WHAT ANYONE MAY SEE.

Anyone who will examine the list of Cen-tennial Awards will see that the manufac-turers of Benson's Capcine Porous Plaster received the highest and only medal award to plasters.

What Cannot Be Seen

What Cannot Be Seen In this list is the name of any of their nu-merous compatitors. So greatly superior to ordinary porous plasters and iniments is Benson's Capcine Porous Plaster, that it has gained the approval of the highest medical authority in the world. Dr. J. N. H: Thompson, of Washington, D. C., Judge in the Drug Department of the Centenni-al Exposition, says of them: "I use them constantly in my practice, and esteen i them one of the most useful inventions of the age." Benson's Capcine Plaster strengthens, southers timinates a healthful diroulation of the blood, relieves at suce, and curves quicker than any known plaster, liniment or compound. It is now consid-ored to be the unrivalled remedy for lame hack, rheumatism, neuralria, spinal and kidney affection*, sciatios, lumbago, stub-born colds. Sold every where. Price, 25 ct.

In the meantime we hear strange voices, talking as you have not heard Englishmen talk, in this generation at least. Here are some lines of verse which I clip from a radical paper:

The Curse of God sweeps o'er the land, Lord, Lord, have mercy! We die, and feel no helping hand Oh, Lord, have mercy! Famine and horror, plague and blight, Oh, Lord, have mercy! Enwrap us, as in triple night, Lord, Lord, have mercy! The great are throned on seats of gold, Loru, more hard and sold, Oh, Lord, have mercy! The swollen rich oppress and slay, Oh, Lord, have mercy!
