EVENING NEWS.

Monday, . December 13, 1875.

Local and Other Matters.

THERMOMETER 52 degrees F. in the shade at 1 p.m. to-day. Fine.

"Physiology."—The next of the series of University lectures on this subject will be delivered on Wednesday evening, by Dr. Seymour B. Young.

Raisins.—Mr. S. P. Teasdel sends a specimen box of his fine cleaned Malaga raisins, which are of a kind that will please excellent housewives and the masterfamilias ladies generally this coming Christmas time.

Runaway. — On Saturday as Henry Bird was driving near Mr. Schettler's residence, 20th Ward, his team ran away. The clevis pin came out, causing the tongue to drop. The horses commenced kicking furiously and the wagon was toppled over and the team stopped. A young woman named Emma Hansen and young Bird were both summarily thrown out of the wagon, but neither of them was hurt.

Theatre.—The Theatre will be open to-morrow night for the exhibition of Lambourne and Kirkham's Grand Panorama of "Across the Continent, or From Ocean to Ocean," which consists of 60 pictures upon 7,000 feet of canvass, painted by the enterprising and rising young artists named. The panorama is announced as on exhibition for one night only, with reduced prices to the various seats. Everybody will want to go and see this production of home artists. Some of the scenes are very fine, and all highly interesting.

Bitten by a Dog.—On Saturday, a little daughter of James Coult, of the 11th Ward, was badly bitten in the leg, near the knee joint, by a dog, near the residence of her grandfather, in the 9th Ward. The owners of vicious dogs should either chain them up or exterminate them. There have been several cases of parties being bitten by dogs lately, and in almost every instance the canine should be deprived of another chance to do the same thing again.

In Jail.—"Ben" Tasker is in jail. He appealed three cases of petit larceny, which had been decided against him by the Justice's Court, to the District Court. The latter set the appeal aside and ordered the Justice to proceed, and that procedure brings Tasker up in the chain gang, unless he shall pay $150 and the costs of the three cases. Should the fines remain unpaid the stock on the range will be able to rest securely for a while, so far as "Ben" is concerned.

An Honest Lad.—On Thursday last a gentleman called at this office and informed us that he had the misfortune to lose a purse containing $40 and an order for four tons of coal. On Friday James D. Decker, a fourteen year old son of Isaac and Anna Decker, called at the office with the purse and contents, which he had found, and was desirous of discovering the owner with a view to returning the property to him. He is an honest lad, and, as such, has the fundamental material in him for a sterling man.

The News from Beaver.—Considerable interest will be created by the dispatch, in another column, concerning court proceedings at Beaver. We understand the statements of our correspondent to be based on a report of the grand jury in the Second Judicial District Court. There appears, from the representations in the dispatch, to be some serious discrepancies in the Marshal's accounts, but it is to be hoped that these discrepancies are only apparent, and that he will be able to explain them satisfactorily.

OFFICIAL EMBEZZLEMENT IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

The Grand Jury Report the U. S. Marshal a Defaulter.

An Ugly State of Things

The following was received over the Deseret Telegraph line to-day, from our special agent—

BEAVER, Dec. 13th.

Deseret News—The report of the grand jury shows a state of affairs alarming in their nature. Out of over thirteen thousand dollars appropriated by the Government for this district, a searching examination by the grand jury shows that little or nothing has been paid, while Marshal Maxwell's books represent that most if not all of the jurors have been paid in full. Not one of the witnesses examined by the grand jury has been paid, whereas Maxwell's account shows all their fees settled with false entries, only some eight thousand dollars being accounted for, leaving between three and four thousand dollars gone into the sinking fund. Members of the grand jury express profound disgust and indignation at the state of affairs, and, in some instances, are out-spoken in their conviction that this Tammany business has been going on a long time, and many thousands of dollars spirited away. Considerable excitement exists and a demand for Maxwell's indictment is becoming quite general. It seems impossible for any satisfactory explanation to be given of the affair. Since Maxwell had the money in his possession, while here, in July, he has made entries upon his books showing witnesses and jurors paid, nearly all of whom paid their own expenses and got nothing.

The Enterprise claims to have proofs of grave offenses in this connection than embezzlement, and promises to lay them before the public immediately. It requests all persons who attended the July or subsequent terms of this court and having unpaid claims against the same, to forward them instantly, and numbers have already been received. One man testifies that he signed a voucher for a thousand dollars, so that correct accounts could go to Washington, with a promise that he should have the money when it was forwarded. He has received three hundred dollars and cannot get any more. There is an additional item of nearly two thousand dollars, for supplies for prisoners, which was doubtless a rich morsel, in view of the fact that the prisoners were boarded at Fort Cameron on government rations.

District Court. — Monday, Dec. 12th.

The People, &c., vs. W W. Hardwick, forgery.

This day came the People, &c., by the District attorney, and the the defendant in his own proper person, who, being arraigned in open court, pleads not guilty. Thereupon comes a jury who were duly empaneled and sworn to try the case—

Charles Read, Lucien Livingstone, James Eardley, T. R. Jones, James McGuffey, B. T. Cummings, Emanuel Kahn, Warren F. Reynolds, David Evans, P. H. Laonan, John Reading, George F. Prescott.

Witnesses, Thos. Taylor, Robert Howarth, L. J. Peterson, Ed. Gilmore.

The Court instructed the jury that the prosecution had not made out a case of forgery, and they bring in a verdict in accordance with this charge.

Verdict—"We, the jury in the above entitled cause, find the defendant guilty, as charged in the indictment."

Verdict set aside by the Court.

The People, etc., vs. James O'Brien, F. Curtis, and Alber Wilson, larceny.

Having been previously arraigned and pleaded not guilty, came a jury, etc., as follows—John W. Snell, B. F. Dewey, Henry Simons, F. Armstrong, Allen T. Riley, James Johnson, Nathan J. Lang, F. Cisler, T. W. Ireland, Ed. L. Butterfield, Homer Brown, John Tingey, James Van Tassell, Samuel Woodard, S. J. Lees.

Witnesses, Jonathan C. Royle, Clara Morrell, W. G. Phillips. For the defense, Charles Rich, Joseph Phelps.

Our Country Contemporaries.

Ogden Junction, Dec. 11 —

We were favored this morning with a call from Judge A. F. Farr who, we are happy to say, has recovered from his severe illness.

Our correspondent at Morgan says "a foot of snow is earth's mantle in Morgan county, money is scarce, deer in abundance and easily to be caught in ten feet of snow in the mountains."

The trial of J. B. Czachert, of this city, in the Third District Court, has been continued for the term, defendant affirming that he was not able to procure the attendance of certain important witnesses.

The U. P. Company have made sensible provisions in case of a snow blockade. A baggage car on each passenger train is stored with crackers, canned goods, etc., enough to feed a large company for several days. The goods are to be sold if not used in two or three weeks, and a new stock supplied. For prevention of blockades, the line has been raised in several places, and snow fences erected. The probability is that snow will not be master of the great highway during the winter of '75 6.

Beaver Enterprise, Dec. 9—

The following is the list of Grand Jurors for the December, 1875, term of the Second Judicial District Court of Utah Territory:

[Gentiles in Roman—Mormons in Italics.]

1 Thomas J. Smith,
2 Samuel Angell,
3 James McCarty,
4 Jared Jaylor,
5 Wm. R. Crawford,
6 Robert Keyes, sen.,
7 Hugh Hewson,
8 Lorenzo Barton,
9 Michael Menahan,
10 H. H. Smith,
11 James Black,
12 G. H. Hill,
13 David Pollock,
14 Sydney Manning,
15 H. H. Lull, Foreman.

Judge Boreman then proceeded to deliver his charge, which was mainly verbal. His Honor confined himself principally to defining, in comprehensive, common-sense language, United States and Territorial crimes and offences against public justice, etc. He impressed upon the jury the necessity of indicting for cause, without being influenced for or against by fear, favor, affection or the hope of reward; to overlook no one, whatever his position or the nature of his offense, and to have intercourse with no one but the Prosecuting Attorney. The charge was quite brief, not occupying over ten minutes. After its delivery, the jury retired to their room, and the routine business of the Court was proceeded with.

On Tuesday last, Sheriff Coombs levied upon the "Wasatch" mine, by virtue of an execution obtained in the Justice's Court of Beaver precinct, in favor of Dr. W. L. Jones and against H. W. Morse. The sale will take place on the 27th.

The "Lincoln" is now in full blast, working as many hands as circumstances will allow. Their pump will soon be at work, when the force will be increased. Prospects are exceedingly bright.

A new discovery has been made a few hundred yards from the "Lincoln," by Messrs. Bosman, Puffer and Lyman. They have named it the "United States;" it is said to be a fine looking prospect.

Petition for International Arbitration, &c.

WASHINGTON, 13.—Anthony presented a memorial signed by 2,325 members of the Society of Friends, of New England, in favor of international arbitration for the settlement of disputes between nations without resorting to arms. In presenting the memorial Anthony said that any measure looking to the settlement of disputes without resorting to arms was in the interest of humanity; referred to the committee on foreign relations.

A memorial of citizens of Wisconsin asking the repeal of the law increasing postage on merchandise was presented and referred to the postoffices and postroads committee.

West presented a memorial of a thousand citizens of Louisiana against the operation of what is known as the little tariff bill, in regard to duty on wines; referred to the committee on finance.

Wright introduced a bill declaring the true intent and meaning of the Union Pacific Railroad acts; referred to the judiciary committee.

Sargent introduced a bill to protect persons of foreign birth against forcible restraint or involuntary servitude; referred to the judiciary committee.

Davis submitted a resolution citing the law requiring reports to be made to Congress annually, of persons indebted to the government, with a list of defaulters, the amount of defalcation, &c.; and calling upon the Secretary of the Treasury to inform the Senate why such reports have not been made. In submitting the resolution Davis said that no report had been made since 1865, and he believed that an immense sum was due the government by defaulters. It was stated last year, when a similar resolution was offered, that it would cost $75,000 and would require several months, to furnish the list of defaulters, the amounts involved, &c.

Sherman suggested that the resolution be referred to the committee on finance.

Thurman saw no reason why the resolution should not be adopted and sent directly to the Secretary of the Treasury.

Sherman said the resolution referred to several statutes, to which senators had not had an opportunity to refer. It also asserted three or four matters purporting to be facts which the senator himself could not vouch for, and he (Sherman) thought that all resolutions of inquiry involving an expense should be referred to the appropriation committee.

Davis said he was satisfied that the law had been disregarded since 1865, and he saw no reason why the Secretary of the Treasury should not be asked why the law had not been complied with.

Butwell said the statute as it now stood did not require the Secretary to furnish such a list.

Sherman said he would not object to the resolution being printed and laid over until to-morrow, but he gave notice now that he would hereafter move to refer to the proper committee all resolutions of inquiry where questions of fact or law are involved. The resolution was laid over until tomorrow. It will be printed.

Morrill, of Vt., submitted a resolution instructing the committee on foreign affairs to inquire into the expediency of providing by a general law for the extradition of fugitives from justice, and also the propriety of refusing an asylum to fugitive criminals and removing them from the country, he thought we could raise up enough of our own; the resolution was agreed to.

Kelly of, Oregon, introduced a bill conforming the boundaries of the State of Oregon to those fixed and defined in the constitution of the State as presented to Congress when applying for admission into the Union. Also a bill for the relief of the legal representatives of Chauncey M. Lockwood.

Mitchell, of Oregon, introduced a bill for the improvement of the military wagon road from Scottsburg, Oregon, to Camp Stewart in that State; also a bill attaching the territory of Alaska to and making it a part of the Territory of Washington, and providing for a civil government therein.
