Verdict of Jury is That He Committed Grand Larceny in McWhirter Case.

SENTENCED ON THURSDAY.

He is Now Occupying a Cell in the County Jail in Default of Bonds.

"Dr." Jim Donaldson has been found guilty of grand larceny by the jury which has patiently listened to the evidence in his case in Judge Armstrong's court for the past two weeks and the defendant will be sentenced for his part in the famous McWhirter robbery on Thursday, July 11. The case was submitted at 12:20 o'clock Saturday afternoon and at 3:45 o'clock the jury returned its verdict. When the verdict was read Donaldson did not move a muscle and showed no indication of feeling whatever. His attorney, S. A. King had the jury polled and each of the eight men declared that that was his verdict.

The sensation of the trial occurred when Dist. Atty. Looftbourrow, after the date of sentence had been fixed by the court, objected to the jury being re-called on the ball which he gave at the time he was bound over to the district court. The amount of the bail is $5,000 and the bondsmen are Connelman M. Mulvey and C. J. Garey, a gambler. The attorney for the state declared that the bond was not good and, although Atty. King protested against any change in the order until after sentence had been passed, Judge Armstrong remanded Donaldson to the custody of the sheriff until a new bond in that sum is furnished and approved by the court. Donaldson is therefore in jail with a show to stay there for a few days at least.

WILL SEEK A NEW TRIAL.

The penalty for the offense is from one to 10 years in the state prison. Atty. King announced his intention of filing a motion for a new trial and in the event the motion is denied he will appeal the case to the supreme court. Only two ballots were taken by the jury before the verdict was reached. The first ballot resulted in six for guilty and two for acquittal. After considerable discussion the second ballot was taken and resulted in a unanimous verdict of guilty.

STORY OF THE CRIME.

The offense for which Donaldson was convicted was the larceny of $3,000 from two young Scotchmen, Alexander and William McWhirter, in the Antler rooming house on West Second South street on Sept. 15, 1906. The young men had just arrived from the coast and were en route to San Francisco, where they proposed to engage in a bakery business. They were approached by Larry O'Brien, who lured them to the room where Donaldson and Jack O'Brien were playing cards. They induced Alexander McWhirter to play a hand or two and beat him out of $3,000.

AT DONALDSON'S SUGGESTION.

When the young man complained that the game was not fair Donaldson suggested that he call the police, whereupon Larry O'Brien very obligingly went out after the officers and returned with W. H. Parent and W. W. Bell, two men who were in the game with him, who acted as police officers and took him to the county jail and informed him that he could get his money back after he arrived at the police station.

They left the room with the McWhirters in custody and they went to the police station tried to get away from the Scotchmen, but Alexander insisted that he be taken to the station and finally Bell took him there, entering by the rear door. They had a conference with Chief of Police Sheets. The brothers left the city that night and went to Los Angeles, where they contacted an attorney, who devised them to return to Salt Lake and attempt to prosecute the robbers.

CASE IN THE HANDS OF SHERIFF.

They followed out the advice and upon arriving here put the case in the hands of Sheriff Emery and the county attorney. Complaints were issued for the men actively connected with the robbery and also against Chief of Police Sheets, Detective Raleigh, Atty. William Newton and Nick Ruzzuto, a saloonkeeper, charging them with criminal conspiracy. All the men have been arrested excepting Jack and Larry O'Brien. Donaldson was arrested in Hot Springs, Ark., and is the first one to be convicted. Current turned state's evidence and testified against Chief Sheets at his preliminary and also against Donaldson. So far the case against Sheets has not reached a jury, as the information was quashed by Judge Armstrong on a technicality. A new complaint has been filed against him making the same charge and he will be given a preliminary hearing in the near future.

RETURN OF FISHER HARRIS.

Comes Back With Two Conventions For Salt Lake Next Year.

Manager Fisher Harris of the Commercial club returned Saturday evening from his successful eastern trip, which resulted in his engaging for Salt Lake next year, the annual convention of the National Association of Credit Men, and that of the National Protective Travelers' association for 1909. Mr. Harris is enthusiastic over the Jamestown exposition, and claims it will be the greatest in the history of America. He advises reaching the grounds from Washington by boat. He calls attention to the fact that October 15 will be Utah day, and hopes many Utah people will be there. Mr. Harris says that the best kind of advertising for a town is descriptive articles which will tell of the natural resources, climatic attractions and other features making residence desirable.

"TRUE PATRIOTISM."

Rev. C. C. McIntyre Preaches on Subject at Westminster Church.

In preaching on "True Patriotism" last night, in the Westminster Presbyterian church, Rev. C. C. McIntyre declared that several tendencies of the present day are being so rapidly developed that the American people must return to the basic principles of patriotism upon which the nation was founded or run into danger of national ruin.

These tendencies are growing so rapidly that he had to take notice of them until they become so great as to defy correction," he said. "One is the danger of mob law or anarchy. Those who feel that their rights have been trampled upon should take a true patriotic stand instead of dropping down to mere mob rule to rectify a right. Another danger is the war between corporate wealth and labor. When one class will insist upon getting the most work out of another class for the least pay and under the most unfavorable conditions, then it is certain that strife will ensue.

There will be forming of class hatred and contempt, and no one knows what the end will be. The settlement of this growing danger can come along lines of true patriotism and that way alone. Let the men of capital and the men of labor meet upon the common ground of humanity.

FUNERAL OF MRS. SADLER.

Impressive Services Held in This City Yesterday Afternoon.

Largely attended and very impressive were the funeral services held yesterday over the remains of Mrs. Alice Sadler, wife of A. C. Sadler. Not only did relatives, friends and neighbors gather to pay respects to her memory, but there were present many members of the Women of Woodcraft, an organization to which the deceased belonged, and a goodly representation from the Real Estate association, of which Mr. Sadler is an active member. The obsequies were held at the First ward meetinghouse, commencing at 4 o'clock. Bishop Joseph Warburton presided over the church sang a number of selections and Miss Sarah Rasmussen and Sadie Braby rendered the duet, "Some Sweet Day." The speakers were the Rev. Rodney C. Sadler, John L. Nebeker and Bishop Warburton.

After the grave at the city cemetery had been dedicated by William D. Campbell, the ritual of the Women of Woodcraft was read, and selections by a ladies' quartet from one of the circles and a quartet from members of camp 53, Woodmen of the World.

LOUIS LYNN DEPOSED.

W. F. Ramsey His Successor in Executive Chair of District Council.

Louis Lynn, ex-president of the Electrical Workers' council, continues invisible to mortal ken. His apartments were visited Saturday night, and no evidence as to his whereabouts could be discovered. The recent fire in his room where Donaldson and Jack O'Brien were playing cards, they induced Alexander McWhirter to play a hand or two and beat him out of $3,000.

"THE LAND OF GOD'S CARE."

Pres. R. M. Stevenson Draws Contrast Between Palestine and U. S.

President R. M. Stevenson of Westminster college preached in the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning, on "The Land of God's Care," drawing a contrast between Palestine and the United States. In the course of his remarks the doctor said: "As we have been blessed above all people, we have responsibilities above all people. If the little land of Palestine was honored with inaugurating Christianity, may it not be that we are to be in at the culmination? What shall be the ideal of the church? Shall we spend this vast wealth mostly in erecting palatial residences and furnishing them superbly and keeping splendid turn-outs and bringing everything on to our tables and dressing grandly, or shall we regard it of more importance to bless and help our fellow men? There is not a satisfactory distribution of wealth yet, though conditions may be better here than elsewhere. For 90 per cent of the males in our cities are living on less than $600 a year, and a man cannot live with any comfort in our cities and sustain a family on that amount. They may exist, but not live in comfort or have advantages.

"We are giving many sons and daughters to go out into all parts of the world to take men by the hand and lift them up; we are giving more to any other people, but we are not coming up to our ability by any means."

BAD NEGRO CAPTURED.

Walter Harne Escaped Saturday Evening—Caught Yesterday Morning.

Walter Harne, the negro who was sentenced by Judge Diehl to serve 75 days for assaulting a woman, managed in some mysterious way to make his escape from the city jail Saturday afternoon. His escape was not discovered until late in the evening, and officers at once began a search for him. Saturday night Officer Howell saw the fellow at a street medicine show but when Harne saw the officer he dashed through the crowd and made his escape. The notorious American house on Commercial street, and Sergeant Hemphill and Officer Olson started on a still hunt for the man. They pointed out him at the Salvation army headquarters about 11 o'clock yesterday morning, and before he could put up a fight was handcuffed and marched back to the station.

Harne was arrested on July 4 for beating a woman with whom he had been living. He had threatened to kill the woman and was beating her severely.

TURK LANDED IN JAIL.

John Peters Under Arrest for Burglaring Residence Yesterday.

Just as he was about to take a train for Garfield yesterday afternoon, John Peters, a Turk, was arrested by Officer Riley on the charge of burglary. Peters is now in jail awaiting arraignment on the charge. It is alleged that he broke into a frame house on West North Temple street at 2 o'clock yesterday and stole therefrom $35 in cash, a watch, two suits of clothes, a razor and several other minor articles. No money was found on the man, but some of the stolen articles were recovered.

IS A MODEL TOWN.

No Saloons and Few Drunks in Colorado Springs, Says a Visitor.

Mrs. Jay Moore of Colorado Springs is visiting in this city with her aunt, Mrs. Jessup of 116 O street, while en route to Nevada to spend part of the summer with relatives. Mrs. Moore says Colorado Springs is one of the most desirable places to live in the country, as in addition to its natural attractions, there is not a saloon in the place or in the resort, and the sight of a drunken man is something almost unknown. In fact Mrs. Moore never saw but one drunken man in Colorado Springs, and he got drunk on a railroad train. As soon as he rolled into the street, the police gobbled him up instantly, and he did not remain in public view very long. The speaker congratulated the members of the ward upon the excellent showing made. The exercises of the evening, which were very interesting throughout, were presided over by Bishop Edwin S. Sheets.

IS BACK HOME AGAIN.

Aged Mr. Wilber Safely Restored to Anxious Relatives.

"After being in the county jail from Wednesday until Saturday, during which time he was sought for by family and friends and advertised for in the daily papers, C. E. Wilber has been safely returned to his home. The man is 75 years of age, and but recently arrived in the city, to make his home with his daughter, Mrs. E. A. Enders. He is rather feeble-minded and wandered from the house Tuesday evening, unobserved. A diligent search failed to locate his whereabouts. He was picked up at Birmingham Junction the next day and brought to the county jail, where he remained during the remainder of the week, being unable to tell where he belonged.

BIG FLOOD IN SAMOA.

"Elders' House" Washed Into the Harbor—U. S. Sergeant Killed.

Elder Thomas S. Court, president of the Samoan mission, writing from Pago Pago, Tutuila, June 5, 1907, says: During the night of the 2nd and early morning of the 3rd inst., thousands of dollars of damage was done by heavy rains, causing landslides all over this island (Tutuila). Sgt. Cox, who had charge of the native soldiers at the United States naval station, was killed by a landslide struck the building. He was hurt and later died from his wounds. Many houses were ruined or of position; our old "Elders' House" here, was washed into the harbor. None of the natives remember anything so bad before.

REAL ESTATE DAY.

Judge E. F. Colborn Issues a Call to The Public.

To the Public—Real estate day falls on Thursday next. There are real reasons for real estate day—reasons that ought to appeal to every lover of Salt Lake. Real estate day is the day set apart to be devoted to a greater Salt Lake. The organized real estate operators of Salt Lake depend upon the financial proceeds of that day for the means to work for Salt Lake the remaining 364 days of the year. The money expended by the association is expended judiciously for the general improvement of general real estate. Every thrifty merchant advertises the superiority of his wares and his moderate price. A city to be thrifty must do the same. The usual way of raising money is to ask for contributions—in pass around the hat. That the Real Estate association does not do it. It simply asks you to buy a ticket to Saltair on real estate day. You get for the ticket all the resort can give you in climate, pleasures and, besides, you stand an awful good chance of getting a prize worth very much more than the ticket costs you.

At this writing the prizes number 342, valued at several thousand dollars, and the list is far from complete. You see, our scheme is this: We take you to Saltair for 25 cents and pay you for going.

The cash prizes amount to nearly $1,000. The merchants, as they always are, have been very liberal with contributions of valuable merchandise.

The grand prize is the Walker Brothers Dry Goods company Parisian gown, worth $400. It would not do to wear on a cold day, but in this kind of weather it is all right. If it did not beggar description, a description would be ventured. The woman who gets it will have a creation—a symphony in Egyptian lace, hand made flowers and the fluffy, expensive product of the loom, which will enable her to stand out as a queen, to attire herself for a presentation to any crowned head of Europe.

And there is the magnificent gown offered by Zion's Co-operative Mercantile Institution. This is a cream white affair formed on a French model, and imported by May Heller of New York. It is one of the glorious combinations of satin velvet, taffeta silk, soutache braid, self covered buttons, Venice net lace, trimmed with bronze and spangled with jasper that ever graced the beautiful form of a woman.

It would be an endless task to attempt a description of the other prizes. Buy a ticket to Saltair and get one of them. If you don't go to Saltair it won't make any difference with your chance for a prize. The lucky numbers will be given to the press and your rights will be fully protected. This year we want to make real estate day a red letter one. We expect 30,000 people in attendance at our function. We promise you a good time and, more than that, we promise you that the funds secured for the association will be used to make every real estate holding in Salt Lake better by giving wide publicity to the advantages here offered for the safe and profitable investment of capital—and as a place to live and be prosperous, healthy and happy.

It should not be forgotten that the Real Estate association is allied with the Merchants & Manufacturers' and the State Fair associations in maintaining the free exhibit of Utah's resources on West Third South street. There are thousands of Salt Lake people who do not know that this exhibit exists and that many hundreds of strangers visit it every week. It ought to be the pride of the people for it is certainly most comprehensive and attractive. Every lover of Salt Lake should see it and take his friends to see it, and do his part toward its maintenance. Apply to SALT LAKE REAL ESTATE ASSOCIATION, EDWARD F. COLBORN, Chairman.

DEDICATED BY PRES. SMITH.

Aspicious Services at Thirty-first Ward Chapel Last Evening.

The Thirty-first ward chapel was dedicated last evening under very auspicious circumstances. Presidents Joseph F. Smith and John R. Winder were in attendance. The services were also President Hugh J. Cannon of the Liberty stake, and his first counselor, Elder Arnold H. Schultess. A special music was rendered by the choir, a juvenile chorus and soloists. The dedication hymn and "Praise Ye Jehovah" were sung by the choir, and the children joined in singing "Hosanna." "I know that my Redeemer liveth" and "Nazareth" were the selections of Miss Edna Evans and W. S. Lamoreaux, respectively.

The dedicated prayer was offered by President Smith, and he was one of the speakers, the others to deliver addresses being President Winder, and Elders Hugh J. Cannon and Lewis A. Merrill. The last named was chosen as second counselor to Bishop Edwin S. Sheets, to fill a vacancy caused by the removal to Idaho of former counselor A. L. Fuld. From reports read, the condition of the Thirty-first ward were shown to be most favorable from every viewpoint. The chapel cost nearly $4,000, and not only are the building and grounds paid for, but there is a neat sum remaining in the treasury. The speakers congratulated the members of the ward upon the excellent showing made. The exercises of the evening, which were very interesting throughout, were presided over by Bishop Edwin S. Sheets.
