

SOCIETY

aiding in the color scheme. Various games were played and a unique feature was a campfire laid up stairs, around which the guests sat after refreshments, and told stories. The guests were Miss Helen Bamberger, Mamie Sappington, Alta Rawlins, Traddie Patterson, Susan Sawyer, Eloise Sadler, Mildred McMillan, Bessie McMillan, Messrs. Eric Daviler, Harold Hoffman, Roger Sherman, Sherwin Davis, Will Castleton, Ernest Sadler, Lee Turner.

Mrs. Laurence Young, Mrs. Paul Held and Mrs. Florence Bradley entertained at cards on Thursday afternoon, at the residence of Mrs. Young on Second street. The pretty home was artistically decorated with pink and red roses arranged in vases on mantels and brackets, and sprigs of maidenhair ferns were pinned on the window-curtains with dainty and charming effect. The scores and tallies were among the most artistic of the season. The scores were decorated with pictures of actresses in large size, and the scores were smaller pictures in fancy con-

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cannon entertained Mrs. Lillian Young Canova, husband and officers of the Forest Dale Sunday school at her residence New Year's eve. The evening was passed in listening to vocal and instrumental music, playing instructive games, and all singing some of the favorite Sunday school songs. At 10:30 the bridal pair led the way to the dining room, where a sumptuous repast was prepared. The table decorations were most beautiful. A bronze figure with arms extended formed the center piece and from the fingers electric lights suspended. Smilax in three columns extended from the table and covered the chandelier, and the effect of the numerous lights and evergreen presented a very beautiful effect. The company enjoyed themselves until the New Year, when two or three songs appropriate to the occasion were sung, congratulations extended to the bride and groom and a pleasant evening's entertainment concluded. Mr. and Mrs. Canova left for Louisville, Ky., Thursday where they will reside and do missionary work.

play was given and the evening altogether was delightfully spent. Among those who took part in the program were: Miss Bertha Pitt, Dorothy Leonard, Margaret Leonard, Hazel Oswald, Florence Godbe, Percival Louise Overfield, Bird Curtis Cohen, Elbert Coffin, Clay Wallace, Paul Stevenson, Richard Cabell, Albert Hoffman, Hamish Eddy, Webster Cary, Loman.

Mrs. L. P. Kimball gave a delightful euchre party Thursday afternoon, about twenty-four guests being present. The rooms were decorated with red roses and carnations and an elaborate luncheon was served. Miss Maud Parker won the lone hand prize, Mrs. Brady the prize for the most games and Miss Raybold second prize. Among the guests were Mesdames H. O. Kearns, Susan Moffatt, Macdonald, Kimball, Parker, H. A. Kearns, L. N. Parker, Brady, Lee, Harding, Correll, Harro, Misses Parker, Hayes, Lee, Moffatt, Ellerbeck, Kearns.

Mrs. C. D. Moore entertained at a reception on Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Van Arman, and Mrs. W. J. Stuart, of Grand Rapids, Mich. The rooms were decorated in Christmas greens and reds, and candelabra were used with red shades and candles. Mrs. Moore, with her guests of honor, comprised the receiving party and the dining room was in charge of Mrs. O. E. Cary. Mrs. H. P. Mason, Mrs. W. S. Nelson, Mrs. S. A. Vincent, Mrs. Charles Plummer. About seventy guests were present.

Last night Miss Elizabeth Palmer entertained at a second card party, her guests being: Misses Clara Han, Ella Munter, Eva Mason, Edna Duncan, Mamie Sappington, Helen Bamberger, Edith Davis, Chrystal Patton, Louise Bascom, Marguerite Donnellan, Heva Durnford, Bessie Pike, Messrs. Hal Bird, Will Davis, Rob Marsh, Hal Hoffman, Sherman Davis, Hal Hills, Hal Moore, Lewis Farnsworth, Ralph Bowbel, Fairchild Sherman, Will Culmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Solomon entertained a few friends at a watch party Tuesday evening. The evening was spent in playing "62," and delicious refreshments were served. The guests were Edwin S. Sheets, Miss Hettie Taylor, Miss Katie Reese, Mr. Edith Taylor, Miss Minnie Reese and Mr. Rone Iversen.

Mr. Thos. Alston gave a theater party Monday evening at "Henry VIII." Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Alston, Mr. and Mrs. Carr, Mr. Holt, Mr. Scofield, Ellen Johnson, Elsie

CAPITAL SOCIETY AGAINST LONGS.

Because of the opinion of the other ladies of the Cabinet, the Longs have not done their share of official and social entertaining at the Capital, a hostile feeling is said to be manifested towards the lady of secretary of the navy on the part of the society leaders of Washington. It is whispered that a plan is afoot to cut off Mrs. Long's name from all future invitation lists and that for this reason the Longs will be very glad to leave Washington as soon as possible.

and Miss Taylor, May Merrill, Nettie Fairbank, Zetta Haden, Bertha Evans, Claude Richards, Gill Richards, J. Leo Fairbanks and J. D. Larson.

Miss Vera A. Felt, of Ninth North Second West, was pleasantly surprised by a number of her friends on New Year's eve. At midnight her guests reminded her that her birthday had dawned with the new year, and congratulated her in royal style. The company then sat down to supper amidst the deafening announcement that they were being made throughout the city of the entering of the new year. A most enjoyable time was spent. Misses Lizzie Bohman and Selma Fernstrom arranged the function. Among the guests were:

Misses Lizzie Bohman, Leona Goddard, Nellie Anderson, Rose Trapp, Edith Burns, Clara Folsom, Selma Fernstrom, Messrs. Percy Henshaw, Wilford Amott, Sidney Eastman, Ben Fette, Clinton Fox, Harry Fernstrom, Gerold Lingner, Norman Sanders, Albert Harter.

On New Year's day Mrs. McClure received at the home of her parents, Judge and Mrs. James A. Miner, on East South Tenth street. She was assisted by Mrs. H. M. Wells, Mrs. Joseph R. Walker and Mrs. F. W. Jennings, and Mrs. Lear Ritter with Miss Lucile Jennings served egg-nog. Presiding at the coffee table was Miss Thorne. The rooms were prettily decorated and a large number of guests were present during the afternoon.

Among the pleasant informal receptions held on New Year's day was that at the pleasant rooms of Mrs. James W. Nell and Miss Nell in the Dooly block. Pretty and unique decorations brightened the rooms, and the guests availed themselves of the hospitality of the hostesses. Assisting were Mesdames Charles Bohm of Denver, L. C. Allen, Robert Officer, Kenneth Kerr, and Misses Leta McMillan, Eleanor Dooley and Minnie Sadler.

Something unique in functions was the "stand-up" luncheon given by Mrs. Burns McDonald on New Year's day, to about thirty of her friends. The table was beautifully decorated with American Beauty roses and smilax, and a Japanese umbrella surrounded by colored lanterns, made a unique and pretty adornment for the chandelier.

A pleasant evening party was given by Miss Hattie Barlow on Tuesday, cards and other games with music and recitations making a delightful entertainment. The party ended with the ushering in of the New Year. Those present were Hattie Barlow, Ella Maddox, Eva Simms, Myrtle Robinson, Hazel Bowman, Mary Barlow and Anna Erickson. Messrs. Harrison, Frankland, Tripp and Bagley.

The Sunday school children of St. Mark's cathedral were given a delightful entertainment at the church parlors on Monday night. A pretty little Turban of cloth and silk with crown of white broadcloth and rim of soft folds of white and tan silk; same shade quills are jauntily drawn through cut steel rings of fancy design.

Ogden, and Mrs. Delilah Olsen and family. The table was decorated in holiday colors and covers were laid for eight.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hanson, of Ogden, have been the guests of Judge and Mrs. W. H. King during the week.

Manager and Mrs. G. D. Pyper gave a box party at the Theater on Monday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Thatcher, of Logan. Present besides these were Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Wells and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Spencer.

Miss Sylvia Cohn leaves tomorrow for New York to spend the rest of the winter with her sister, Miss Edna Cohn.

Miss Allie Godbe, Miss Alta Earl and Miss Nettie Hilton were hostesses at a pleasant party last night, the event taking place at the home of Miss Godbe.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Lynn entertained at a chafing-dish party on Monday evening.

Miss Sylvia Cohn will leave tomorrow for New York and will spend the rest of the winter there with her sister, Miss Edna Cohn.

Miss Bertha Hillstead entertained informally at dinner on Tuesday evening.

Miss Phoebe Hardin entertained at a delightful watch-party on Tuesday night.

Ralph Bidwell has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bidwell during the holidays.

Miss Luvera Snow entertained her class mates at luncheon on Friday at Rowland hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Orson Romney entertained the members of the card club, of which they are members, at their home on Thursday night.

Col. and Mrs. Holmes gave an elaborate dinner at their home on New Year's day in honor of their visitors. Present besides these were Gov. and Mrs. Wells and Senator Kearns.

Mrs. Harry K... has for her guest Miss Cordelia Green.

Miss Bain and Miss Goddard returned yesterday from Portland, Ore.

Mrs. Dunford and Miss Dunford will return shortly from Washington.

The assembly hall on Thursday night was one of the most delightful affairs of the week. The hall was tastefully decorated, the music delightful, and dainty refreshments regaled the guests during the evening.

At the home of Attorney General Breeden on New Year's day, Miss Breeden and Miss Barch received their friends, the rooms being prettily arranged with closed blinds and red lights with red carnations and ferns adding in the charming effect.

Miss Sanders, Mrs. Will Sanders and Miss Morris kept "open house" to their friends on New Year's day.

American Beauty roses, and red carnations were used and candelabra with red shades illuminated the darkened rooms.

Mrs. E. E. Shepard, Miss Shepard and Miss Gaby received at 518 south State street.

Mrs. McViche and Mrs. Corning received their friends informally on New Year's day from 3 to 6 at 702 East Brigham. They were assisted by the Misses Anna and Bessie Hall.

Miss Whitehead and the Misses McKnight received callers New Year's day at the home of Miss Whitehead.

The Misses Jean and Beatrice Hyde, Miss Mabel Harker and Miss Tess Williams received informally on New Year's day from 3 to 6 at the home of the former, 40 west North Temple street.

Miss May Billings and Miss Pearl Weller received their friends on New Year's afternoon at Miss Weller's home.

Maj. G. F. Downy is expected to arrive in about two weeks, and it will be learned that Major and Mrs. Downy will shortly remove to Denver, where they will make their home.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y.M.C.A. kept "open house" on New Year's night from 8 to 10 o'clock. Entertainment in the way of an athletic exhibition.

Nothing is so attractive, so suggestive of purity of mind and body as a clear velvety complexion.

Woodbury's Facial Soap
removes the blemishes that disfigure the face, neck and hands leaving the skin smooth, firm and white.

Woodbury's Facial Soap cures chapped face and hands. Sold by dealers, 25 cents each. Booklet free. Trial size package of soap and cream 5 cents postpaid. Andrew Jerome & Co., Sole Agents, Dept. 44 Cincinnati, O.

games, music and light refreshments was engaged in by those present.

Mrs. Elliott and Mrs. F. D. Bickford have for their guest Miss Van Fleet of Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Horne entertained the Shakespeare club at their home on Thursday night.

Mrs. S. B. Milner and sons, Clarence and Jay, leave today for Europe. Clarence Milner will enter school in Germany.

Rev. and Mrs. Millidge Walker leave next week for southern California.

The Whist club will be entertained by Mrs. Stanley Price next Wednesday.

The Whist club was entertained by Mrs. L. E. Ritter on Thursday and by Miss Lucile Jennings on Friday.

Miss Minnie Snow was among the hostesses who entertained at watch parties on New Year's eve.

Mrs. Samuel McDowell, who has been spending the past month in Denver, has returned.

Miss Ada Swanner gave an enjoyable evening party at her home on Tuesday.

Misses Ida and Gertrude Pratt spent New Year's day in Ogden with Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Pratt.

Mrs. and Mrs. Henry Dinwoodey and Mr. and Mrs. Will Dinwoodey left on Wednesday for California.

Miss Catherine Culmer and Miss Florence Stevenson entertained informally at a chafing dish party on New Year's night.

Mrs. M. Shaugnessy gave a charming children's party for her little daughter Margaret on New Year's day, the afternoon being spent in various games. In a hide-and-seek game little Margaret Clawson and Daniel Spencer were prize-winners.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Davis of Park City were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Parker during the week.

OGDEN SOCIAL NEWS

Ogden, Utah, Jan. 4.—The leading social event of the week was the wedding of Miss Ethel Hirst and Mr. Henry Turner, which took place New Year's eve at the pretor home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Eleanor J. Hirst, on Jefferson avenue, between 26th and 27th streets. Promptly at the appointed hour, 8 o'clock, the bride and groom entered the parlor, and took their place in front of Rev. E. J. Goshen, who performed the ceremony. Miss Florence Hirst, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. Miss Florence Turner, sister of the groom, played Mendelssohn's wedding march as the bridal party entered the parlor. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white silk and carried bride's roses.

A dainty repast was served in the dining room. The home was prettily decorated with tissue papers, evergreens, smilax, palms and cut flowers. The front parlor was done in white, the rear parlor in red, and the dining room in pink. There were present at the reception only the relatives and a few intimate friends. The bride is one of Ogden's most popular and accomplished young ladies, and the groom is a highly respected young man in the employ of the George A. Love Implement company. Their parents were numerous and beautiful. Mr. and Mrs. Turner will be at home after February 1st, at 226 Adams avenue.

The Eccles mansion was the scene of a delightful "watch" party given New Year's eve by Miss Veda Eccles to a number of her young friends. The evening was spent in music, games and other pleasures. Dainty refreshments were served.

Miss Geneva Douglas entertained New Year's night in honor of Miss Rogers and Charles Pike of Salt Lake. The evening was spent very pleasantly in vocal and instrumental music. Delicious refreshments were served.

Miss Juliette Marks, of the county treasurer's office, spent New Year's in Salt Lake with her parents.

Richard Hoag, principal of the Bear Lake State academy, spent New Year's in Ogden visiting with old friends.

Miss Jennie Walker of Salt Lake, who has been visiting with relatives in Ogden, has returned to her home.

The Alghain club met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Claude Ives at her pretty home on 25th street. A very entertaining literary and musical program was rendered.

Miss Blanch I. Frank, a popular young Ogden lady, was wedded Monday evening to Mr. A. Buffington of Reno, Nevada. The young couple will make their home at Reno.

Mrs. Zimmerman gave a very pleasant party New Year's eve at her apartment in the Stayner block, to a number of lady and gentlemen friends, who are members of the Pioneers of the Pacific. The evening was spent in playing games, and music, after which delicious refreshments were served, and the merry crowd watched the old year out and the new year in. Those present the sitting room up stairs games were played during the evening. The rooms were handsomely decorated, the parlor with pink roses, the dining room in white carnations and smilax and the library where punch was served entirely in green. Miss Daynes was assisted by Mrs. Joseph Daynes and Mrs. H. T. McEwan. The affair was a most elaborate and delightful one. The guests were: Miss Janet Murdoch, Miss Grace Clawson, Miss Eva Snow,

MARCONI TO MARRY YANKEE GIRL.

Although America has not the honor of being the fatherland of the inventor of transatlantic wireless telegraphy we can at least pride ourselves on possessing the future wife of Marconi. Above is the portrait of Miss Josephine Bowen Holman who will wed the inventor as soon as he can find time to marry.

Miss Cora Snow, Miss Mabel Hansen, Miss Christie Stagner, Miss Della Romney, Miss Mary Anson, Miss Ada West, Miss Bertha Hillstead, Miss Grace Radcliffe, Miss Evelyn Metcalf, Miss Clara Stevens, Miss Addie Cannon, Miss Genevieve Love, Miss Laura Young, Miss Hazel Morris, Miss May Edmonds, Miss Retta Pyper, Miss Hattie Whitney, Miss Lena Morris, Miss Gwen Anderson, Miss Margie Mulvey, Miss Ethel Eldredge, Messrs. Harold Gribb, Ralph Woolley, Dean Woolley, Dean Daynes, Joseph Stagner, Horace Whitney, Geo. Cannon, Curtis Clawson, Marlow Taylor, Blair Richardson, Reuben Romney, Ray Romney, James Anson, Linville Luft, Claud Simmon, Amos Highland, Sam Mathis, Noel Pratt, Charles Norberg, L. M. Earl, Jr., Ellis Black, Percy Patterson, Stagner Richards, Angus Alston, Howard Alston, Rosslyn Alston, Lewis Kimball, Charles Woolley, Errol Fairbanks, Murray Bywater.

Mr. Fairchild Sherman was host at a pleasant party at his home on Thursday night. The rooms were prettily decorated in red, carnations being used and with candelabra shaded in red times and attitudes, most artistically arranged upon the cards. The pictures were tinted, the coloring being the work of Mrs. Held, and were much admired. After the contest the score cards were cut for by the players. The first prize was won by Mrs. Florence Schettler, and the second by Miss Florence Young. Delicious refreshments were served at 5 o'clock. Present were: Mrs. B. Young, Mrs. Oliver Green, Mrs. George Alder, Mrs. A. C. Young, Mrs. E. L. Parker, Mrs. J. H. Mitchell, Mrs. M. C. Cannon, Mrs. A. C. Young, Mrs. T. J. Lambert, Mrs. Frank Beattie, Mrs. Tessie Werner, Mrs. T. A. Clawson, Mrs. George Green, Mrs. Will Newberry, Mrs. Will James, Mrs. H. S. Beattie, Mrs. S. H. Lynch, Mrs. M. A. Snell, Mrs. J. A. Owen, Mrs. Will Sanders, Mrs. C. M. Benedict, Mrs. Minnie R. Smith, Mrs. Amy Cummings, Mrs. C. E. Madsen, Mrs. James Tibbitts, Mrs. A. H. Godbe, Mrs. J. A. Foote, Mrs. M. L. Cummings, Mrs. Will Forman, Mrs. G. E. Ellerbeck, Mrs. James Rogers, Mrs. C. E. Schettler, Misses Lucy Van Cott, N. Raleigh, V. Brinton, J. Spencer, Florence Young, I. Wegge-

MILADY'S PICTURE HAT.

Ostrich plumes are used in profusion just now on the becoming picture hats of black velvet and black chiffon. As will be seen, the plumes on this model are reversed, the one on the upper brim sweeping from left to right, the one on the underbrim from right to left.

New Year festivities have predominated in the past week's record, watch parties on New Year's eve and the formal and informal receptions on New Year's day making a formidable list against the number of other of the week's entertainments. The reception given on Wednesday by Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Sharp was the most elaborate of New Year's functions and will be remembered moreover as a formal leave taking of many of the warm friends who will sincerely regret their departure from the city.

The chief event of the week was the ball given by Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Harris at Christensen's on Monday night. The decorations, music, costumes and all details combined to make it in general the most brilliant of the kind given in Salt Lake, and its occurrence at the ending of the old year gave a parting tinge of radiance to the passing social record. The gowns of the hostesses and the ladies assisting her in receiving the guests of the occasion were marked for their elegance in richness and design, and with the many other beautiful costumes worn by the guests added in the brilliancy of the occasion. Florist Huddart and Mr. Sheph of Walker Bros. had charge of the decorations and the result of their efforts was a scene of beauty long to be remembered. The reception room was carpeted with costly oriental rugs and, with its white and yellow draperies, yellow chrysanthemums and banks of evergreens, starred with colored electric jets was especially artistic, a charming feature being the bower created by two giant palms with overarching fronds, under which the hosts stood to receive their guests. A great circular mirror, wreathed with vines formed a back ground, and facing this was the archway leading into the dancing hall draped with greens and crowned with a great electric star in myriad colors. The long hall, with panellings of red draperies, festoons of evergreens and banks of palms and calla lilies was most effective, and the platform was transformed into a bower with screens of hanging baskets filled with phloxes, and brightly decorated tables. The music, like all the accessories, was exceptional in selection, and the affair altogether was a notable one in local social annals.

The most elaborate event of New Year's day was the reception given by Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Sharp at their home on east South Temple street. The rooms were beautifully decorated in holiday colors, red carnations and roses, with wreaths, vines and palms being used in profusion throughout the house, while tiny lamps with colored globes added in the charming effect. Assisting in receiving were Mrs. Harkness and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harkness. Miss Harkness served punch, and in the dining room Mrs. G. F. Downey and the Misses Shearman, Mason, Sprague, Woodward and Love assisted in serving refreshments. The reception was held during the entire afternoon and evening, and a large number of guests attended the delightful event.

Among the pleasant events of New Year's day was the evening party given by Russell Rossiter at his home on State street. About twenty-five of the young friends of the host assembled together and enjoyed the evening among the pleasant features of the affair being music, games and refreshments. Miss Bella Clayton, Miss Grace Clawson and Miss Janet Murdoch, and a number of graphophone pieces which caused a great deal of merriment. Dainty refreshments were served and a delightful time spent. Present were: Louise Saxville, Lillian Nicholson, Grace Clawson, Florence Farnsworth, Alice Farnsworth, Effie Wilson, Rhea Rogers, Lucy Farnsworth, Bella Clayton, Janet Murdoch, Behan Spencer, Jack Duncan, Seymour Wells, Lawrence Thatcher, Ralph Woolley, Will Musser, Allan Spencer, Lorenzo Snow, Ross Musser, Curtis Clawson, George Pyper, Horace Whitney, Orson Rogers, Jay Johnson.

Miss Lucy Van Cott entertained at a delightful watch-party at the home of her brother, Waldemar Van Cott, on New Year's eve. A feature of the evening was a story-telling contest, in which prizes were awarded, the victor ones being Bishop O. F. Whitney, Prof. J. B. Toronto and Miss Nora Van Cott. Present were: Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. D. Pyper, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Price, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Beattie, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Burton, Mr. and Mrs. Waldemar Van Cott, Mrs. W. W. Ritter, Mrs. Eva V. Davis, Mrs. Van Cott, Misses Babcock, Sildaway, Mary Price, Pearl Van Cott, Mr. Scott Crismon, Prof. J. B. Toronto, Mr. Jean Winder.

An informal social was given by Miss Hattie Barlow at her home, 195 Center street, New Year's eve. Dainty refreshments were served at midnight, while the whistles announced the New Year. Games and cards were features of the pleasant evening's entertainment, also musical selections and recitations. Those present were Misses Hattie Barlow, Ella Maddox, Eva Simms, Myrtle Robinson, Hazel Bowman, Mary Barlow and Anna Erickson. Messrs. Quinn, Harrison, Frankland, Tripp and Bagley.

Misses Ethel and Genevieve Felt entertained at a pleasant watch-party on New Year's eve. Among those present to enjoy the evening were Misses Dorothy Dwyer, Bessie Felt, Rhea Rogers, Mamie Chapin, Effie Wilson, Vita Richards, Dessie Grant, Messrs. Williams, Leslie Brooks, Eldredge, Horace Whitney, Allan Spencer, Seymour Wells, Leslie Spence, Victor Felt, Robert Wilson.

Miss Stella Daynes was hostess at a delightful party last night at her home in Forest Dale. The large reception hall was cleared for dancing, and in