Tragle and Sad Death of Verda, the Fisiere-months-old Daughter of Dr. and Mes. Wright.

Suddenly and in the most shocking manner death entered the home of Dr. and Mrs. Wright at 1000 on Matnicaly sight as the result of a most famestable accident which occurred six hours before. A large pan of boiling water had been pieced by the servant girl enthe door in the histories. It is mis left there to be used for washing some table lines and before cooling it out the servant reighed suitable to attend to estimate the servant reighed suitable to attend to estimate the servant reighed suitable to attend to estimate the servant reighed and the servant reighed matches to attend to estimate the servant reighed and the servant reighed and the servant reighed matches to attend to estimate the suitable lines and before the servant reighed to attend to the servant reighed to a steel, who had just swelmen and excellentally into the lines and secondarily ing the hot water. Mrs. Wright followed the little one and was in the tilches almost before it had time to ecream. Terrified as she was, she sisted her darling in her arms and prived that the injury would result ratally, and cash came at the time reiduated, although the bestof medical sid and still were applied.
