

SALT LAKERS IN GOTHAM.

The Utah Colony Continues to Grow—Bob Easton's Singing of "O My Father" Attracts Attention—A Mock Debate on Senator Smoot's Case Indicates the General Feeling.

Special Correspondence.

New York, May 4.—Utah seems to be sending her people eastward in great numbers lately. Salt Lake and Logan have added their quota the past week, and the cry is still they come. Mrs. George W. Thatcher and her two daughters, Mrs. Nettie Sloan, and Miss Phyllis Thatcher, Mr. Guy Thatcher and wife and Miss Gladys Spencer arrived yesterday and are stopping at the Navarre on Seventh avenue and Thirty-eighth street. Mrs. Thatcher and her family intend remaining for two years and will locate in Harlem near Central park. Mrs. Sloan and Miss Spencer, will take up the piano, Miss Phyllis the violin, and all will have the advantage of excellent teachers. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Thatcher will remain only long enough to see the others well established, then they will go on to Boston before returning to Logan. Mr. W. B. Douglass, Jr., also arrived in New York yesterday, and for the present, is stopping at the Imperial on Broadway. Mr. Douglass is here on business and may remain six weeks or two months. These friends from home are all welcome additions to the Utah colony.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Cummings are moving from their flat on West One Hundred and Twenty-ninth street this week. The idea of taking a house has long been under consideration with Mr. Cummings; flat life has few inducements to offer to families, and the possession of a house entitles, with a front and back yard thrown in, Utah style, is almost too good to be true, yet such places are occasionally to be found in Gotham, and Mr. and Mrs. Cummings are considered fortunate to have secured one of them. The house selected has rooms large enough to accommodate the cottage meetings of the branch which will be held there during the summer. Many strangers in Harlem have also offered their houses to the elders for evening services, and investigators are taking an interest in the meetings which is encouraging to the workers. Mr. Cummings' new quarters are at 233 West One Hundred and Twenty-ninth street.

Miss Mary Young arrived in New York from Chicago a week ago on a visit to her father, Hon. John W. Young. She has been warmly welcomed, as it is almost a year since she left the city for a trip abroad. She will return to Chicago next week, to remain with her mother, Mrs. Nat M. Brigham, for a short time.

The New York papers have all made mention of the sickness of Nellie Pollis, of the "Billions" company. She and Miss Sallie Fisher were the bright, particular stars of that breezy musical comedy, and both have been re-engaged for next season. The ladies were urged to accept engagements in California the coming summer, and Miss Pollis had agreed to go, but she was taken ill with typhoid fever and is now at her home in Chicago, while Miss Fisher accompanied by her mother, went to Salt Lake to enjoy a long rest before taking up her work next September. Miss Fisher is worthy of better things than "The Billions," and shows of that order can offer her, and it is only a matter of time until she will be recognized and given an opportunity to show the material she is made of.

Mr. Channing Pollock has been seen by some of his old Salt Lake friends lately. He is a very earnest worker, an assistant manager for Brady, the husband of Grace George, who is making such a hit as "Pretty Peggy." Mr. Pollock's younger brother is with him for the present.

Miss Blanche Thomas has had an excellent offer to go into vaudeville, but she declined, as there is a prospect of something better ahead. Mr. Seymour has offered her a small part in one of Charles Frohman's companies, and she has accepted it. Miss Thomas left the Klaw and Erlanger dramatic school some time ago. While the teachers were among the best New York can boast, there were other features of the enterprise not so profitable to the student, and Miss Thomas wisely decided not to accept them.

In the Spanish play which Harrison Grey Fluke will produce at the Manhattan next year, the name of Corona Riccardio is mentioned for leading lady. Miss Riccardio is an actress who was often discussed by eastern managers, for the part of Zola, in "Corianth."

"The Bonnie Brier Bush" has been doing good business in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, and is re-booked for next season throughout that part of the country. This year has proved a long one and a prosperous one, for both management and players. When they have been obliged to travel Sunways, which is not uncommon, Bob Easton has often been requested to sing "O My Father" for the company, and it has happened, when stopping in some town or city where one or more members of the company were known, that he has been asked to sing the hymn in some church at evening service. While in St. Johns, N. B., he was requested to sing in St. Stephens church, which he did, and the Daily Telegram of Monday, April 21, has this to say of his work: "Mr. Easton sang the solo 'O My Father' with such expression and feeling, that many in the congregation were moved to tears; the singing made a deep impression and will not soon be forgotten." The paper made further remarks about the sermon and solo being so closely connected, saying that the minister's subject was unknown to Mr. Easton, and that his singing seemed the most appropriate ending to so beautiful a theme.

Mr. Lawrence Putnam and wife, of Woodruff, Rich Co. Utah, who have been living in Providence, R. I., for the last year, left for Salt Lake yesterday, where they will make their home. Mrs. Putnam was Miss Hickey and came with her parents to Bear Lake some time ago, but went back to her old home in Providence for an extended visit, in the hope of restoring her health. Circumstances have now decided them to return to Utah and make their home there for the future.

In the Dayton, Ohio, papers a fine notice was given recently of the "Altair of Friendship," and in the criticism frequent reference was made to the excellent work of Julia Dean; one even said she shared the honors with Nat Goodwin. Both will be with you ere long and then you can judge for yourselves.

The "Players" club house, which boasts a "ladies' day" once a year, where the female feet are timidly allowed a place within its sacred precincts only for one day—royalty threw open its hospitable doors last week, and greeted the fair ones who came as guests of its different members. Miss Ada Patterson and Mrs. Vandergriff, mother of Howard Kyle, were among the favored ones, Mr. Kyle being on the reception committee. This club house possesses unusual interest to New Yorkers, whether in or out of the profession, having been the home Edwin Booth presented to his colleagues, and the place where he died. Next Tuesday Miss Patterson will be the guest of Mrs. Arthur Hoyt Roque (Lillian Bell) at her country home, Applethorpe near Tarrytown, where Mrs. Roque will entertain at a luncheon, a number of well known celebrities in the literary world. Miss Patterson is having honors thrust upon her these days, whether she will or no; the latest is from a prominent magazine whose editor has written her asking for a continuation of her "stage stories," to be exclusively published in the magazine he represents.

Miss Victory Bateman leaves today to play a month's engagement under the management of Benedict & Co. They give "Frou Frou" in Syracuse tomorrow night, Miss Bateman playing Gilberte.

"Mice and Men" closed a most successful engagement at the Garrick last night. Mrs. Annie Adams, understudy for Mrs. Gilbert, will leave today for the farm at Ronkonkoma, L. I. to remain for the summer; Mrs. Isabel Pitts and her son, Mr. Will Pitts, will accompany her. Mr. Pitts' health not permitting him to return to his school at Concord, Miss Mayde Adams, whom last heard from, was journeying through Egypt in company with friends.

Mabel Clare Craft, (now Mrs. Francis Deering) president of the Bohemian club of San Francisco, and the close friend of Ada Patterson, writes her that she and her husband will be in Salt Lake during the month of June. Mr. Deering will have legal business that will occupy his time, and Mrs. Deering will look about Zion for material for further literary work. It will be remembered that Mabel Clare Craft is Sunday editor of the San Francisco Chronicle, and author of "Hawaii Mel," the articles on Hawaii that are appearing in the magazines this season. Mr. and Mrs. Deering are building a beautiful home in San Francisco on Telegraph hill.

B. F. Cummings, the Deseret News New York representative, narrates the following: A few days ago while in Buffalo, I had a very pleasant chat with a Mr. S., advertising manager of a medicine house there, and he related to me the following incident:

He is a member of a sort of literary society which has a membership of 25 or 30, most of whom are professional gentlemen. The sessions of the society are frequently devoted to the discussion of public questions. At one of its recent meetings it was decided to organize a mock senate for the purpose of discussing the case of the recently elected senator from Utah.

Mr. S. was sworn in as "Hon. Reed Smoot of Utah." His family physician was a senator from Massachusetts, while other members of the society were sworn in as from various states of the Union. Next was introduced a resolution expelling "Senator Smoot of Utah," on the ground that he was a polygamist, and it became necessary for the incumbent of the seat to defend it, which he proceeded to do in a vigorous speech.

He declared that he was not a polygamist, that his opponents had failed to produce the slightest evidence indicating that he was, and that the burden of affirmative proof rested upon the supporters of the resolution. He said that he did not propose to bring witnesses from Salt Lake City to the national capitol to prove his innocence until some sort of tangible evidence of his guilt had been presented. His speech was greeted with hearty laughter and applause and an animated discussion of the resolution followed, resulting in its overwhelming defeat. Mr. Cummings adds that the action of this mock senate indicates the widespread interest that thinking and intelligent classes among the American people feel in regard to the Senator Smoot case, and also the popular verdict among these classes respecting it.
