DESERBT EVENING NEWS: SATURDAY, MAY 11, 1901.

ELDER ALMA O. TAYLOR.

Elder Alma O. Taylor, son of Presi- . dent Joseph E. Taylor, of the Salt Lake Stake, received a call from President Snow last evening to accompany Apostle Heber J. Grant and Elders Louis A. Kelsch and Horace S. Ensign to Japan, where they go to open a mission. According to present arrangements they will leave for the Orient about June 12th, though circumstances may cause a slight change from that date. It is fully expected, nowever, that this will be the time of their departure.

Elder Taylor is a very young man to receive such an important call, though those who know him best say that he is made of the right metal and that he will prove himself an efficient as well as a faithful missionary. He was born in this city August 1st, 1882, and was baptized August 6th, 1890, and confirmed the day following. His ecclesiastical

Gate school house, erected by President Young. Later he attended the Latterday Saints' seminary in the Eighteenth ward. From 1894 to 1899 he attended the Latter-day Saints' college, and was graduated from the theological course of that institution in the last named year. This same year he went East to study embalming and later was graduated the first one of a large class, leading all of his fellow students. On his return home he became associated with his father in the undertaking business. and at once took front place in his profession

Elder Taylor was ordained to the office of an Elder on September 19, 1900. He is a young man of the most studious habits, and a thinker beyond his years. while his industry is most pronounced. He is also a forceful speaker and won conspicuous place in the Young Men's training commenced while he was of Mutual Improvement oratorical con-

THE SAVAGE ART BAZAR. LARGEST AND FINEST PHOTOGRAPH-10 ESTABLISHMENT IN THE GREAT WEST For many years the Savage Art Bazar has enjoyed a reputation second to none west of the Missouri River, and its patrons will now be pleased to learn that it has been placed ahead of all competitors. It is now without a single rival in the great west. The completion of the new annex at the rear of the old bazar building has given it a great amount of much needed additional room. This building covers an area of 41x100 feet. Entrance to it is directly through the main gallery. On the lower floor are the regular stock rooms and picture frame factory. On the upper is a magnificent reception room, 18x19 feet, finished in olive ingrain and natural wood with beautiful rugs and furniture. Adjoining this are three richly furnished dressing rooms with fine marble washing and lavatory finishings and full length mirrors. These rooms all open into what is the largest operating room in the United States, with a single exception. Olive and Indian red predominate in the dec. orations, while an immense sky glass lets a gentle flood of light into the room.Immediately back of the operating room are the three dark rooms equipped with all the latest apparatus known to the photographic art and back of these are the printing rooms and workshops out of which come the most artistic creations of the photographic world, ranging from the smallest miniature to life size portraits. The great gallery and its ornamental cessories, can only be appreciated to the fullest when seen by the visitor. A word description of them is entirely inadequate to portray their beauties. The photographic department is under the personal direction of Mr. Ralph Savage, who will give his entire time to that branch of the business. Other Lranches of the business have also been sigregated and each will be under a specialist in his or her particular line.
