FROM TUESDAY'S DAILY, JUNE 14.

Information Wanted.

Miss Margaret Wheeler, 95 Church Street, Albany, N. Y., desires to obtain information concerning her uncle, John Dunlap, who united himself with the "Mormons" in Nauvoo, and subsequently came to Utah.

Pardoned.

Yesterday Governor West pardoned Mrs. Hannah Brightmore, of Grantsville, Tooele County, from the penitentiary, where she was sent three months ago under a one year's sentence for grand larceny. Judge Zane, who sentenced her, and the prosecuting witnesses in the case, signed the application for executive clemency.

The "Nephi Ensign."

This is the title of a new six-column, four-page weekly, published by J. T. Jakeman at Nephi. Its typographical appearance is somewhat superior to that of the paper issued in Manti by the same gentleman; it is well patronized in the matter of advertising, and with good management should do well. It has our best wishes for its success. Brother Jakeman's enterprise is commendable.

Supreme Court.

In the Territorial Supreme Court today a decision was rendered in the suit of D. P. Tarpey, appellant, vs. The Deseret Salt Company, respondents on appeal from the first district. The decision of the lower court was reversed. Judge Boreman delivered the opinion, Judge Zane concurring and Judge Henderson dissenting.

The case of Samuel Levy, respondent, vs. Salt Lake City, appellant; from the Third District, was argued, submitted and taken under advisement. Sutherland & McBride and Arthur Brown appeared for respondent, Sheeks & Rawlins and F. S. Richards for appellants.

The suit of Lucien Sultzgeble, respondent, vs. Mary Worseldine and Rebecca Harris, appellants, was argued, submitted and taken under advisement.

SUICIDE OF A STRANGER.

A Young Man Takes Poison at the Continental.

A short time since there registered at the Continental Hotel a young man apparently about twenty-six years of age, dark complexioned, of rather light build and medium height. He wrote his name as Virgil Raleigh.

This morning the chambermaid rapped on the door of his room, intending to enter and put it in order. It was locked, and she knew its occupant was inside. Again at about one o'clock this afternoon she knocked at the door. It was still locked and she received no response. The clerk was summoned and he entered the room, finding the of its occupant lying upon the bed. A search resulted in the discovery of a four-ounce bottle containing a small quantity of liquid poison, the name of which our informant could not give.

A note was also found that had been written by the dead man, which gave the following information: His real name was John S. Reeney, of Calico, San Bernardino County, California, of which place he had formerly been assistant postmaster. He had been compelled to leave there because of a failure in business, the only cause, so far as known, that led him to take his own life.

The body was conveyed to the office of Sexton Jos. E. Taylor, and an inquest was to be held upon it this afternoon.

Strange Cause of Death.

Elijah Guiver, a brother of G. H. Gniver, of this city, a young man in the employ of Mr. Biel, a butcher of Ogden, some two weeks ago cut his thumb while chopping off some meat, and not paying sufficient attention to the wound it healed slowly. A few days later a couple of dogs got to quarrelling in the shop and he went to separate them, when one flew at him and tore the cut open again, presumably inserting a tooth in it; at all events it at once became very sore and got rapidly worse till the hand and arm were swollen to terrible proportions. Medical aid seemed unavailing and the victim sank steadily till yesterday evening at 8 o'clock, when he died. Decomposition was so rapid that the funeral was appointed for this afternoon, his relatives from this city having gone to Ogden to be present. Deceased was 33 years of age, a man of good qualities and industrious habits; he leaves a wife and four small children.

FELL DEAD.

Wm. H. Bell Expires from Heart Disease.

Shortly before 8 o'clock last evening William H. Bell was seated at a table in a saloon on Second South Street, with a number of companions. Mr. Bell had a lunch with him in a small tin pail, and was proceeding to eat the food. He took a mouthful or two, and suddenly sprang up from the table, exclaiming that he was choking. His friends went to his assistance and carried him outside, thinking the fresh air would do him good. He failed to rally, and a physician was sent for, but the unfortunate man died in a few minutes. His body was taken to the City Sexton's, and an inquest will be held this afternoon by Coroner Taylor.

Mr. Bell was upwards of sixty years of age, and for the past eighteen months has lived in a house belonging to Mr. M. Heiman, in the Tenth Ward. He was by trade a mason, but has been in very poor circumstances owing to his inability to find sufficient employment. He has a family somewhere in the east.

He was one of a family of seven brothers who enlisted on the Union side during the war of the Rebellion, and all of them came out alive at the end of the great struggle. The deceased was in several important engagements, having been at Bull's Run, Antietam and Shiloh.

A UTAH BOY SHOT.

A Young Man From Springville Killed in Colorado.

The following is taken from the San Miguel Journal of June 8th, published at Telluride, Colorado;

Sunday afternoon about six o'clock, word reached town that a man had been killed at the Quinley saw mill, on Prospect Creek, and soon after Charles Benton came in and gave himself up, acknowledging to the shooting, but claiming to have done it in self-defense. As the grand jury were to sit the following morning, it was not considered necessary that a preliminary hearing be had and Benton was placed in the custody of Deputy Sheriff Ricker. The killing and the circumstances which led to it, as related by eye-witnesses, are as follows:

Saturday evening the men at the mill were playing a friendly game of cards, when Benton and "Missouri Bill" got to quarreling and fighting. They were stopped, and Mr. Barry, who is running the mill, told the men he would have no more of it. Sunday afternoon, while Mr. Barry was in town, Benton was sitting behind the stove reading, when Bill came into the room with a heavy boot-jack in his hand and flourishing it over Benton, demanded that he "give up them knuckles." This Benton refused to do and the two men clinched, but were immediately separated by Wm. Sellers, who was also in the room. Benton stepped back into the kitchen, took down a rifle, put in a cartridge, stepped back to the door and aiming at what he supposed was Bill, pulled the trigger. Buckley, the murdered man, it appears was lying on the bunk and had risen. When the row started he was standing by the bedside, in a direct line with Bill, whom it is supposed Benton intended to kill. When Benton came in with the gun Bill stepped quickly to one side. Both he and Buckley had on red flannel shirts, the room was not very light, and the theory of the witnesses is that in his rage and excitement Benton did not discern the difference. The ball, a Springfield rifle 44 calibre, entered the left breast just below the nipple, passed through the body, came out under the right arm and passed on into the arm, and was cut out of the fleshy, muscle part. After the shot Buckley, throwing both hands to his breast, exclaimed, "My God, I'm shot," reeled forward a few steps and fell down dead.

A representative of the Journal viewed the corpse at Cronkleton's undertaking rooms yesterday, and found the corpse considerably bruised and marked, indicating that the murdered man had also been in the fight, and there is some talk that perhaps the shooting of Buckley was not altogether a mistake.

In reference to the sad affair detailed above, James M. Peirce, Esq., writes us as follows, from Springville, Utah, June 13th:

Editor Deseret News:

I herewith send you a copy of the San Miguel Journal giving an account of the murder of A. L. Buckley. The name should have been given Wm. S. Bulkley as that was the name of the young man, who is the son of Newman Bulkley of Springville.

By consent of the boy's father, I wish to give a few items relative to the character of the young man which I think will be sufficient to convince any one who may read the report as given in the Journal, that he could not have had any hand in the fight. I will briefly say that I have lived a near neighbor to Brother Bulkley for the last thirty years, and a more worthy man, citizen and member of the Church, is not to be found. His son William has been trained up under good examples in the family, as also in the Y. M. M. I. A. He was a member of the Elder's Quorum here until two years since when he went to Castle Valley to live. He was a member of the branch there in good standing when he left for Colorado. He had also, in connection with his father and mother, done considerable work in the St. George Temple, had been prompt in paying his tithing, etc.

He was born April, 6, 1862, hence was 25 years old when killed. According to my close observation he was of a mild disposition, and was never quarelsome to my knowledge. I give these facts in behalf of the grief stricken family.

At Terre Haute, Champaign County, Ohio, Mr. Charles F. Powell was postmaster, and he writes: "I have a fine lot of Polish Chickens. I gave them St. Jacobs Oil on a pill of bread for the cronp. It cured them. The next morning I could not tell which of the chickens had been sick."
