The letter carriers finally won their long fight for $1,200 salaries (Oho), granting the same, was adopted. The house also allowed an additional $25, 00 for clecks in third-class offices where the salaries of the positimatics range from one thounand to twelve hundred dollars, and $15,000 additional for con-tract stations. The prohibitionists also heat their innings, when through ameni-ment by Mr. Houston (Teanesse) there was incorporated in the bill a provision prohibiting the transmission through the mails of intoxicating liquors, which was later modified so as to include cocaine and its derivatives. Altogether the appropri-ations carried by the bill were increase to the extent of $1,255,00.

Washington, March 11.—The present method of bookmaking at the Bennings race track meetings, under which the bookmakers have to constantly move about in the ring, was today upheld by a decision of Justice Stafford in the criminal court of the district. The de-cision was in the ase of John Walters, a New York bookmaker a test case framed to determine the legality of the heiting procedure at the track. The court held that the present betting plan on the part of bookmakers does not consti-tute setting, up a game table, but merely constitutes bookmaking, and hand bookmaking, while unlawful within one mile of Washington, is not unlawful at Beunings, which is beyond that limit. nings.
