salt Lake Wednesday and Thursday evenings to witness "Ben Hur."

Mrs. Dr. Hibbs entertained a number of her friends at a luncheon Thursday afternoon.

Misses Maggie and Susie Hull and Agnes Swan were Ogden visitors this week from Salt Lake City.

Miss Zina Larkin returned home this week from a pleasant visit with relatives and friends at Lehi.

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Knott, Mrs. Graham, Della Roscher, Nell Stevenson, Oscar Madson and Thomas Feeny were entertained Monday by friends on the Ogden-Larkin cut-off. They enjoyed a ride on the lake on one of the steam launches, and were the guests of a bounteous spread. The happy crowd also witnessed the driving of the last pete on the main line of the cut-off, when Mrs. Dan Ogden, wife of Supt. Ogden, broke the bottle of champagne on the pete.

Mrs. Luckett was the charming hostess at a dainty dinner party Wednesday at her home. A number of her lady friends enjoyed the afternoon at music and other pleasures.

The Sherwood concert given here Tuesday evening was one of the most delightful musical events of the year.

The ladies' auxiliary to the B. of R. T. gave a very pleasurable masquerade at Conley's Thursday evening, which was largely attended.

LOGAN.

An event of interest in Logan social circles was the marriage in Logan temple on Wednesday of Mr. Harold Lafount and Miss Alma Robinson. The groom is a prominent young business man and a member of the firm of R. Lafount & Son. The bride is a talented and accomplished young lady, and both are highly esteemed. Our best wishes accompany them in their wedded life.

Mr. Will G. Farrell, of Salt Lake, spent the present week in Logan.

Mrs. Marian Lucas of Grouse Creek, Utah, has returned home after a pleasant visit with her sister, Mrs. John F. Squires.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Amussen have returned from an extended stay in San Diego.

A very pleasant party was tendered Rev. R. E. Gilpin and family at the home of Mrs. John F. Squires on Wednesday evening by the members of the M. E. church. A pleasing program was rendered, refreshments served, and an altogether pleasant evening passed. The party was held at the parsonage, and was in the nature of a welcome to Logan for Rev. Gilpin and family and Miss Jayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Holland of Ogden are visiting relatives in Logan.

Mrs. A. Miner returned Saturday from an extended visit in Ogden and Nephi.

Mrs. Schermer of Salt Lake visited with friends in Logan this week.

Mr. Jesse Stratford of Ogden was in Logan Tuesday.

The Beacon Light society held its regular semi-monthly meeting at the Brigham Young College Tuesday afternoon. Miss Virginia Bush gave a sketch of the life of Shakespeare and outlined the work of the club on that subject for the coming year. Mrs. C. R. Skidmore presented a sketch of the life of Handel, the composer. Both papers were most instructive.

The Agricultural College Women's club met at the residence of Mrs. F. S. Madison Monday and passed the afternoon pleasantly and profitably. The study of ancient sculpture was continued, the discussion being led by Mrs. Prof. J. P. Engle.

PROVO.

Provo.—Mrs. John Stewart gave a delightful Kensington on Friday afternoon.

A very enjoyable reception was given to E. C. Henrichsen on Friday evening in the Second ward meetinghouse. The event was in honor of his leaving for a mission to Denmark.

Bert Smoot is about to leave for England. A social was given in his honor in the Sixth ward meetinghouse.

Mrs. Sarah Jones entertained a number of lady friends Wednesday.

The Business Men's association of Provo gave a grand ball in the Mozart pavilion Thursday evening.

Mrs. De Leor went to Springfield to fill a professional engagement on Wednesday.

Mrs. J. D. Dewey of Salt Lake spent Sunday in Provo the guest of Mrs. F. W. Muhlenbruch.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Cragan are visiting in Heber, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alma Smoot.

Miss Eliza Ward spent Tuesday in Salt Lake.

An immense crowd of Provo people visited Salt Lake this week to witness the performance of "Ben Hur."

Miss Arvilla Clark has returned from Germany and is visiting with her sisters, Mrs. Henri, Mrs. Speckart and Mrs. Yates.

Mrs. Julius Isay and Mrs. Rose were Salt Lake visitors on Tuesday.

EUREKA.

Mrs. S. A. Lawson, the mother of the young lady who was married on the stage at the Opera House here last week during an engagement of the Lillian Mason company has written to parties here from Denver, Colo., stating that her daughter eloped from their home in that city with the groom, Albert G. Hadden, and that they were married without her consent. She states she is a widow and her daughter was her main support and she is heartbroken over the affair.

Dr. Mary M. James returned this week after a pleasant visit with relatives at St. Anthony, Ida.

Mrs. Charles W. Reese is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Parley Christensen at Nephi.

The teachers of the public schools at this place went to Salt Lake City Wednesday.

The teachers of the public schools at this place went to Salt Lake City Wednesday.

The teachers of the public schools at this place went to Salt Lake City Wednesday.

The teachers of the public schools at this place went to Salt Lake City Wednesday.

The teachers of the public schools at this place went to Salt Lake City Wednesday.

The teachers of the public schools at this place went to Salt Lake City Wednesday.

The teachers of the public schools at this place went to Salt Lake City Wednesday.

The teachers of the public schools at this place went to Salt Lake City Wednesday.

The teachers of the public schools at this place went to Salt Lake City Wednesday.

HUGHES DIVORCE SENSATION.

Mrs. A. W. Hughes.

New York, where the sculptor-artist is widely known, is awaiting the developments promised when the matter comes to trial for the second time.

Monday and visited the schools of that city and returned home laden in their prizes of the treatment they received.

Mrs. Isaac E. Diehl of Robinson has returned from a month's visit with relatives at Kingfisher, Oklahoma.

Miss Alta Ercanbrack of Robinson is busily engaged in training a class of Tintic singers for the opera of "Pauline the Belle of Saratoga," which will soon be produced at Eureka, Mammoth and Silver City.

The members of Tintic Tent No. 13, K. O. T. M., are making active preparations for a grand ball to be given at L. O. O. F. hall on Thanksgiving night, Nov. 26.

The Democrats of Eureka will give a grand ball at the L. D. S. church on Monday evening, Nov. 2. Darton's orchestra will furnish the music for the event and the ladies of the Bryan club will serve a supper in the basement of the edifice.

Darton's orchestra gave a splendid dance at L. O. O. F. hall Friday night which was well attended.

A Halloween party will be given at the L. D. S. church on the 31st of this month. All the games dear to the hearts of the Scotch people will be indulged in and all the lads and lassies who attend will enjoy an evening of hilarity. The proceeds will be used for church purposes.

Mrs. Margaret Ferguson of Aldrich, Mont., is the guest of Mrs. W. D. Meyers.

John Rowe of Provo, a former popular young man of this city, visited friends here this week.

Dr. John Hanafin of Butte City, Mont., is visiting relatives here this week.

"Down Moblie" filled the Opera House here Tuesday night. The performance was one of the very best that has visited this city for months, and the heavy applause that greeted the performance showed that their efforts to entertain were highly appreciated.

The members of the Juvenile orchestra, a local musical organization, gave a very pleasant and profitable dance Friday night, which was much enjoyed by all who had the pleasure of attending.

CLUB CHAT.

The Poet's Round Table met with Mrs. Ferdinand Dickert on Monday. Mrs. David Evans being chairman and Miss Corman the poet discussed. The table decorations were carried out in pumpkin yellow, with autumn leaves and fruits, large pumpkins being fashioned into baskets and filled with fruit. Dainty gold spoons were the place cards. The guests were Mrs. Hancock, Mrs. Sowles, Mrs. Williams of Michigan and Mrs. Graham.

The Utah Western Press club will meet tonight in the Woman's Exposition office and an interesting program is promised. It is expected that there will be a number of guests as each member is entitled to bring a friend.

The Cleofan met on Wednesday of this week instead of Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Susan R. Wells. Mrs. Clara M. Clawson giving an entertaining paper on "From London Bridge to Windsor Castle."

The Utah State Council of Women held its annual business meeting yesterday at the L. D. S. business college. The speakers were Mrs. W. D. Meyers, Mrs. F. A. Vincent, Mrs. E. Lee and Mrs. W. S. Loomis giving separately reviews of "The Mastery of the Pacific" and "The Little Minister of Kingdom Come."

The Woman's Republican club will meet with Mrs. Arthur Brown, 209 east Brigham street, Monday, Nov. 2, at 2 p. m.

The Woman's club of Denver is preparing to adopt a by-law providing for the setting aside of 10 per cent of the club dues for the philanthropic work of the club, the disbursement to be left to the executive board.

There are now fifty-eight Federated clubs in eastern Pennsylvania, and sixty in the western part of the state, which places Pennsylvania almost in the front rank of club states. Each division of the Federation acts in the interests of its own end of the state, the meeting of the Federation affording a ground for discussion and mutual counsel of the various measures advocated by the clubs.

In addition to the very effective Kindergarten association work in Pittsburgh, plans are being made for the organization of a kitchen-garden association. This feature of manual training was introduced with success into the vacation schools and playgrounds of Pittsburgh during the past summer, and has led to an interest in the subject among the club women. Application

Pale babies become rosy and pretty babies when fed on Mellin's Food. Mellin's Food strengthens.

Beautifully printed pages of helpful hints about "The Care and Feeding of Infants," bound in cloth, will be sent you free if you ask for it.

MELLIN'S FOOD CO., BOSTON, MASS.

WALKER'S STORE.

A SEASON OF WHITE IS THIS TO BE AND—

Here's An Extraordinary Sale ^{OF ALL} Cream ^{AND} White Wool Dress Goods.

DISCOUNTS 10, 20, 30, 40 AND 50 PER CENT.

A WONDERFULLY complete stock of all the beauties in White, Ivory and Cream Wool that weavers have devised for the seasons of 1903 and 1904. Quite impossible is it to say all the good things that should be said for such a gathering. As much as a year ago the reign of white was predicted, when autumn, winter, spring and summer should all look up to white for appropriate house gown, evening dress, coat, opera cape and children's wear. We gathered lavishly of course. The exquisitely fine, the rich, the medium. The following names are to help you to a knowledge of some:

Silk and wool Crepes.	Bedford Cords.	Tamise cloth.
Crepe de Chine.	Canvas cloth.	Nub effects.
Voiles of every weave.	Albatross.	Brilliantines.
Broadeloths.	Silk and wool Mon Reve.	Mistrals.
Nun's Veiling.	Silk and wool Lansdown.	Wire cloth.
Boutonne effects.	Zibelines.	Crepe Egypta.
Alpacas.	Batistes.	Henriettes.
Sicilians.

Our entire stock of Cream, Ivory and White Wool Goods. Telling off the prices of each and every kind would as you know mean a page or so of quotations and make most tiresome reading. Regularly they sell at—50c, 65c, 75c, $1, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2, $2.25, $2.50 and $2.75 a yard, discounts from these range—

10 PER CENT, 20 PER CENT, 30 PER CENT, 40 PER CENT, 50 PER CENT OFF.

Sale begins Monday, lasts the week. No samples cut during this time. The center aisle is aglow with specials in many other lines of Dress Goods—be sure you look about while here.

Your Winter Coat at a Bargain Price if the Size is in This Lot.

WOMEN'S $10.50. MISSES' $5.75. Worth Double.

A bunch of only twenty-four sent along quickly by express from our buyer who is now in eastern markets. Of course a good bargain lot he happened upon. One look at them will tell you better of that than can these printed words.

The girls' coats are gray and brown mixture covers, handsomely made in the new shoulder cape effects—a cross between military and Monte Carlo; straps piped with brown silk, some have braid and drop trimming; perfectly tailored; very stylish coats. 14, 16, 18 year sizes. $5.75. Worth double.

In the lot for women no two coats are alike. And each is a beauty. Made with collars and without in surplice neck fashion, with shoulder capes and without; handsome trimmings of braids and pendants on some, others are superbly tailor stitched. Colors—deep red, brown mixtures and black. One size only and that 36. Lucky the woman who wears it. Price $10.50. Worth $15 and $20.

GOOD NEWS OF RUGS, CARPETS, MATTINGS, LINOLEUMS, MADRAS CURTAINS, BRASS RODS.

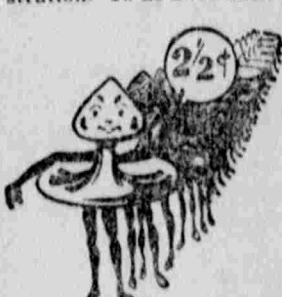

Entire collection of bath room rugs—and its an excellent one as to variety and quality—sizes 18x26 up to 26x72 inches, raised patterns in white and red, white and green, white and blue, prices $1.50 to $4.50 each. Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday—20 PER CENT TAKEN OFF THESE.

All the 50c oilcloths—eight to ten patterns, three days reduced to 35c the square yard.

All the 30c a yard mattings, good variety, extra quality for price, three days—22½c.

A Wonderful Sale of Collar Buttons—40,000 of the "King" At Half Prices.

Undoubtedly the best collar buttons made. The manufacturers are anxious to have the world know it and every large city is given demonstration. To us have been consigned 40,000 and only HALF PRICE asked. Here from Monday to Saturday. The following tells the whole story.

THESE ARE REG-ULAR 5c BUT-
TONS.
Celluloid and
Aluminum backs,
5c buttons—
HALF PRICE.

THESE ARE REG-ULAR 10c BUT-
TONS.
Gold Plated 10
karat buttons,
10 cent kind for
5c.

THESE ARE REG-ULAR 15c BUT-
TONS.
Gold plated, 14
karat 15c buttons reduced to 8c
each. The 25c kinds to 10½c each

BE SURE YOU SEE THE GREAT DISPLAY IN THE EAST WINDOW.

TOILET WATER. OSTRICH FEATHER DUSTERS.

"Brilliantine" for the mousetache, imported French tonic made by Pinard, nicely perfumed with violet or heliotrope, reduced from 50c a bottle to—33c.

The splendid 4711 Toilet water, June Rose and Lilac, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday instead of 65c a bottle—45c.

Best ostrich feather dusters, 14, 16, 18, 20 and 22 inches long, sold at $1 up to $2 each, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday—ONE-THIRD OFF THESE PRICES.

GOOD DRESSING COMBS. CHEAPENED.

Best grades of celluloid dressing combs, 10 to 12 inches long, white, black, amber, shell and light colors, fine and coarse teeth and all combs, teeth, for a Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday sale, the 50c regular reduced to 35c; the 25c to—18c each.

Walker Brothers Dry Goods Co.

$5 AND $6 EIDERDOWN ROBES—$3.95.

The comfort and cosiness and convenience of the eiderdown bath robe these crisp mornings is fully appreciated by all women, safe to say, then, these won't stay here longer than Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday. Made of good quality eiderdown, colors, rose, red, gray and light blue, full length with large collar and girdle. Reduced from $5 and $6 to—$3.95.

FEW $3.50 AND $3.75 M'GEE PETTICOATS—2.95

McGee petticoats are conceded to be the best fitting and made of best materials of any on the market. Black satin with adjustable yokes, deep flounces tucked and hemstitched. Regular $3.50 and $3.75 petticoats, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday—$2.95.

Walker Brothers Dry Goods Co.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of

W. D. Hoagland