CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

Memorials Referred. In the Senate the memorials relating to the massacre of Jews in Roumania were referred to the foreign committee.

HOUSE.

Something about Writ of Error in the Territories—The Income Tax to be reduced.

A bill was passed amending a previous act, so as to allow writs of error in the Territories, from the decisions of Probate courts to the Supreme court thereof.

The Senate amendments to the House deficiency bill were agreed to.

Winchester offered a resolution disapproving of the gross violation of the principles of justice in the persecution of the Israelites, and expressing a hope that they would speedily cease.

Butler rose to report the Georgia bill, for the reconstruction committee, but the House refused to set aside the tax bill, which was proceeded with.

Brooks of New York moved an amendment to the provisions to reduce the existing tariff on sugar and salt to thirty-three per cent.

WASHINGTON.—Red Cloud and Spotted Tail and their delegations had an interview with the Secretary of the Interior and Commissioner Parker today.

PENNSYLVANIA. Post office clerk held to bail. PHILADELPHIA.—Charles Saubury, a clerk in the post office, has been held to bail to answer a charge of robbing the mails.

CALIFORNIA. Welcome to the Boston Board of Trade.—Chinese Shoemakers off to Massachusetts.

SAN FRANCISCO, 3.—At the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last night, to extend a reception to the delegation of the Boston Board of Trade, there was a large attendance.

ILLINOIS. The Teachers' Party—Fenians Denounce their "Gin'gals" as Cowards.—Killed by Falling from a Scaffold.—Slaughter of Jews Continued.—At the Point of Death.

CHICAGO.—The California teachers party made no stop here, arriving at about 8 o'clock last evening, and taking the first train East.

PRUSSIA. Annexation to Prussia. BERLIN.—The arrangements are completed for the annexation of the Duchy of Lanenburg to Prussia.

BAVARIA. Cause of the Abyssinian war dead. MUNICH.—Captain Charles Duncan Cameron, formerly British consul in Abyssinia, whose imprisonment by Theodore occasioned the late Abyssinian war, died at Geneva yesterday, where he had gone for the benefit of his health.

FRANCE.

Paris, confirm the press reports of the wholesale slaughter of Jews in Roumania. J. D. Hoyer, for many years president and chairman here of the National Democratic Committee, and United States Marshal, under Buchanan, is lying at the point of death.

NEW YORK.

National Guard parading—Emigrants arriving—Sufferers by railway accident—Down on the "Lotteryists".

NEW YORK.—A brigade of the National Guard, consisting of four regiments, including the 9th under Col. Fluke, paraded Prospect Park yesterday, and afterwards marched through the streets of Brooklyn and New York, exciting general attention.

No steamers were discharging passengers at Castle Garden yesterday, except the steamer France, which had 700 Scandinavians on board, which class of emigration is becoming quite numerous.

The sufferers by the dreadful railroad disaster on Tuesday, at Patterson, N.J., remain in about the same condition; they are almost momentarily expected to die from their injuries.

Commissioner Delano decides that the managers of lotteries are liable to a tax of five per cent on the sales of tickets and policies to dealers who have not paid their special tax, and for whom bonds have not been given; he also decides that dealers are agents of the managers. Among the lottery dealers arrested yesterday on a charge of doing business without a license, were Aldermen McBrien, Parsons, Linde, McCleeny and Marshall.

A cable dispatch yesterday, decided that the dogma of infallibility shall be proclaimed on the 29th inst. in honor of the feast of St. Peter. Extensive preparations are being made to celebrate the occasion, and it is said the display of pomp and pageantry will surpass any demonstration of the kind ever witnessed in Europe.

FOREIGN NEWS.

SPAIN. Villagers sensible—Will not support the Priests. MADRID.—A riot occurred in a little village near here, yesterday, on account of an attempt to collect a tax for the maintenance of the clergy; no blood was shed, and the disorder was quickly suppressed.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Irish Press jubilant—Fenians re-examined—New editor of "Punch"—Anonymous present—Approaching yacht race—Precautions against the "Finnigans"—Leaving for America.

DUBLIN.—The final passage of the land bill is regarded favorably by the Irish press generally; some of the papers are jubilant over the stringent measures.

LONDON.—The New York yachts and those of the Royal Thames club will compete, on the 13th inst., for the Doughton cup; the course will be from Dover, England, to Boulogne, France, and back.

There is considerable apprehension in regard to the movements of the Fenians in England in consequence of orders having been issued to double the guard at all the dockyards and naval stations in Great Britain, and to keep fires banked on steamers, and other precautions calculated to facilitate the suppression of any revolt.

The alleged Fenians, Davitt and Wilson, were again before the court today. Some evidence of importance was offered, showing that the prisoners had been actively engaged in distributing arms in Ireland and in the north of England.

The government continues its precautions against Fenian violence. The Examiner recommends the several provinces of Spain and Portugal to form a Union, based on the principles of the Constitution of the United States.

Shirley Brooks succeeds Mark Lemon as active editor of Punch. Mrs. John Wood, the actress, has received an anonymous gift of diamonds and a set of emeralds, valued at five hundred pounds.

The Americans in London are excessively annoyed by the slow and uncertain delivery of mails. The government promises strong measures against betting at races. A material reduction has been made on cable telegrams to India.

FRANCE.

Paris, confirm the press reports of the wholesale slaughter of Jews in Roumania. J. D. Hoyer, for many years president and chairman here of the National Democratic Committee, and United States Marshal, under Buchanan, is lying at the point of death.
