

Ogden, May 5.-Patriarch Sanford Bingham, one of the most honored men-in Weber county, celebrated his eighty-fifth birthday Thursday, May 3, at his home in Riverdale. In honor of the venerable size's birth anniversary his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, together with a few friends planned a survive rate. planned a surprise party on riends. him. There were present nearly 100 of his descendents, who, with merry song and laughter cheered the honored vet-eran and made his heart glad through the love and respect shown him. It was a most pleasant time, the hours passing rulckly away in singing songs, socia-collity, and partaking of a sumptuous re-seast prepared by the children.

Though having reached the eighty-fifth milepost in life, Patriarch Bing-bam is quite hale and hearty, and is active in doing good among his w men. For 33 years he was Bishstill sp of the Riverdale ward, and was a faithful father over that flock, and the people of the ward love and respect him ts a father. When he was released from the Bishopple and ordained a Patriarch his son, A. A. Bingham, was chosen Bishop of the ward.

RELIEF STILL COMING.

Although the work of the relief com-mittee appointed to care for the refugees from San Francisco is practically over, as only a rew unfortunate sufferers are now passing through Ogden, yet the funds continue to arrive and already the committee has received contributions amounting to $10,538.31. The people of Ogden and Weber coun-ty have responded most generously to the call for assistance for the San Francisco sufferers. Besides this, large amounts of cash receipts, thousands of dollars' worth of provisions and clothing was furnished to aid in the noble work, much of which was sent to San Francisco and great quantities were used in this city.

SIMMONS GETS THE LIMIT.

Yesterday, in the Fourth district ourt, Judge Booth sentenced Wallaco Simmons of Spanish Fork to six month, in the county fall. Simmons is the oung man for whom the jury recommended the full extent of the law in their verdict Saturday night, and, while Judge Booth at that time instructed the jury to make out another verdict with the offense of which defendant was condeted.

Defendent's attorney, Samuel A. Defendent's attorney, Samuel A. King gave notice of appeal. If appeal should be taken, and defendant should give bail pending appeal (which it is not probable he can, as before the trial on which he was convicted he was un-able to give bail in another similar case, which is yet to be tried in the Fourth district court) he would be ar-rested on a charge of folony, in which ested on a charge of felony, in which i U-year-old girl of Manumoth is said Just county was here yesterday, with a warrant for him in that case. And the sheriff states there is still another case in which Simmons is implicated, al-though in that case no complaint has beer filed.
