THE EVENING NEWS THE EVENING NEWS, FORLISHED DAILY, SUBDAYS EXCURPTED, AS NOUR O'CLOOK. GEORGE Q. CANNON, BRIGHAM YOUNG, CANNON, BRIGHAM YOUNG, price, in enses where the land was valuable gave them the miserable EDITORS AND PUBLISHER. hovels in which they lived but no Alfred G. Holcombe, yesterday,

Indult and y total and y tot ous insinuations and base false-heods in New York society against one of our most honored and trustone of our most honored and trust-ed friends, a gentleman whose per-sonal character and patriotic valor stand so far above that of this des-pot's hireling that it is superfluous to say a word in vindication; they have been tested both in the field of battle and of diplomacy. "And whereas, all this has been done in order to prejudice our just cause and deprive us of the well-deserved sympathies of the humane and liberty loving American people, in our of the movement, and they began Lieutenant Governor desperate struggle for emancipation to perceive the necessity of the made unanimous. from a disgraceful and unworthy bondage, inconsistent with the pro-gressive spirit of the nineteenth being given free choice either to the convention consisting of over

New Electric Light.

to perceive split of the nineteenth of a republic based of the set of the set Exciling Drama! Brilliant Olio! Roaring Farce!

traveled through in the past two ALL THE LOCAL FAVORITES WILL APPEAR

FRIDAY EVE: MAY 30th The Performance will com

THE ROBBE

Admission, Usual Theatre Bates. No LOST, and at an W HILE driving about the city, a marrow Gold Bracelet, marked Ines. C. Wai-ince. The finder will bo rewarded by re-turning to this Office.

FOR SALE.

Apply to

The Rensame neart. Thus Relining to the Rensame neart. Thus Relining to the reliable of the destruction of the convention there was a split on account of the convention. The failure of the parts commune opened the of the parts commune opened the oper spot. See and account of the convention for a clty I have and at the convention of Hickenlooper for the account of the parts of the

Monsieur le Prince Pierre de of all the secret societies of Eu-Kartchewsky, Consul-General rope have been studied from de Russie, New York." This formidable document indi- nation is adopted and defended cates the existence in this country as justifiable in an oppressed of an 'organized branch of the Nibilistic tree, but does not make and the Romanolf family is deplain the motives nor claims of the nounced as the most dissolute and society. That men and women bloody family in Europe, which should band together for the de- can only be affected by retaliation struction of law, government, soci- and the exercise of that vengeance ety, order and peace and to bring which its members have wreaked about chaos and nothingism, seems so terribly and freely on others.

with the civilization and religious formalism of the Greek Church. This signifies a return to the old Blavonie patriarchalism, which prevailed in Russis before either Greek or Mongolian influences spread over the land, followed by the centralization that held sway down to the time of Peter the Great, who the time of Peter the Great, who introduced features of western civi-lization, which it appears are as ob-final adjournment on the 10th of noxious to the Nihilists as the ori- June.

and peaceable except when attack: ed or their country invaded. Their chiefs were chosen in public assem-chiefs were chosen in public assemed or their country invaded. Their chiefs were chosen in public assem-blies and their form of government was a mixture of patriarchallsm and republicanism. Their religion was originally monothelatic, but degenerated into a sort of panthelam bearing some resemblance to the oreeds of India. The chiefs acted as may be dated from the time of Nicholas I, whose despotism, with the rapacity of the officials whom he appointed without regard to birth or education, embittered not

BY TELEGRAPH

PRE WESTERN URION TELEGRAPH LINE.

FORTY - SIXTH CONGRESS.

EXTRA SESSION.

EASTERN.

Grant's Gifts.

CHICAGO, 29.-Twenty-two com-petitors entered for the O'Leary belt in the 75 hour walking tourbelt in the 75 hour walking tour-nament. The start was made shortly bifore 9 polock to-night. Five thousand persons were pre-sent. Six miles were accomplianed by George Guyon in an hour and 14 seconds, by George Parry in an hour, two minutes and 30 seconds, and by Peter Crossland in an hour, 15 minutes and 47 second. which to perfect this; assausi-15 minutes and 47 second .

A Alchoning Recital-A Hotel Barned

HAGERSTOWN, Md., 29.-About 2 o'clock this morning, a fire was dis-covered in the lower floor of too preposterous for belief. Yet this The foregoing is only a meagre is the prevalent idea of the nature account of the vast movement given, the fire had gained such of Nihilism. The only explanation we have seen which throws any sat-isfactory light on this myste-rious subject, is contained in an account of an interview with a prominent account of this secret Ora which is undermining the consti- given, the fire had gained such an account of an interview with a prominent agent of this secret Or-der, said to have been obtained with great difficulty, and after is strong pledges of concealment of the same and whereabouts of the same and whereabouts of the same and whereabouts of the New York Herald. Trom the statements alleged to have thus been made it appears that Nihilism aims at the destroot tion of the whole system of government introduced into Russia from the time of Vladimir I, and particularly by the Romanoff dynasty, is unknown. There are six persons missing, supposed to be burned and in the ruins. Fifteen persons are injured seriously from falling and about 20 are slightly injured. Durett B Farr A Fry T D Seven Uhildren Polsoved by Polint d ark, 10 miles distant from here, a party of nine children, yesterday, drank water from a brook, the waters of which had been polluted by the carcasses of a horse and noxious to the Nihilists as the ori-entalism of the Tartars. The ancient Slavic tribes were a pastoral and sgricultural people, industrious, hospitable, patriotic, and peaceable except where streats oreeds of India. The chiefs acted as priests, the worship was held in groves and temples, and sacrifices were offered of fruits and animals According to the agent mention-ed above, the birth of Nihilism may be dated from the time of FOBEIGN.

Water. ISLAND POND, Vt. 29.-At New

GREAT BRITAIN

that should he persist in his infant-ous conduct, the consequences will certainly be disastrous to him as they have invariably been to those who have disregarded our warn-ings.' The above-named resolution has been unanimously adopted, and the Secretary is hereby instructed to forward copies of this resolution to those whom it may concern. THE RUSSIAN REVOLUTIONARY before they can expect to be done before they can expect to have everything just to suit them. But I will say that those who will come to this land with the spirit of the gospel will be satisfied with the country. The ruins of cities and willages are found all over the country where

The tuins of cities and villages are found all over the country where I have travelled, and are of three kinds—stone. adobie and cemient. Te all appearance, this country was once densely populated, but the in-habitants have passed away, and their houses have been left unto them desolate. Your brothes in the

Your brother in the gespel, LLEWELLYN HARRIS.

LIST OF LETTERS. EMAINING in the Post Office at Sall called for within one month, will be sent to the Dead Letter Office. .

> Pack J Priest C J Halistrom Hoskins H Holden H Hall S Rocse R A Jung E Johrson () James A V Kaufman ayrea R

MoIntyre Murray M Mulvany I

GENTLEMEN'S LAST.

lustavson H

Allsworth B 2 Allen W Baldwin G Bartlett D'B O awo

ayres G kmärk L E Manel

Laveny L

Π

and

Cloth

Hair

20

OWERS

ESTS

