BY TELEGRAPH.
FOR THE WEEK END BEGINNING SATURDAY
—AMERICAN—
WIRED FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, 24.—The Senate committee on rules decided to recommence the following changes in the Senate rules: First, In the absence of the Vice-President, the Senate shall choose a President pro tempore. Second, In the absence of the Vice-President, and pending the election of a President pro tempore the secretary of the Senate, or in his absence the chief clerk shall perform the duties of the chair. Third, The President pro tempore shall have the right to name in open Senate, or if absent in writing, a Senator to perform the duties of the chair, and the Senator so designated may discharge such duties for a period not exceeding three days, unless the Senate otherwise order.

Secretary Frelinghuysen has cabled the commander of the Atlantic fleet instructions that a course be pursued of protection to American interests in case of war between France and China. The nature of the instructions is unknown.
Lawrence Widson of Illinois, is appointed Judge of the Court of Claims.

The President has pardoned Sergeant Mason, who attempted to shoot Guilleau.
Joseph H. Blackfan, superintendent of foreign mails, died this afternoon.

Depnity and Disaster.
DENVER, 24.—Further particulars from the train robbery on the Southern Pacific states the engineer was the person killed instead of the express messenger. The train was wrecked by the robbers spreading rails, then firing at the engineer, who frightened the passengers, none of whom were hurt. Troops have been ordered in pursuit of the robbers. It is not yet known what amount was taken.

Boston, 24.—Rev. Mr. Mitchell, newly installed pastor of the Westboro Congregational Church, was arrested this morning on the charge of stealing books. It is stated that when arrested he offered $100 to keep the matter quiet.

The Prussian authorities inform the police that Nathan S. Kline, 55 years old, of Mowrazlow, is wanted on a charge of falsifying bills of exchange to the amount of $10,000. A reward of 15 per cent. of the amount stolen is offered.

Concord, N. H., 24.—Immense damage has been wrought by the recent gale at Chatham, N. H., and the states and towns over the border in Maine. Thousands of acres of valuable forests are totally destroyed.
All of the old and a great deal of the new growth are gone. The destruction is so great that the timber is in some places so matted and tangled in debris as to be almost unworkable. In many instances the tops of the wood-choppers are ruled and much suffering to them will ensue this winter.

Lawrence, 24.—The tariff convention has adjourned. The rules approved allow of no reinstatement after being ruled out. Riders, rubbers, attendants and stablemen are excluded from the pool room grounds. Penalty of expulsion of any one offering money to a jockey, trainer or attendant at any stable without permission of the owners. Gambling on the grounds by employees is punished by expulsion or suspension.
Ten of 15 associations adopted the above rules. The stakes of the different clubs were January 1. Ben.
G. Bruce was elected secretary.

Chicago, 24.—Ex-Senator E. Ben-ciser, formerly from Alabama, now engaged in mining in Nevada, passed through this city to-day en route to Washington, in charge of the U. S. marshal, who arrested the ex-governor for contempt of court in failing to appear at the Star route trial.
Benciser was originally engaged in the Star route investigation when James was Postmaster General, but when the case was called for trial he went to Europe to avoid trial. He was interviewed to-day when asked why he failed to testify, Benciser responded that he was the first man to sue the Star route investigation, and when they were begun he was Postmaster General and Government the benefit of what he knew about them. He claims he did this to clear his name and that he was not to be known in the matter, or be made a witness for the prosecution.
When he got evidence in shape, he declares faith was not kept with him.

Anti-Mormonism in England.
New York, 24.—World's London: The anti-Mormon movement is begunning to take definite shape in England. The success which has attended the efforts of the Mormon missionaries in this country has led to a strong feeling of opposition, and an organized movement on a large scale has been set on foot to effect the entire influence of the propaganda. Members of Parliament and other influential persons have proposed aid, and such legislation is being introduced as will check, or prohibit the emigration of large numbers of young persons to Utah. Many meetings have been held, particularly in the north of England, and the tendency to embrace a belief so far from the blood is poor and the vitality consequently feeble. If you are suffering from such feelings, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is just what you need, and will do you incalculable good.
No other preparation so concentrates and combines blood-purifying, vitalizing, enriching, and invigorating qualities as AYER'S SARSAPARILLA.

NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW.
No intelligent reader can fail to be interested in the contents of the North American Review for December. The question of the telegraph has the place of honor in the number. Gardiner G. Hubbard pointing out the great advantages that would result from the proposed "Government Control of the Telegraph," and showing from the experience of several European countries the benefits to be derived from the incorporation of the telegraphic with the postal service. Prof. J. Laurence Laughlin, of Harvard University, shows the "Evils of the Sub-Treasury System," in its absorbing and withholding from circulation the scale that is constantly needed to secure stability in the world of finance. "The Day of Judgment," by Gail Hamilton, is a caustic review of the less amiable moral traits of Thomas Carlyle. Henry George writes of "Overpopulation," an idea which he declares to be preposterous, unless more wealth is produced than is wanted. Gen. W. B. Franklin sets forth the views of naval and military experts as to what is absolutely needed, in the way of organization, force, ships and war material, to insure the "National Defense." An article on "Railroad and Public Time," by Prof. Leonard Waldo, of the Yale College observatory, explains the system of uniform time standards now being introduced into the railroad service of the United States. Finally, there is a disquisition of the question of "Morality without Religion," by E. A.
Kier and Prof. A. A. Hodge, of Princeton College. Published at 30 Lafayette Place, New York, and for sale by booksellers generally.

A Boston Globe reporter was informed by Mr. E. M. Gifford, of the Norway Iron Works, that city, that nothing he had ever seen equaled St. Jacobs Oil as a rapid and permanent relief for the accidents constantly occurring in manufacturing establishments.

What the French Have Done.
Shanghai, 25.—The Emperor of China has given instructions to the Viceroy of Hankow, to begin hostil-ties against the French in the event of an attack on Beanchin and says:
"The fact that Annam is the vassal of China is widely known, yet the French have dared to invade it."

Correspondence.
SALT LAKE CITY,
November 24, 1883.
Editor Deseret News:
Sir.—You do me injustice in your editorial of last evening on Mr.
Beach's book, and I ask a little space to show your readers wherein.
First, there is no gall in my heart with respect to any Mormon, or anybody else. I am opposed to Mormonism, because I believe it makes a false view of God and humanity, and is a source of humiliation and of crime. I have always done what I could against it, and always shall unless my convictions with regard to it, change, which I cannot conceive to be possible. Secondly, I never for an instant, as an officer of the revenue, treated a man differently because he was a Mormon, Jew, or of any other race. I challenge you to the contrary. In the cases to which you refer, I acted under direct orders from my superiors in office, and the same orders in similar cases, have been given and executed throughout the United States and in the Territories.
Nor has the Supreme Court of the United States decided against me.
It has not yet heard the cases. The Supreme Court of this Territory decided against me, or rather against the Government, on one case, and in my favor in the other. Thirdly—you say I was dismissed from office and deservedly. I was collector for Utah more than fourteen years, and was removed from office, not by district, but consolidated with others. I was retained as Collector of the consolidated district without a word on my part to the President, or on the part of any of my friends.
The Governor of Montana being in Washington at the time, and able to show that the collections of that district exceeded those from this district by 30 per cent., got the President to change headquarters of the new district from Salt Lake to Helena, and that let me out. But you will see that it is not as you represented by any means. You can't,
I think, name a Federal officer who ever served in Utah much more than one half as long as I did.

Fourthly.—In reference to Beach's book: Beach is not the writer or publisher of "Beach's dime novels."
He wrote an article in the book about 15 years ago, and on the Gentle protest and at Corinne for some time. He mingled personally with all classes of Mormons, and studied all their books on the subject on both sides.
He is as intelligent a man as ever came to Utah, and as respectable in his life. He asked me to write him a sketch of the question of affairs in Utah after 1875, when he left for the States. I did so, and he used my matter, running it in with some of his own, in the latter part of the book. As far as I can tell, my matter is on pages 457, 475, 485, 522, 555, 568 and 571-2. There are no lies in it, and no abuse of anybody. And so far as I am judge of the book itself, while its title is a little sensational perhaps, the work of the publisher rather than the author, it is as true a history of the facts as I have ever written of any series of facts. But all the same, I didn't write it, except as above, and I think the way I am given as a sort of assistant author, is a little strange. I should doubtless better the bitter false things you always seem to feel at liberty to say about me. If you would lay this brief statement before your readers, I should feel as though it was, in some sense, a compensation.
Respectfully,
O. J. HOLLISTER.

CHIEFS OF UPPER AND LOWER EGYPT.
The aim of the expedition will be to keep open the road between Suez and Berber and insure an avenue for the retreat of British troops from Khartoum and Sennar.
The first 800 start immediately.

The Fatal Fourth.
Khartoum, 25.—The defeat of Hicks Pasha occurred on the fourth instant.

The Defeat Reported a Victory.
The Governor of Khartoum telegraphs that two chiefs state that the story of the defeat of Hicks Pasha is false; that Hicks Pasha is at El Obeid, and El Madi has been killed.

Calcutta, 25.—It is believed here that the report sent by the two chiefs of Hicks Pasha's not being defeated, refers to the state of affairs at the close of the first day's fighting with the forces of El Madi.

That French Victory a Defeat—They Lost 150 men and took Refuge on a Gunboat.
Hong Kong, 25.—The possibility of war has caused a great drain of specie at Canton. The wealthy Chinese have withdrawn $5,000,000 in the last three months from the Chinese bank in the Kwang Tung province. Chinese mercantile interests in Hong Kong and Shanghai are paralyzed.

In regard to the fight at Haldunong, but for the aid of a passing gunboat, the French position would have been lost. The French garrison had 150 men killed. The town was completely destroyed.
Halpung is threatened by pirates who are camped within half a mile of the town. Their number increases daily.

No advance has been made yet against Beanchin. Troops are lying in wait at Hanchow, that city, that nothing will be done before the first week in December.
Extensive recruiting is proceeding in the Hanchow district, where 30,000 men are already enrolled.
The garrison of Haldunong has taken refuge on board the gunboat Lyne, awaiting the arrival of 1,000 men from Hanchow.

What the French Have Done.
Shanghai, 25.—The Emperor of
China has given instructions to the
of an attack on Beanchin and says:
of China is widely known, yet the

Supreme Court of this Territory de-
Utah more than fourteen years, and
part of any of my friends.
The Governor of Montana being in
district by 30 per cent., got the Pres-
new district from Salt Lake to
presented by any means. You can't,
than one half as long as I did.

publisher of "Beach's dime novels."
15 years ago, and on the Gentle protest and at Corinne for some time. He
He is as intelligent a man as ever
of the book. As far as I can tell,
my matter is on pages 457, 475, 485, 522, 555, 568 and 571-2. There are
the facts as I have ever written
brief statement before your readers,
some sense, a compensation.
Respectfully,
O. J. HOLLISTER.
