FOUR GUARDS PRISONERS

Deared They Will be Killed Before Desperadoes Are Captured-Warden Wells Story of the Outbreak.

2.uburn, Cal., July 27 .- A flerce bat tle occurred between the escaped convicts and the officers tonight near Pilot Ill, in Eldorado county. The convicts Were traveling in a four-horse wagon, and, after holding up Pioneer John Mendis at Pilot Hill and completely looting his general merchandise store of the stock of provisions, proceeded in the direction of Coloma.

Ebortly after leaving Pilot Hill they Were overtaken by posses from Sacramento, Folsom and Placerville. Guard Curry of the Folsom posse opened negotistions by shooting one of the horses atlached to the convicts' wagon, and this temporarily blocked the advance Cull an open fight ensued. Convict Howard was killed outright, and Scabis, the negro convict, was tadly wounded. Guards Brown and Klinzendoan, who were with the con-vicis, managed to escape. It was also ticls, managed to escape. It was also noticed that Convict Gordon and an-cleer convict were missing, and it is presumed that they dropped out some-where between Folsom and Pilot Hill and have taken to the woods, which anywhere in this locality would pro-vide set bidge. vide safe hiding. "the convicts went to a farmer's house, seized his four-horse team and wagon, gutted the house and every thing of value it contained, took the with them as a driver, and are now headed for Bald mountain. The Alalaster cave is situated near this mountain and it is believed that the convicts will take refuge therein. The several hundred prisoners remaining in the prison made no show of disturbance and they were quietly locked in their cells. The convicts seized weapons from the officers and Warden Wilkinson, Capt. Murphy and other officers, and proceeded to the armory post, where they equipped themselves with four rifles, knives, pistols and ammunition. The warden was taken about a mile toward Mormon Island bridge, and a convict armed with a rifle marched either side of him. He was told that they would not harm him, but if any of the pursuers took the life of one of the escaping convicts they would retallate, life for life.

The warden was the first to return to the prison. He wore no hat, the prisoners having seized this from him prisoners having seized this from him. Capt. Murphy appeared soon after-ward, minus his trousers.

Upon his return to the prison War-den Wilkinson had the siren blown for five minutes every hour. The wall of the siren was terrific. It could be heard for 10 miles around the country, and the tones reverberated with uncanny noise. The warden explained that the people for miles about knew that the blowing of the siren means convict has escaped, and he believes that by blowing it every hour the whole surrounding country will be aroused to the fact that there has been
