

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRE.—On Saturday night, Mr. Hart gave his farwell performance to an astonished audience. To-night, the legitimate again claims our boards. "Hamlet" is the piece selected for the debut of Mr. D. Chaplin, Jr., of course appearing as the "melancholy Dane." Miss Lockhart appears as the Queen, and the cast of Ophelia is entrusted to Miss Ward. The other characters by the leading ladies and gentlemen of the stock company.

CONFIRMED.—We are indebted to President Brigham Young for the following dispatch from President Erastus Snow, confirming the sad news of the death of Elder James Davidson and wife.

St. George, June 27, by the St. Thomas mail of the 22d, our worst fears in regard to the fate of the Davises were, as we realized. Their remains were found near their broken buggy, twenty-eight miles from St. Joseph and five miles from the water in Quocah Wash. It appears that after breaking down, the boy, a lad of 12 years of age, was sent forward for water, but passed by without finding it, he traveled of eighteen miles further and was found dead a mile from the (Beaver dam) well, with his empty keg, and canteen near him.

YESTERDAY.—Yesterday was the twenty-fifth anniversary of the foul massacre of Joseph and Hyrum Smith. A quarter of a century has passed and the work which they called upon Joseph Smith to commence still flourishes and increases in power in the midst of the earth. So will it ever be. As a pleasing coincidence Elder John Taylor who at that time suffered, though he was not married with our Prophet and patriarch, delivered a discourse in the New tabernacle to a congregation numbering thousands, many of whom were not members of the Church. The other speakers were Elder Joseph W. Young in the morning, and the Rev. W. Backus, Corresponding Secretary of the American Home Missionary Society of New York, in the afternoon.

SERENADE.—On Saturday evening Captain Croxall's beautiful brass band serenaded President Young on his return from his northern tour.

"NED BUNTLINE."—The cry is "still they come." Col. E. Z. C. Judson, better known as "Ned Buntline," the writer and lecturer, informs us that he will be in Salt Lake City in three or four days to lecture on the Nature, Resources and Prospects of California and Nevada. What with the Theatre and Circus we are afraid he is coming at an inauspicious time.

THE PROCESSION.—All Salt Lake City was abroad this morning. They came, they looked on and were satisfied. From the carriage of Theodore, king of Abyssinia with its team of eight fine horses, to the last gigantic cage of animals which closed the paganistic all were matters of wonderment and surprise. The youngsters of Salt Lake City "had never seen the like," of course excepting those whose first years were passed in the giant cities of other lands; but to those who were born here, this being the first menagerie and circus of any great pretensions that ever passed through this city, everything was passing strange—wonderful. Of course "Jenny Lind," the elephant came in for her share of the praise, nor was the camel nor the trick ponies forgotten.

FRATERNAL VISIT.—Mr. W. C. Roberts of the Janesville (Wis.) Gazette called upon us this morning. He informs us he reached this City early yesterday afternoon, but would have got in on Friday night, had not the train in which he traveled met with two accidents. The first of which occurred near Bryan, smashing up two baggage cars; the second occurred near Weber Canyon, when the car in which he was sitting partly ran off the track and was in imminent danger of being thrown over the embankment, but after running about half a mile the train was luckily stopped before any further injury was sustained.

SABBATH SCHOOLS IN CACHE CO.—We glean the following items from a letter of Elder W. H. Shearman, Superintendent of Sabbath Schools in Cache Co.: "The Sunday schools in the county are, as a general thing, in a prosperous and satisfactory condition. At Smithfield the school is flourishing and great pains are taken by those in charge to make it interesting and instructive to the children. During the past year the average attendance has been children 175, teachers 18, while a considerable sum has been collected for a library and reward cards. A class recently organized has made rapid progress in the Deseret Alphabet and Primer. Elders Charles Wright and W. A. Noble, Superintendents of each of the children to sing, in which delightful exercises they have made considerable proficiency.

There are also good Sabbath schools in Providence, Hyrum, Millville and Paradise, where the brethren and sisters are laboring diligently and with pleasure in the very useful field. In consequence of the untoward events, some of the schools have been unable to obtain libraries as yet, but the leading men are interesting themselves to remedy this as soon as possible.

The Logan Sunday Schools had a reunion picnic on the 9th inst, which was well attended and highly enjoyed by the little folks. The bowlers, swings, and other means of recreation provided by the brethren, combined with the enlivening strains of the Logan brass band, who kindly turned out for the occasion, made the day pass very agreeably to both old and young. I expect shortly to be enabled to visit the rest of the Sabbath schools in the valley."
