

TALK OF THE TOWN.

The City Council holds its regular session to-night.

The Ogden Iron works is a subject that is being revived.

Johannes Olsen and Chas. Good were today admitted to citizenship.

There is a message at the Western Union Telegraph Office for James Campbell.

President George Q. Cannon is expected home from the north to-morrow evening.

The Phynon-Climax mining case is still progressing; only case in the District Court to-day.

A case of assault taken in hand yesterday, left $3 for his appearance for trial before the magistrate.

Chicken stealing continues. Fifteen fowls were taken from Mr. Bergstrom's premises the other evening.

The First Presidency are on a preaching tour through Weber County. They are accompanied by Elders George Reynolds and G. F. Gibbs.

Professors Toronto, Kingsbury and Young, who left for the Yellowstone on the 15th inst., at last accounts were at Cokeville, on the Granger road, all well.

The body of Frank Daly, one of the victims of the Alta Avalanche, was found last week and buried in Little Cottonwood. His was the only body remaining under the snow.

A few tickets are still left for the San Francisco Excursion, which leaves here on Thursday afternoon, for a month's dalliance on the Pacific coast. Get them at Zion's Savings Bank.

Judge Daniel Tyler, having completed his arrangements with the Juvenile Instructor office, for the publication of his History of the Mormon Battalion, leaves in the morning for Beaver. His book will appear inside of three months.

The reported death of Miss May Howard, from strangulation, by swallowing water while bathing in the lake, on Saturday, was unfounded. The water she swallowed was removed by means of an emetic, and she is now recovering nicely.

It is affirmed by those who have viewed the strange scene, that comets which have been visible in the northern heavens for several nights, are one and the same body, occupying different positions at different times. There is a separate one reported in the southern sky, however.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Home Mission.—The Home Missionaries of this State are requested to meet in the Council House to-morrow (Wednesday) evening, at half-past 7 o'clock.

Special Bee Meeting.—A special bee meeting will be held at the Council House, in this city, on Wednesday, the 6th of July at 7:30 p.m., sharp. Come one, come all.

Information Wanted.—James H. Wallis would like to know of the whereabouts of Fred. Jackson, who emigrated from Liverpool in May, 1879.—Address Juvenile Instructor Office, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Personal.—Mr. J. A. Bernhard, Superintendent of the wagon department of the great establishment of the Studenaker Brothers, at South Bend, Indiana, arrived from the east last evening and is staying with Mr. Glass. These gentlemen called on us this morning. We wish Mr. Bernhard a pleasant and profitable visit to the centre city of the Rocky Mountains.

"Under the Gaslight."—This celebrated and ever popular sensational drama, which was presented so successfully by the Salt Lake Dramatic Association during last Conference, will be played twice on Saturday next, in the Theatre, as a matinee and night performance respectively. In addition to the former splendid cast, which included the old favorites, Messrs. McKenzie, Margetta, Graham and others, Mr. John S. Lindsay will appear in his original character of "Ray Trafford." See programme for further particulars.

Death of Mrs. Little.—A few minutes after 1 o'clock this afternoon, the sad news was circulated of the sudden death of Mrs. Emily M. Little, the beloved wife of Hon. Feramond Little, Mayor of Salt Lake City. The melancholy event, which was totally unexpected, as near as could be learned took place a few minutes before one o'clock, at the family residence, on First South Street, one block east of the City Hall. The deceased had been afflicted for two or three weeks with a carcinoma which made its appearance on the back of her neck and had assumed alarming and dangerous dimensions. For a week and a half previous to her death, she had been obliged to keep to her room and in bed, but it was supposed by all that she was recovering. Five minutes before breathing her last, she expressed this view herself. Her daughters, Mrs. Clara Clawson and Miss Fanny Little, were in the room a few minutes previous to her departure, and her husband, who had been called away on business, and believed his wife to be much better, arrived home just as time to witness her death. According to the opinion of Dr. Anderson, her death was primarily caused by a very dangerous position on the spinal cord at the base of the brain, and had infused its poison throughout her system. She was unconscious for three or four minutes prior to her demise. Deceased was the sister of Charles Decker, Esq., and of Mrs. Harriet Hanks and Mrs. Clara D. and Mrs. Lucy D. Young, the latter two the wives of the late President Brigham Young. She was greatly beloved by a large circle of friends, and highly respected by the general community. We deeply sympathize with the sorrowing husband and household at their sudden and heavy bereavement, and trust that He who administers comfort to the hearts of mourners, will remember them to their hour of affliction.

Educational Tour.—Dr. John R. Park, of the Deseret University, and Professor M. H. Hardy, of the Brigham Young Academy, left this morning for Tooele, to begin their season's educational tour through the settlements of the west, north and east. They will remain until Sunday in Tooele County, and return here to spend the Fourth, after which they will resume their peregrinations in a northern direction. They go under commission from Hon. John Taylor, Territorial Superintendent of District Schools, to gather information, awaken interest and impart instruction in the cause of education. As will be seen by the appended programme of their travels, furnished by Dr. Park for publication, while their tour will be comparatively brief, they have matters arranged in such shape as to get over considerable ground in a short time, and yet use it all to profit and advantage.

Sunday School Jubilee.—Sunday morning was the occasion of a very enjoyable affair in the quarterly review of the 16th Ward Sunday School. An excellent programme had been arranged, and was fully carried out to the gratification of the crowded house which assembled on the occasion.

The Secretary, E. F. Parry, presented the quarterly report, which showed the school to be in a flourishing condition, and as attractive as ever to the children, as was plainly shown by the large numbers in regular attendance.

Among the most pleasing features of the programme were—

A recitation in concert of the Articles of Faith by six boys and six girls of the Primary class;

Recitation, "Nobody like Mother," by Little Ada Emery;

"Class-mate Song" by the Choir; Recitation, by Ada Minkler, "Little Feet";

Miss Anna and Rachel Bishop's duet, "Listen to the Bells";

The perfect recitation of the "Word of Wisdom," entire, by Little Maud Perkins, eight years old;

"Beware of the Wolf," by Emma Clark;

Sunday School Dialogue, between Eliza Folland, Sophia Jeremy and Annie Tully;

"Robbing the Nest," a recitation by Joseph Decker, six years old;

A Duet by Misses Nettie Hamer and Ella Widing;

Little Ellen Evans's Recitation of "The Blind Brother";

The recitation of the last chapter of Malachi, by Little Rosabel Phipps, five years old.

To give the whole programme would not be amiss, for all who took part in the exercises performed their duty well, and nothing was lacking to complete the excellence of the review.

Encouraging remarks were made by Supt. Jas. W. Phipps and Elders C. H. Marks and Richards, of the S. S. Union. The exercises closed with an anthem from the choir, "The World's Jubilee," and benediction was pronounced by Elder Daniel Tyler.

Releases and Appointments.—The accompanying list of releases and appointments appears in the Millennial Star of June 6th:

The following named Elders are released to return home with the company that will leave Liverpool on the 25th of June, in the Wyoming Gulon & Co. Line:

Samuel Rockwell, President of the London Conference; Joseph Goddard, President of the Birmingham Conference; George S. Grant, President of the Norwich Conference; Thomas A. Smith, President of the Manchester Conference; and Isaac Duffin, traveling Elder in the Manchester Conference.

John Cooper, President of the Nottingham Conference, is appointed to succeed Samuel Rockwell in the Presidency of the London Conference; George S. Grant, traveling Elder in the Birmingham Conference, is appointed to succeed Joseph Goddard in the Presidency of the Birmingham Conference; and Thomas A. Smith, traveling Elder in the Manchester Conference, is appointed to succeed Isaac Duffin in the Presidency of the Manchester Conference. These appointments are to take effect on and from the 25th inst.

Condolence.—We deeply condole with Elder John Nettall and his wife, Sister Sophia E. Nettall, for their bereavement, caused by the death of their little son, John T. Nettall, a bright little boy nearly five years of age. As will be seen by a notice in our columns, he departed this life on Sunday, at 8:30 a.m., after an illness of ten days. His funeral was held on Monday.

London papers regret that the battle of free trade has been fought over again in Great Britain.

Emperor William will meet Emperor Francis Joseph at Salzburg, the beginning of August.

Carl Rosa is conducting opera in Great Britain. Americans are trying to get him over here.

The diver who examined the wreck of the Delor has been sent to England to report to the authorities.

The attempts to organize an agitation among the English working classes, have proven miserable failures.

PUT IT TO PROOF.

At a time when the community is flooded with so many unworthy imitations and concoctions, it is refreshing to find one that is beneficial and pure. So conclusions are drawn by the thousands of who have used Dr. King's New Discovery of Consumption, of the worth of the remedy, and they offer all who desire a trial bottle. This certainly would be disastrous to them did not the remedy possess the remarkable curative qualities claimed. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption will positively cure Asthma, Bronchitis, Stomach, Cough, Phthisis, Catarrh, Hoarseness, Croup, or any affection of the throat and lungs. As you value your existence give this wonderful remedy a trial by calling on Moore, Allen & Co., Wholesale Agents, and obtaining a trial bottle free of cost, or regular size bottle for $1.00.

Good health is impossible when the blood is impure, or when it is diluted one direction or another is developed. Boils, pimples, herpes, neuralgia, rheumatism, etc., are the result of impure blood, and the worst course is to make the blood pure, rich and warm by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

CANT PEECH GOOD.

No man can do a good job of work, preach a good sermon, try a law suit well, doctor a patient, or write a good article when he feels miserable and dull, with sluggish brain and unsteady nerves, and none should make the attempt in such a condition when it can be so easily and cheaply removed by a Little Hop Bitters. See "Truths" and "Proverbs," other column.

DIED.

In this city, on Sunday, June 26th, 1881, at 1:30 p.m., of consumption for inflammation of the bowels, after an illness of three days, JOHN F. BELL, beloved son of John and Sophia B. Bell, deceased was born on the 11th day of August, 1876. Provo Engineer and Mill Stone copy.

At Pleasant Grove, June 24th, 1881, LADRA FARNSWORTH SMITH, Sister Smith was born at Milton, Chittenden County, Vermont. She is the daughter of John and Susan Smith of Pleasant Grove, Utah. She was a member of the Church of Latter-day Saints at La Port, Indiana, May 24th, 1880. Gathered with the Church in Idaho, in the year 1880, moved to Pleasant Grove, Utah, in 1881. Was a member of the Church, prominent among the sisters of the Latter-day Saints. She was a devoted mother. She has gone to rest with the assurance of eternal life. May we remember her with pleasure who says and acts of "Aunt Laura." All that is well, when ended well.—(Cen.)
