

GREAT STRIKE NOW ON IN RUSSIA

Employees of Light Plants in St. Petersburg Quit Work
On Orders.

DICTATORSHIP IS COMING.

Grand Duke Nicholas to be Made
Commander-in-Chief of All Troops.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 4, 2:45 a. m.—St. Petersburg is in darkness tonight. The employees of the electric lighting plants, always the earliest barometer record of political conditions, ceased work during the afternoon, in obedience to the call for a general strike. This call already has been obeyed by 2,000 factory hands in the capital. It will be impossible, however, to predict the success of this universal political strike until Monday, as the workmen in St. Petersburg and the provinces have two holidays, Saturday, which is the feast day of the dowager empress, and a great religious feast, and their regular holiday of Sunday.

The only other available index to the situation are the railroads. Up to 2 o'clock this morning the railroad men have not heeded the call for a general strike, except in the case of an insignificant local line running to Sestroretsk and other short resorts in the vicinity of St. Petersburg. The men of this road barricaded the line, with the result that they had an important collision with Cosenska last night.

In the meantime the fate of the Stolypin cabinet hangs in the balance, and Russia is upon the verge of disorders which may lead either to the reign of the military or the proletariat.

It can be stated definitely that the step toward dictatorship may be taken Sunday or Monday by the nomination of Grand Duke Nicholas to the chief command of all the troops in Russia. This would virtually place him in control of all the disturbed districts of the empire where martial law has been proclaimed.

This matter was a subject of earnest discussion during the interview between the emperor and Premier Stolypin yesterday, from which the premier returned in greatly vexed state of mind. The revolution at Sverdlov and Cronstadt and the mutiny on board the cruiser Pamyat Azova gave the tone to the conversation between his majesty and the premier. These events, although they have also caused considerable uneasiness in the mind of the emperor, upon the mind of the premier. The Associated Press has been informed from a high source that the nomination of Grand Duke Nicholas to the post of commander in chief, if made, will be announced as "for the purpose of harmonizing the activity of all troops, without reference to political affairs," but Premier Stolypin is scarcely disposed to regard the nomination in this high light.

One element of possible disorder for tomorrow has been removed by the decision of the widow of M. Herzenstein, the ex-deputy who was murdered at Terloki, to inter her husband at Terloki and to omit holding the services here and at Moscow. The prefect of police of St. Petersburg today appealed to Mme. Herzenstein to cease the procession here, saying it probably would result in great disorder, which he was resolved to suppress at whatever cost. After consultation with the Constitutional Democratic committee, Mme. Herzenstein agreed to this.

The pickets of cavalry and infantry were the most conspicuous features on the streets of St. Petersburg last night. Business houses generally have boarded up their windows as they did in the days of the great October strike. Practically all of the street cars in the city have stopped running, and the cab drivers are threatening to cease work today.

A dispatch received by the Associated Press from Sestroretsk says that heavy reinforcements are being poured in there, evidently in fear of an attack upon the government large and small arms factory located in that suburb. The long distance telephone station was occupied last night by half a company of infantry in order to prevent the anticipated telephonic communication between here and Moscow, and the last train from Moscow brought railroad officials who had collected the funds on hand at the various intermediate stations to prevent their seizure in case of a strike.

It was announced at the admiralty last night that the drumhead court-martial proceedings at Cronstadt probably would be suspended with the exception of seven ringleaders of the mutiny who were condemned to death Thursday. The other mutineers will be subjected to trial by the regular court-martial which will be convened after the customary delays.

It has now been ascertained that the death list on board the cruiser Pamyat Azova included Capt. Sosiksky, two lieutenants, the chief engineer and the junior engineer, the surgeon, a midshipman and the chief petty officer. The captain of the second class Moysenkov was mortally wounded. A private and two lieutenants were slightly wounded. About 50 sailors were killed or wounded.

The three petty officers who organized the loyal sailors to refuse passage of the ship have been singled out for imperial commendation. The mutineers will be court-martialed at Revel.

The electric light service was restored early this morning by sailors of the technical corps.

WOMAN SUFFRAGISTS.

International League Will Meet in Copenhagen, Aug. 7.

Copenhagen, Aug. 3.—The third conference of the International League of Women Suffragists will meet here from Aug. 7 to Aug. 11.

A majority of the delegates, among whom are many Americans, have already arrived here and are the guests of leading families of Copenhagen.

The long distance telephone station was occupied last night by half a company of infantry in order to prevent the anticipated telephonic communication between here and Moscow, and the last train from Moscow brought railroad officials who had collected the funds on hand at the various intermediate stations to prevent their seizure in case of a strike.
