President Roosevelt Wants All
Brutality Eliminated From The Game.

WHAT WALTER CAMP SAYS

Desires That With Present Rules
Roughness of the Sport Can Not Be Entirely Abolished.

New York, Oct. 11.—Circulars will, according to the Herald, be sent to a few days to the collegiate athletes from the football experts who last Monday met the football experts in which it will be suggested that all brutality be eliminated from the American game.

Conferences which are scheduled for this season will be played in accordance with the suggestions made. At the annual meeting of the football association to be held in the winter at Philadelphia, however, it is expected that the changes which have been spoken of with much force by the president will be thoroughly considered.

One of the three best known of the experts who attended the Philadelphia conference was Walter Camp of Yale, and it is expected that he will be one of the most influential in the matter. Camp said that he would make a statement as soon as the president released him from his temporary duty which had been made.

LAFAYETTE GO DOWN.

High School Huskies Defeat Them in Football Game.

The fact that the Salt Lake High School is large enough this year to support two independent football teams, has been the subject of much comment. The team which defeated the Lafayette team in the game last night, was the first team to be defeated by the Salt Lake High School.

The game was a very close one, the Salt Lake team winning by a score of 10 to 0. The game was a very close one, the Salt Lake team winning by a score of 10 to 0. The game was a very close one, the Salt Lake team winning by a score of 10 to 0.

DEADLOCK BROKEN

Between Football Teams of Salt Lake and Ogden High Schools.

The deadlock has been broken between the Ogden and Salt Lake High Schools, and it is probable that a game will be played between them this year after all. The two parties fell at odds over the fact that Ogden wanted the Thanksgiving date, but Salt Lake wanted the date after the game.

A LETTER TO OUR READERS.

33 COTTAGE ST., MELROSE, MASS.
Dear Sir: Jan. 11th, 1904.

"Ever since I was in the Army, I had more or less kidney trouble, and with in the past year it became so severe and complicated that I suffered everything and was much alarmed—my strength and power was fast leaving me. I saw an advertisement of Swamp-Root and wrote asking for advice. I began the use of the medicine and noted a decided improvement after taking Swamp-Root only a short time.

I continued its use and am thankful to say that I am entirely cured and strong. In order to be very sure about this, I had a doctor examine some of my water today and he pronounced it all right and in splendid condition.

I know that your Swamp-Root is purely vegetable and does not contain any harmful drugs. Thanking you for my complete recovery and recommending Swamp-Root to all sufferers I am,

Very truly yours,
L. C. RICHARDSON.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, sent absolutely free by mail, also a book telling all about Swamp-Root. If you are already convinced that Swamp-Root is what you need, you can purchase the regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles at the drug stores everywhere. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

It is no man in the world who knows better than Billy Delaney, Kaufmann's adviser, that too much premature boasting produces the opposite from its intended effect. And for that reason, the veteran trainer will make his protégé climb the hill of progress slowly. Here's the story of the fight between the two men who handled the other ambitious heavyweights. They gave people to understand that their men were going to be a knockout. His first professional battle terminated in exactly the same way as did his previous contests with rank amateurs. Who knows but that he will repeat the dose on a more formidable opponent?

New York, Oct. 10.—When two well-trained ball teams are played against each other, with the points covered by men of acknowledged cleverness, there is always a doubt as to the outcome until the game is completed. The truth of this was proved today, when the second game of the world's championship series, the Philadelphia champions of the American league defeated the National league champions on the Philadelphia grounds. Yesterday's men defeated Manager Mack's team by a score of 6 to 3, and today, when the latter visited this city, they just reversed the score, shutting out the locals.

The visitors put in their Indian pitcher, Bender, with Schreckengost to handle him, against McGinnity and Bresnahan. The visiting battery was exceedingly supported as was the local end for two innings. But in the third inning Gilbert made a costly error, which gave the visitors a lead which they never relinquished. McGinnity was relieved in the latter half of the eighth inning, Schreckengost being put in to bat. The change did not prove effective, however.

In the third inning Schreckengost sent a grounder to Gilbert, who threw wildly to first, and the friends of the local team groaned when Bender was safe. Bender made a neat sacrifice. Harrell tried to send the ball to the boundary, but was an easy out. Lord, the next up, had the right man in the pinch, as he singled to center, scoring Schreckengost. Davis was thrown out by Dahlen, and the inning ended in the Philadelphia grounds, who had tallied one run.

There was a ding-dong game of last night, in which the home team looked as though the home team might be the victor. But in the eighth inning, Bender made a base on balls. Schreckengost, who had been in the lead, was thrown out by Dahlen, and the inning ended in the Philadelphia grounds, who had tallied one run.
