Since on the exchange today amounted to 37,400 shares for $17,619.80. The Bull Lark board disposed of $4,909 for $2,147.12, indicating good business in the latter class of stocks, while the Utah exchange seemed to favor neither way, but simply went on in its regular channel, dealing in 22,200 shares for $2,274. The market was labored and altogether weak.

TODAY A "HOT NUMBER"

Salt Lake Brokers Do Business in High Priced Stocks.

In the vocabulary of the small boy, today was a "hot number" on the Salt Lake exchange. "Hot" just from the fact that the market was unusually strong, but from the selling value of stocks which amounted to $17,619.80 a sum represented in 16,000 shares. From this statement it was readily to be seen that higher-priced stocks had the sale, and with Joe Hanger in the box, some were fairly rapidly traded, among them being Copper Country, division and Utah Resources, each of which brought thirty-five good shares. For instance, their most sales at $1.35 and $1.45, and some at $1.50, while the Utah Resources sold at $1.35, the highest price yet reached by this security.
