MR. READ'S LECTURE.

Noted Speaker Entertains at the Salt Lake Theater.

Opie Read, who claims that he cannot tell the same story in the same way twice, appeared at the Salt Lake Theater last night before a crowded house. From the first word Mr. Read had the audience with nim. He did not lecture in the true sense of the word, but spun innumerable yarns to filus-trate the phases of numan character, which he so ably analyzed. He dwelt on the vices and virtues of mankind, us-ing his powers of pathos and humor which held the audience close to him. Mr. Read was entertained at the Press club after his lecture by 40 or 60 of the newspapermen and their friends. Wilway twice, appeared at the Salt Lake club after his lecture by 40 or 60 of the newspapermen and their friends, Wil-hard Weihe, M. J. Brines, Frederick E. Smith and J. J. McClellan, rendered musical and vocal selections. Mr. Read "opened up" and told many of the good old yarns for which he is fam-ous. He will leave tonight for Provo where he will lecture. Mcssrs. Burt and Carlquist, who are in charge of the University of Utah lec-ture course, and under whose auspices Opie Read appeared last night, are much gratified with the success of the lecture. The with the success of the

UTAH CAREY PROJECT.

One of the latest Carey act land propositions in the state is that opened up in Millard county on November 1. The tract being reclaimed by means of irrigation, consists of 30,000 acres of bench lands in that county, and within a distance of from two to six miles from the town of Burtner, on the line of the Salt Lake Route, 135 miles south of Salt Lake "We are running weekly excursions to the tract," said manager F, L. Copening to a News reporter, "and the excursions are all well attended. Twenty are booked from this city for this week's excursion, and more are nearly ready to go. Most of the lands disposed of so far have been to Utah parties, and many young men are going in from all over the state to secure al-lotments. These excursions are under the direction of Charles A. McClain, the direction of the company and he is much pleased with the pro-gress made.

"The town of Burtner comprises about 40 families, and has a good hotel, stores and other public institutions."
