

THE JUNCTION CITY'S FAR-REACHING-WIDE-AWAKE-LONG-ARMED-GET-THERE LOBSTERS.

The team will be lobsters for that day only, and the Salt Lakers declare they will be broiled ones when the game is done. Reading from left to right, the picturesque parties are, E. H. Musselman, Alf Turner, J. Herrick, Oscar Kuhn, Perry Decker, "Billy" Williams, "Uncle Tom" Fitzgerald, King Lobster, Jos. Scovcroft, H. Tavey, Jos. Decker, E. Richardson, C. H. Turner, Geo. Hertog, and W. G. Wells.

THE FAMOUS SALT LAKE WHITE WINGS WHO EXPECT TO GO UP AGAINST THE OGDEN LOBSTERS.

Whether the wings refer to hopes of the future, or the speed of money making, or base sliding, the Salt Lakers won't say. But the team has Charlie Griggs on it, and therefore it plans to make good against Ogden. The tall figure on the left is Am Young, and the little one with the big bat is McAllister—"Little Billy." Going across the picture the men are F. Brooks, Charles Billings, Geo. Pursell, C. H. McMahon, Chas. Driggs, Lucian Ray, Geo. Goldard, Tom Pitt, Emil Lehman, H. Moser, James Lewis, and Sam Barlow. What they will do to the other bunch, depends on what the other bunch is willing to do to them, but the liveliest kind of a time is scheduled with a clear track, and both teams concede their rival a part in making it.

OGDEN'S GLAD HAND IS WARMLY OUT

Loyal Welcome to be Extended to Hosts There on Friday and Saturday.

ALL PROCEEDS FOR CHARITY.

Reduced Railroad Rates and Bouquet-enthusiasm to Make it a Day Long to be Remembered.

The kind of recreation that seeks a good time without a big silver dollar dangling over the top of it, and that can put a baseball team in the field without a salary list, is rare in the United States. Yet that is the brand the United Commercial Travelers will serve at the city of Ogden on next Friday and Saturday. The travelers want the days to be given over to recreation and good fellowship, and whatever coin changes hand will go into the pot for charity, they argue that Johnnie's working hours are for his money making, and America does a poor stunt by trying to turn his play hours into graft as well. The travelers promise a big bill of fare, as far as recreation goes, and want a big crowd so that it can be enjoyed in the biggest proportions.

A MONSTER PARADE.

The size of the celebration is larger than one is liable to think, if he hasn't studied it closely. The parade promises to be a monster, as big as the biggest ever held in Utah with the exception of the Pioneer Jubilee parade in 1897. Ogden city is responding generously, and with great heart for the occasion, and promises to turn out to its fullest capacity. The several fraternal orders have sent word that they will be in line, as well as all the merchants and manufacturers, the town officials, and the bands. Of bands there will be eight, all playing for a good time.

WAR VETERANS, TOO.

From Salt Lake the Merchants and Manufacturers have promised to go, and from expressions picked up on the streets they will go numerous and strong. The Spanish-American war veterans have also agreed to drop into line, as well as a number of other Salt Lake organizations.

ABOUT THE RACING.

The program for the two days of fun is headed of course with the parades. Then comes the baseball game, horse races, automobile races, grand balls, a big "feed" at the hermitage in Ogden canyon, and an excursion over the Lucin cut-off. Reduced rates are in effect from over the west and a specially low rate is to from Salt Lake.

WEDDING SUPERSTITIONS.

The old rhyme that had to do with the days of the week still holds considerable power in the choice of the wedding day in some districts. In Scotland one seldom hears of a Saturday wedding, while in both France and Ireland Sunday is the favorite day. The Romans considered Wednesday the luckiest of the week, and the old rhyme referred to carries out the same idea. It runs: "Monday for health, Tuesday for wealth, Wednesday the best day of all; Thursday for crosses, Friday for losses, And Saturday no luck at all." Just what luck followed Sunday's bride tradition sayeth not. A January bride will be a good house-keeper, good-tempered and thrifty. A February bride will prove an affectionate wife and a good mother. A March bride will turn out a frivolous chatterbox, given to mischief making and quarreling. An April bride will be inconstant; not very intelligent, but fairly good-looking. A May bride is handsome, amiable and likely to make others happy. A June bride will be sunny-tempered, impetuous and generous. A July bride is likely to prove quick-tempered, though ready to forgive and forget. An August bride is usually practical, clever and a good housekeeper.

table, discreet and well liked by all. An October bride will be pretty, coquettish, loving, but intensely jealous. A November bride is liberal and kind, but of a wild disposition. A December bride is extravagant, fond of novelty and entertaining. The old superstitions aren't the wedding gown have been rhymed to suit almost every country and every class of wearer. The rhyme anonymous: "Married in white, you've chosen all right. Married in blue, you will be true. Married in yellow, unshared of the fellow. Married in green, ashamed to be seen. Married in gray, you'll live far away. Married in brown, you'll live in the town. Married in red, you'll wish yourself dead. Married in black, for luck you'll lack."

New Era Paint

Sold by the year and by the yard.

New Era Paint actually costs less to use than any other, because its high quality gives more square yards of covering surface and years of wearing service to the gallon than any other paint made.

You're wasting money when you pay a painter, say, $40 for his labor in painting your house with low-priced paint. It costs as much to apply so-called "cheap" paint as for New Era, but New Era wears about twice as long as the cheap kind.

Made by Acme White Lead & Color Works, Detroit, Mich.
