SALT LAKE'S QUOTA FOR YEAR

There Have Been 329 Suits Filed and 265 Decrees Granted in Past Eleven Months.

Nearly 1,000,000 divorces were granted in the United States during the 20-year period ending in 1906, according to carefully compiled statistics on the question issued by the department of commerce and labor. To be exact, the merce and labor, to be claud, the common grounds for granting decreases number was 945,625. For the 20-year found to be desertion. This ground period prior to that, the number grant. accounts for 38.9 per cent of all di-vorces granted, of which 49.4 per cent are granted to the husband, and 33.5 the number recorded in the second 20 years. At the beginning of the first period, divorces occurred at the rate of 10,000 a year. At the end of the second period, the number per annual was about 66,000, or an avrage of one divorce for each 12 marriages occurring throughout the country. That these revelations are appalling and show that the divorce evil is in-creasing more rapidly than any one had any idea of, cannot be denied.

DIVORCE EVIL GROWING.

Some of the figures on the subject of Some of the figures on the subject of marriage and divorce contained in the report are of interest, as showing how the divorce evil is growing up in this country, and all sections of it. In only one state is there a record of no di-vorces granted during the decade end-ing in 1900, and only one divorce in the decade ending in 1880, and that was in South Carolina. In the year 1872 all laws permitting divorce were repealed in South Carolina, and since that time only one divorce has been recorded, ac-rording to the government statistics in ording to the government statistics in he matter. Other states range up with is high as $2,200 divorces for the 20as high as $2,209 divorces for the 20-year period ending in 1906, which are the figures of the state of Illinois, the highest on the list, although not the highest number of divorces granted ac-cording to population. The latter ques-tionable honor goes to the state of Washington, which had a total of 16,215 divorces granted in the period ending 1906, or an average of 184 to each 100,000 of population in the state, the number of population in the state, the number on which all computations are based. WEST HEADS THE LIST. For the purpose of comparison, the United States were divided into five divisions, and the divorce rate for each section is given. The north Atlantic divisions, comprising the states of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Mas-sachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey and Pennsyl-vania, gave an average number of di-vorces granted for the 1900 period of 35; the South Atlantic division, com-prising Delaware, Maryland, District of Counabla, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Geor-git and Florida, the average for the same period was 33; for the North Cen-tral division, comprising Ohlo, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minne-sota, Iowa, Missouri, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska and Kansas, the average was 96; the South Central division, comprising Kentucky, Ten-nessee, Alabama, Mississippi, Louis-inna, Arkansas, Indian Territory, Okinhoma and Texas, the average was 95; while in the Western division, com-prising Montana, Iaaho, Wyonilag, Coi-orada, New Mexico, Arizona, Utah, Nevada, Washington, Oregon and Cali-fornia, the average ran up to 129 per 100,000 penulation, which is the highest average of any of the divisions during the period given. CAUSES FOR DIVORCE.

CAUSES FOR DIVORCE.

As to causes for divorce, the most common grounds forgranting decrees is are granted to the husband, and 33.5 per cent are granted to the wife. The next most important grounds for di-vorce are, for the husbands, immoral-ity, and for wives, crueity. Of the divorces granted to husbands, 28.8 per cent were for immorality and of those granted to wives 27.5 per cent were for crueity. Only 16 per cent of the divorces granted to wives were for adultry of the husband, and 10.5 per cent of divorces granted the husbands were for crueity on the part of the wife. Drunkenness was the ground for divorce in 5.3 per cent of the cases in which the wife brought suit, and 1.1 per cent of the cases in which the suit was brought by the husband.

suit was brought by the husband. UTAH'S UNIQUE RECORD.

One peculiar feature of the investi-gations conducted by the government was discovered in the records of the courts in Utah, and that was that dur-ing the 40-year period investigated, it was found that six husbands had been granted decrees in Utah on the ground of "failure to provide." of "failure to provide." One divorce was granted to the wife, during the year, the couple having been married only six weeks. The partles to the contract were both on the shady side of 40, and the dream of love was short lived, the wife testifying at the divorce hearing that her husband bedivorce hearing that her husband be-gan beating and abusing her a few days after their marriage. An amuseing case of distribution of property occurred in another case, in which the plaintiff was a woman who had been the wife of the man she was suing for 29 years. Together they had accumulated considerable property on a farm, and had two children, one of whom was uparried when the parents Augustus Thomas Says An Old One Cannot Tell Them How to Build. New York, Dec. 21 .- There is encouragement for young and aspiring playwrights. Augustus Thomas in an address last ngiht before the American Dramatic club of which he has been president since the death of Bronson Howard, had this to say of plays and Howard, had this to say of plays and playwrights: "No old playwright can tell a young one how to build a play. There are no rules to the game and there is not a single accepted axiom that you can't break and make money. The greatest of them all misled morg peo-ple than everybody ever did when he said that playwriting was holding the mirror up to nature. Shakespeare never did that in his life." As to the future Mr. Thomas said: "Great plays remain to be written about the American Jew and about socialism. I mean the American Jew with his fine qualities as we know them. I don't mean the dull kind of socialism that we hear from the plat-forms and in speeches, but a sort of celestial socialism that we sometimes read about." read about." Eugene Presby, William Gillette, and Victor Herbert were among the others vho spoke. CARDINAL LECOT DEAD.
