THE EVENING PAPER IS THE PAPER OF TODAY. THE MORNING PAPER IS THE PAPER OF YESTERDAY.

Deseret Evening News.

5 O'CLOCK EDITION.

NO. 295 — MONDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1898, SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH. — VOL. XXXI.

TOMORROW WILL DECIDE

Control of the Senate Will be Determined by Electors.

THIRTY SENATORS WILL BE RETIRED.

Four States are on the Fence, as Both Parties Claim the Day for Their Side.

Alleged High Toned Blackmailers.

OTHER DISSERTATION.

Will be Included in President McKinley's Message to Congress.

INVASION OF CANADA.

French Hopes.

IN THE TEETH OF A GALE

Striking Heroism on the Raging Main in Face of Death.

HOW TERESA'S CREW WAS RESCUED.

Solitary Man at the Wheel True to His Post—Old Glory Flies at the Cruiser's Jack Yard.

En to Date Consul.

FORCE OF EXAMPLE.

Canadian Steamship Company.

Sentenced to be Hanged.

WASHINGTON AFTER THE FIRE

Daylight Reveals a Sorry Spectacle at the Nation's Capitol.

Blackened Frescoes, Soiled Furniture, Charred Documents, Cracked Marble and Chaotic Ruins.

FRENCH PRUDENCE.

Will Coach Northwestern.

Street Car Consolidation.

BIG FIRE IN COLORADO.

En Route to the Falls.

MUM AS AN OYSTER.

BATTLE OF BALLOTS.

Politicians are Speculating Upon the Outcome of Tomorrow's Vote.

ALL SAVE THREE STATES PARTICIPATE.

Claims in New York.

New York.

Pennsylvania Republicans Sanguine.

In Illinois.

Outlook in Kansas.

Close in Ohio.

Too Close in South Dakota.

Doubt in Maine.

Florida is Doubtful.

Quiet in North Carolina.

Indiana in Doubt.

From North Dakota.

Gains are Looked for in Wisconsin.

THRESHING EVIDENCE.

Investigating Committee Has Arrived in the Windy City.

CHILDISH QUIBBLING OVER TENTS.

Delaware Heir.

Panama Election.