Interview with Senator Johnson—An English Evangelist.

NEW YORK, 7.—The Tribune's Washington correspondent telegraphs a long interview with Senator Johnson, of Tenn., who is reported, as saying,—"I can give no pledge of my future course. I can not say I will act with one party or with the other. We have too much of party, and I propose to bind myself in advance to no theory of party policy. I have never done so in the past, and I do not intend to do so in the future. I shall support such measures as appear, in my judgment, best for the country, caring not whether they are democratic measures or whether they are supported by the republicans. I will never place myself in a position where I must do a thing because it is a party measure, or oppose a thing at a party's dictation. I place the country above party." Johnson could not say whether he would participate in the debate on the Pinchback resolution. Being asked if he would not, in his new position, have an opportunity to pay off some old scores, and if he did not have a mass of facts against the leaders of parties to day, he said—"Whatever I may have I do not say, but I shall use nothing. My service in the Senate will not be a personal one; I do not represent myself, but Tennessee. The country has now nothing to do with my personal matters and what has passed. I have no enemies to punish or friends to reward. I have buried my resentments and have forgotten the ill-treatment of individuals. If I can perform the duties that are now before me as conscientiously and clearly as I see them at this moment, I shall accomplish as much as human vanity may seek to attain."

Henry Varley, the English Evangelist, preached this evening to a congregation of about 7,000 people.

Dead.

Mrs. Henry M. Field, wife of the editor of the N. Y. Evangelist, died on Saturday evening.

Snow and Sleet.

Snow fell here most of the day, and was followed to-night by sleet and heavy rain. Snow is reported throughout the State and northern Pennsylvania, and sleet and rain in the southern portion of Pennsylvania and Maryland.

Postmaster Appointed.

WASHINGTON, 7.—Henry Standage has been appointed postmaster at Richmond, Cache Co., Utah.

Bonds Wanted — The Senate Committees—Internal Revenue Ruling.

The Secretary of the Treasury will issue a call, this week, for $30,000,000 in bonds, on account of the sinking fund, under the act of March 3d, '75.

The democratic senators have been informed that they will be allowed two members on a committee of seven and three on a committee of nine.

The chairmanship of all the committees will remain as during the late session, with the exception of those heretofore filled by outgoing senators. The chairmanships are selected, as a rule, from those first on the list after the names of the retired members. The succession of Senator Wright to the chairmanship of the committee on claims will leave Senator Boutwell chairman of the committee on civil service and retrenchment; Hamlin will be chairman of the P. O. committee, Windam of public lands, Allison of Indian affairs, Oglesby of pensions, Hitchcock of Territories, West of railroads, Sargent of mines and mining, and it is probable that Conkling will be chairman of commerce, and Spencer of the District of Columbia.

The Internal Revenue office rules that when the same cistern contains spirits produced before and after midnight of the 3d of March, the burden of proof rests on the distiller, to show the price and quality distilled on the 3rd, and unless satisfactory evidence is given the collector of the quantity so produced, the whole contents must be stamped at ninety per cent, and the distiller left to his claim for refund.

Dead.

FALL RIVER, Mass., 7.—Hon. Jas. Buffington, representative for the first congressional district, arrived home this a. m. from Washington, with his family; he went to the residence of his son-in law, where he died within a hour. He was 58 years old, and had been indisposed a long time.

Suicides or Murders.

BOSTON, 7.—Four men either killed themselves, or were murdered by their frenzied companions, in drunken orgies over the wreck of the bark Giovanni, off Cape Cod.

$35,000 Fire.

A fire at South Framingham, today, destroyed the factory of the American Butter Co.; loss $28,000, insurance $16,000. Other property was damaged $7,000.

Accused of Irregularities—Disastrous Freshets.

CHARLESTON, S. C., 7.— Both branches of the legislature have adopted resolutions for the appointment of a committee to prepare an address to the governor, demanding the removal of State Treasurer Cardozo, for alleged irregularities in the execution of the law for funding the State debt. The treasurer denies the charge, and an investigation will be had.

Disastrous freshets have occurred in many places throughout the State.

Murder.

CHICAGO, 7.—Julius Welche, a German saloon keeper on Lake St., was found dead in his saloon this morning, his skull crushed with some heavy instrument, and his pocket and till rifled; the affair is involved in mystery.

Heavy Snow Storm.

MEMPHIS, 7.—A snow-storm last night was the severest ever known here, fifteen inches of snow fell and drifted in many places so as to stop the street cars.

Snow Storm.

CAIRO, 7.—Eight inches of snow fell here last night, the heaviest known for many years.

Fire.

WORCESTER, Mass., 7.—A fire at Paxton, this morning, destroyed the boot and shoe factory of Bigelow & Sons; the loss is not stated, but the insurance is $30,000.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

"Foundationless."

LONDON, 7.— The Observer, today, says that the war rumors published in the Calcutta Englishman on Saturday, are foundationless.

Correspondence.

Educational and Recreative.

NEPHI, March 4th, 1875.

Editor Deseret News:

I am happy to state that our Sabbath school continues to flourish under the able management of Superintendent W. H. Warner. Our average attendance is about 200. On the 19th of February the Sunday school children had a dance, in which they seemed to enjoy themselves exceedingly well. On the 2nd of March the teachers of the Sunday school met in a social party. The invitation was extended to the bishop and leading citizens of this place. The time was very pleasantly spent in dancing, songs, etc.; all seemed well satisfied with the entertainment. The quadrille bands kindly offered their services for the occasion. Prof. Riggs and James Dwyer, Esq., gave two very interesting lectures upon the subject of education, on the evening of Feb. 28th and March 1st, which were well attended.

OBSERVER.

Not That Sort of a Man.

NEPHI, March 4, 1875.

Editor Deseret News:

In your issue of February 27, you published an article signed "Camera."

Some of the people here give me credit for said article and likewise for some that have been published in the Salt Lake ——— from Nephi.

I will here state that I have not been guilty of such acts for the following reasons—

First, if I were going to send an article to a newspaper, I would wish to state the truth. If I had the least doubt of its truthfulness, even if it was in manuscript, it would remain so.

Second, if I send an article, I should wish my true name published with the same.

JOHN COOPER.

THE SUN.

DAILY AND WEEKLY FOR 1875.

The approach of the Presidential election gives unusual importance to the events and developments of 1875. We shall endeavor to describe them fully, faithfully and fearlessly.

THE WEEKLY SUN has now attained a circulation of over seventy thousand copies. Its readers are found in every State and Territory, and its quality is well known to the public. We shall not only endeavor to keep it fully up to the old standard, but to improve and add to its variety and power.

THE WEEKLY SUN will continue to be a thorough newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when of moment, and always, we trust, treated in a clear, interesting and instructive manner.

It is our aim to make the WEEKLY SUN the best family newspaper in the world. It will be full of entertaining and appropriate reading of every sort, but will print nothing to offend the most scrupulous and delicate taste. It will always contain the most interesting stories and romances of the day, carefully selected and legibly printed.

The Agricultural Department is a prominent feature in the WEEKLY SUN, and its articles will always be fresh and useful to the farmer.

The number of men independent in politics is increasing, and the WEEKLY SUN is their paper especially. It belongs to no party, and obeys no dictation, contending for principle, and for the election of the best men. It exposes the corruption that disgraces the country and threatens the overthrow of republican institutions. It has no fear of knaves, and seeks no favors from their supporters.

The markets of every kind and the fashions are regularly reported.

The price of the WEEKLY SUN is one dollar a year for a sheet of eight pages, and fifty-six columns. As this barely pays the expenses of paper and printing, we are not able to make any discount or allow any premium to friends who may make special efforts to extend its circulation. Under the new law, which requires payment of postage in advance, one dollar a year, with twenty cents the cost of prepaid postage added, is the rate of subscription. It is not necessary to get up a club in order to have the WEEKLY SUN at this rate. Anyone who sends one dollar and twenty cents will get the paper, postpaid for a year.

We have no traveling agents.

THE WEEKLY SUN.—Eight pages, fifty-six columns. Only $1.20 a year, postage prepaid. No discount from this rate.

THE DAILY SUN.—A large four-page newspaper of twenty-eight columns. Daily circulation over 120,000. All the news for 2 cents. Subscription, postage prepaid, 55 cents a month, or $6.50 a year. To clubs of 10 or over, a discount of 20 per cent.

Address, "THE SUN,"
New York City.
