

UNIVERSITY OF UTAH.

Salt Lake City.—During the chapel hour on Wednesday the students were addressed by President Kingsbury of the University and Dean Eddies of the Episcopal church. Mr. Best and Miss Owen sang a duet.

The president's talk was of a disciplinary nature. He expressed his disapproval of the manner in which some of the students had conducted themselves on the previous Friday. He said that college spirit and patriotism is to be commended but that rowdiness will not be tolerated at the University.

The closing song "Our Alma Mater," was sung by Mr. Best. The words of this song were composed by Prof. Byron Cummings and the music by Mr. Best.

At the examination of candidates for naval cadetship recently conducted by President Kingsbury, Principal Eaton, and Dr. Whittier, Stephen W. Wallace, a junior engineer received the highest per cent and will be given the appointment by Senator Rawlins. Mr. Wallace has been notified to report at Annapolis on Nov. 15. Mr. H. B. Barnes will accompany Mr. Wallace as alternate.

There are now three young men from the University attending the West Point military academy. Their names are Charles Telford, Rupert A. Dunford and Edward LeCompt.

On Monday, Mr. Ike Alexander introduced in the "Varsity" senate a bill providing for a uniform examination of teachers throughout the United States. The university brass band is now organized with 14 members. G. M. Dougall is leader; W. T. Taylor is president; and John V. Buckle is secretary and treasurer. The boys meet for practice every Wednesday evening.

On Tuesday afternoon Prof. Allen's section in plain and solid geometry defeated Prof. Toronto's classes in the same subject in a match game of football. The score was 10 to 5.

Miss Effie Dahlstedt, a second year normal, was burned last week in the chemical laboratory. She put some metallic sodium into a beaker of water and began stirring it with a small stick when it exploded and flew into her face.

Dr. Talmage's classes in geology and physical geography took a field trip today. They visited the hills to the north and east of the Warm Springs studying the fault plains and deposits of Lake Bonneville.

At a meeting of the Dramatic club last Wednesday evening Prof. Babcock completed the assignment of parts for "The Amazons." The cast is as follows:

Barrington Viscount Lettrey Mr. Stanley Jonasson
Galford, Earl of Treenway Mr. Elbert Thomas
Andre Count de Grival, Mr. Harold Goff
Rev. Roger Minchin, Mr. John Condie
Tiltan Mr. Jay E. Johnson
Oris Mr. Walter Evans
Marion Marchioness of Castle Jordan
Miss Angelina Holbrook
Lady Neoline Bethubert Miss Ardelia Bither
Lady Wilhelmeth Bethubert Miss Ellen Tibbits
Lady Thomasia Bethubert Miss Edna Harker
"Sergeant" Shuter, Miss Lyla Knudson

The Amazons is a three act comedy by Pinaro. It will be presented in the Salt Lake Theater early in December.

Mr. Jay E. Johnson and Mr. Evan Gamett have been elected assistant managers to Mr. Elbert Thomas of the Dramatic club.

Prof. Babcock has arranged for the presentation of another play "Tulu," by Miss Grace Furness. The cast for this is made up from the junior members of the club. This play will be presented in the University assembly some time in December.

"The Utah Enquirer" is the name of the newspaper to be published by the students of the mining school of the university. The Enquirer will be issued quarterly and will be devoted to scientific subjects. R. Elmer Caldwell is managing editor, John Bryce Forrester is assistant manager, A. Z. Richards, Clarence G. Dresser and G. M. P. Dargatz are associate editors. The first number will be issued November 15.

The fourth year normals gave a Halloween party last night in the assembly hall of the museum building. All sorts of curious costumes were worn by the class members. Ghosts, witches and fairies were among their number. While some of the guests were dancing others ate refreshments or had their fortunes told. The committee in charge were D. P. Howells, J. O. Carter, W. Gardner, Nellie Sutton, Anna Wilcken and Edith Breves.

Wednesday evening President Fred J. Park and Vice President J. B. Forrester of the Engineering society entertained their fellow members in the kindergarten rooms of the normal building. After listening to a musical program, the guests were served with ice cream, cake, punch and fruit.

Manager Riser of the football team has received word that the students of Stanford university will run an excursion to Salt Lake City for Thanksgiving day, bringing their football team, brass band, and 500 rosters.

SALT LAKE CITY SCHOOLS

The first boys' chorus in the city schools has been organized by Supervisor Wetzel at the Lowell, and will consist of 30 voices. The boys are starting out very well indeed.

Supt. Christensen and Prent. Newman were visitors at the Franklin on Monday.

The many educational friends in this city of Miss Nellie M. Powers will be glad to learn that she has been appointed supervisor of penmanship in the schools of Spokane, Wash.

Messieurs Porter, Caskey, Jensen, Baxter and Miss Dixon were visitors at the Twelfth school this week.

The following grade meetings are scheduled for the coming week. Third grade, Wednesday, Nov. 3, Miss Pollock; second grade, Wednesday, Nov. 3, and sixth grade Thursday, Nov. 6, Mrs. Elliott.

Mrs. Lane, Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Drennan were visitors at the Franklin the present week.

Supervisor Pollock visited the Twelfth, Riverside, Lowell and Union this week.

Two alcoves are being fitted up at the Sumner, and it is the expectation that the shelves will soon be fitted up with choice books for both teachers and pupils.

Supervisor Elliott's optional meeting for drawing last Saturday was well attended, and was productive of excellent results.

E. O. Leatherwood, formerly connected with the schools of this city, is now practicing law in Salt Lake.

The eighth A teachers of the east side attended a history meeting at the Lincoln school last week. Principal McCoy of the Bryant high school was also present.

Supt. Christensen visited the Riverside, Union and Bryant high school this week.

The new State street building will contain a feature not heretofore planned in our fine school structures. An assembly room is to be arranged on the third floor, will be provided with opera chairs, and will have a seating capacity of 500. The general meetings of the teachers, as well as grade meetings will occur there.

Each room at the Riverside has been formed into a military company, a scheme designed to improve the marching and give more dignity of carriage to the pupils.

Miss Helen Bailey, teacher of room five at the Lincoln, has charge of the music for marching. She is assisted by Misses Zoe Green, Clara Holmgren, Pearl Golding and Ruby Cowan.

The superintendent and teaching corps duly appreciate the courtesy of Mayor Thompson in again placing at the disposal of Supt. Christensen the room used for grade meetings last year.

The new regulation passed by the board of education relative to the resignation of teachers has had a good effect. Thus far no resignations have been filed, while at the same time last year there were 15 resignations.

Department work is proving very successful at the Webster school. Mrs. Probes teaches grammar, Miss McFadden history and geography, Mr. Nielson arithmetic, and Miss Nash reading.

The girls at the Lincoln are much pleased with sewing. On Monday morning pupils of the seventh A went to school at 8:30 to make up a lesson which they missed while that school was temporarily closed.

G. C. Young, formerly supervisor of music in the school of this city, is now teacher of music in a state normal school in Pennsylvania.

Miss Howell, a teacher at Idaho Falls, Ida., visited Miss Potter of the Lincoln on Monday and Messrs. Claques and Evans were visitors on Wednesday.

Mrs. McKay and Miss Gardiner of the Ninth school were visitors at the Lowell on Thursday.

Mrs. Spooner and Miss Jones were visitors at the Ninth school this week. Miss McMania is giving a series of lessons in penmanship to the Lowell teachers.

The Lowell literary society rendered the following program on Friday afternoon:

Chorus by the school.
Address by President Earle Rogers.
Piano solo—Grace Grant.
Recitation—Hilda Green.
Humorous reading—John Lyon.
Duet—Julie Edmunds and Hazel Slater.

Talk on John Paul Jones—Lynn Thompson.

Reading—Elmer Evans.
Quotations—Chloe Sharp, Pressie Anderson, Bert Clayton, Rena Anderson, Claud Pratt.

Piano solo—Josephine Brown.
Critics' report.

Miss Clara Larsen of the Hamilton school was given a pleasant surprise by the pupils of her room on Friday afternoon, Oct. 24. By a pre-arrangement Miss Larsen was induced to visit Miss Wilkinson's room on the upper floor, ostensibly on an errand of importance, and when she returned to her room she found a delicate and toothsome menu in readiness. Other teachers and Principal Barton were invited and all had a delightful time.

Supervisor Pollock has sent out instructions to teachers relative to the quantity and quality of reading for the grades under her direction. The suggestions go to the mark, teachers are urged to prosecute earnestly the daily work, and stimulated to greater effort, encouraged in meritorious duty, and if carried out must produce the most gratifying results.

W. S. WALLACE,

Principal of the Union School, Salt Lake City.

The Union school has been provided with two ample store rooms, one of which is used for maps, charts, ink blocks, etc., and the other for books and supplies. The building is in excellent condition, and everything indicates an enthusiastic body of workers. Principal Wallace is very proud of his school.

Miss Bishop of the Hamilton school was made the recipient of a complete surprise by her pupils, on Thursday
