

Correspondence.

Interesting from Pennsylvania.

HYDE PARK, Lacka County, Pa., March 5, 1881.

Editor Deseret News:

We were favored with a flying visit by Judge Dusenberry, of Provo, a few days ago. His portly proportion and pleasing "phiz" cheered us up. I hope he won't get angry with my familiarity, if he does, the court can attend to my case. He came from Washington, where he left President Cannon in good trim, mentally and physically. Well indeed is he armed whose cause is just. The contested seat affair is creating quite a stir among the people of our country. It is preaching Mormonism. Elder Kohler, the German minister whom we lately baptized, informed us that while among the Pennsylvania Germans of Berks County, preaching, the prevailing talk was the Utah contest.

Our little branch is getting less by emigration to Utah. Elder John W. Lewis, whose hospitable home so many of our elders have been entertained at is the last.

Elders Williams and Isaacs were favored a few weeks ago with the privilege of preaching in a Congregational Church, at Rushdale, a town about ten miles north of us. They were listened to attentively. The dastardly attempt to poison Elder Isaac, showed the wisdom of the conduct of a Welsh Elder in Wales who always in asking a blessing on his food kept his eyes open. When asked why he did so, he said that he was taught in Scripture to watch and pray.

You have been advised ere this of the sad calamity of the burning of the Orphan Asylum in our city, resulting in the death of 17 innocent children. Did the spirit of true Christianity abound, there would be no necessity for institutions of this kind, for every true home would be an asylum for the homeless. What a comment on our boasted civilization! It is well with the little ones, they are in good hands where their worth is appreciated.

The religious, as well as some of the secular press of the country, are very much excited over the celestial commotion now engaging the attention of astronomers in this country and in Europe. They fear that mother earth might be influenced thereby, and quote Mark, 12, 25, to establish their position, claiming that these events are some of the signs of the coming of the Son of Man. Fear of coming events seems to take hold of the inhabitants of the earth, even children partake of it.

The N. Y. Tribune of the 3d inst. contains an article from a correspondent who claims he has found a remedy to prevent the spread of "Mormonism." It is to place the "Mormons" under the care of the Interior Department, and confine them on a selected reservation after the manner of "poor Lol." The reservation would have to be an elastic one.

Elder John J. Davis' (of Provo) articles in the Welsh language in the Drych, is creating quite a stir. He handles Murray without gloves in his last.

Our miners are not making half time, and rents are advancing. It is feared another strike will soon be inaugurated.

Yours in the gospel, E. HOWELL.
