THE CHRISTMAS NEWS

FOR 1901.

A UTAH-COLORADO EDITION.

The Christmas edition of the "News" this year will be printed on Saturday, December 21st, 1901. It will contain an exhaustive review of the year's developments in business, mining, commerce, real estate, building, and all other branches of business, and will form the most elaborate compilation of the resources and attractions of Utah which has ever been issued. Our sister state, Colorado, and its industries and attractions will be well represented in the issue, many beautiful views of Denver and Colorado scenery being given. A big part of the edition will be circulated in Denver, and Colorado's principal cities.

Especially attractive articles will be prepared by a corps of selected writers, and leading men of the community will contribute timely articles on current topics.

As the holiday number will be issued several days ahead of Christmas, it will form an invaluable advertising medium to local dealers for the Christmas trade. The general advertiser could find no better means for reaching the people of the great west. The "News" will pledge a circulation of at least 25,000 copies for the Christmas issue. Special rates will be accorded advertisers who wish their notices printed in the Semi-Weekly News as well, giving them a total circulation of nearly 45,000 copies.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Edward P. Mulholland, business representative of Miss Eugenie Blair, bathed in Salt Lake yesterday on a 200 yarder. He got the 200 yard right and also a severe cold.

The City Council held a special meeting on Saturday evening for the purpose of approving the department pay rolls, amounting to $7,256.57. The men were paid today.

Waldo Eakle, the 14-year-old son of Milande E. Eakle, died yesterday at his home on South Seventh East, from diphtheria after only a few days' illness. His elder brother, Kennedy, is now suffering from the same disease.

Mrs. Ruth Hopkins, widow of Capt. R. H. Hopkins, died in Butte yesterday and the remains will be brought to Salt Lake for burial. The Hopkins family used to live in this city but the children are now scattered all over the country.

Dr. Root gives out the sad information that the condition of R. G. Taysan, of the Tribune, is hopeless. The patient is afflicted with paralytic pneumonia and is in a very critical condition. He has lost the use of his lower limbs entirely, and while he may rally, Dr. Root says his ultimate recovery is impossible.

An epidemic of lung or throat disease, which resembles influenza is going around the horses of Salt Lake and it is said that 90 per cent have been attacked. Some valuable animals have already died and many more are in a serious condition. The veterinary surgeons of the city do not consider the disease necessarily fatal if treated in time.

The schedule of the pen and Calder's ears, on the Rapid Transit has been changed. The hour for leaving the Theater corner has been advanced five minutes. The Calder's car leaves five minutes after and twenty-five minutes to the hour. The pen car leaves twenty minutes after and ten minutes to the hour. This will be of great convenience to many residents.

Within a few days all the banks of Salt Lake will have wires connected with a burglar alarm in the desk attendant's room at the police station. Electricians were at work this morning and set up an encoder in the office. Instead of numbers, the name of the banks will be placed in the encoder so that when an alarm is turned in the office it will make no mistake in responding to it.

The social interests of the company of the National Guard will be looked after by the following officers who were elected at a recent meeting: President, Walter Wood; vice president, Frank E. Chamberlain; secretary, George W. Goddard; financial secretary, Scott Woodward; treasurer, Horace H. Walker. The following constitute the governing board: R. T. Coverdale, O. K.

FEDERAL COURT SESSION.

Judge Marshall Renders $2,740.50 Judgment Against David Eccles.

Defendants in Timber Case Took Timor Prior to Filing of St. Anthony Railroad Incorporation Articles.

The federal court convened this morning and Judge Marshall rendered judgment for $2,740.50 against the defendants in the case of the United States against David Eccles and Hiram Spencer. The action was brought by the plaintiff to recover damages for the taking of certain timber from its lands in Idaho by the defendants. The defendants admitted having taken 955,000 feet of timber between the dates of July 20 and November 4, 1899, but claimed that they were justified in doing so by the Act of March 3, 1875, which provided that timber may be taken from lands adjacent to a railroad for the purpose of building the railroad. The act also adds that the railroad to be justified in taking timber from government lands must have been taken from lands prior to the secretary of the interior prior to taking such timber.

The defendants in this case took certain timber to build the St. Anthony railroad from lands adjoining it. As this timber was taken prior to the filing of the articles of incorporation of the railroad on September 30, 1899, Judge Marshall rendered his decision in favor of the plaintiff. As to damages the judge found that the defendants had acted in good faith, believing that the articles of incorporation of the railroad had been filed, and so this decision allowed only interest on the value of the timber and the value thereof.

Some matters of minor importance came up and were postponed at the request of various attorneys.

A FRIGHTENED BURGLAR.

Storekeeper Lloyd Gives One a Close Range Battle.

W. L. Lloyd, who has a store on Second and D street, had a close range fight with a burglar who was trying to rob his store at noon yesterday, and if he did not land his man, he scared him out of a few nights' sleep. Mr. Lloyd had occasion to visit his place of business and was somewhat surprised to find the plate removed from the keyhole. As he entered the place he saw a stranger behind the counter and immediately tackled him. The struggle lasted for at least five minutes, during which there was a fall in canned goods, butter, eggs and fresh vegetables. On a show case laid a couple of sharp knives and both men tried to reach them, but neither was successful. Finally Mr. Lloyd threw the burglar down onto a basket of tomatoes and knocked his hat off. The fellow managed to wrench himself free and dashed down the street, making his escape. The storekeeper examined the hat and found the name of "J. G. Egan" on the band. He at once reported the matter to the police and gave them a good description of the robber. Fortunately Mr. Lloyd is not in the habit of leaving money in the store, and the fellow secured nothing.

A Violent Attack of Croup Cured.

"Last winter an infant child of mine had croup in a violent form," says Elder John W. Rogers, a Christian Evangelist of Fliey, Mo. "I gave her a few doses of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and in a short time all danger was past and the child recovered." This remedy not only cured croup, but when given as soon as the first symptoms appear, will prevent the attack. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by all druggists.
