

KING HAakon AND QUEEN MAUD

Rested Last Night at Trondheim. Ancient Capital of Haakon The Good.

CROWDS WELCOMED THEM. The Usually Grave Norwegians Had Become Parisians in Their Gaiety.

Trondheim, June 19.—King Haakon VII, his queen and his son rest tonight in the ancient capital of Haakon the Good, where Norway was first created a nation.

Expectation had made the ordinary grave Norwegians Parisians in their gaiety. On the pier was built a great pavilion in old Norse form, decorated with greenery and the nation's colors, and flanked by tritons.

At five minutes after 6 o'clock the guns of the Danish warship Hedda booming the royal salute gave the crowds the announcement that the king's yacht was approaching.

The members of the royal family speedily landed and shook hands with the members of the diplomatic corps, the municipal officials and army and navy officers.

Although Norway is regarded as safely outside the bomb belt of Europe and a country free from violent political animosities, the Norwegian police are taking precautions to protect King Haakon and the visiting princess and other notable personages.

Though Trondheim lies on the very frontier of civilization, it is a modern town, imbued with a spirit of progress.

The sound of busy hammers had not ceased when King Haakon and Queen Maud landed under the flutter of thousands of royal flags unfurled from every available point.

People throng the wide streets at all hours of the day and throughout the short, white night.

It is of frame and unpainted, but the interior suggests Roman splendor in its colors.

Snappy hints of the finest quality conceal the unpainted pine of three long tables. The royal table stands at the end of the hall under a graceful canopy of purple borne up by the national arms.

FACTS GUARANTEED NEURALGIA AND ANAEMIA ARE CURED BY PINK PILLS.

Showing the Power of this Wonderful Prescription Over the Blood And Nerves.

For nearly a generation the people of this country have known Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, during which time proof of thousands of cures by this remedy has been published and confirmed and no one person has been harmed in the slightest degree by their use.

"For over a year," says Miss Charlotte Van Salisbury, of Castleton, N. Y., "I suffered from neuralgia and palpitation of the heart. My skin was pale and raw and I was troubled with dizziness, fainting spells and fits of indigestion. I was very nervous and would start at the slightest sound. At times a great weakness would come over me and on one occasion my limbs gave way under me and I fell to the sidewalk."

"Of course I was treated by our local physicians and also consulted a noted doctor at Albany, nothing they gave me seemed to benefit me. One day I read in a newspaper about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and I immediately gave them a trial. I soon felt much better and my color had begun to return. I continued using the pills and by the time I had taken eight boxes I was entirely cured."

"My sister, Sarah Van Salisbury, suffered terribly from anaemia. She was pale and thin and we feared that she would become a victim of consumption. She tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and in a short time she began to gain in strength and weight. She is now strong and well and we both heartily recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to all who are in ill health."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or sent, postpaid, in receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Descriptive pamphlet free on request.

PATTERSON FAVORS MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP.

Washington, June 19.—By a vote of 17 to 29 the senate today voted down an amendment on a street car extension bill providing for a franchise tax of 12 per cent on the net earnings of all corporations in the District of Columbia.

Senator Patterson made a speech in support of municipal ownership of the public utilities. He admitted that there may not be sufficient information to justify the adoption of such a policy for the government of the capital city, but contended that sentiment in favor of that policy is growing throughout the world, and he urged that the district should take the lead in reform.

He said that one of the evils attaching to the private control of the corporations is found in their activity in politics, and, referring to conditions in Denver, his home city, he said the corporations are so powerful that the people are helpless. He asserted that these corporations "instruments of iniquity," hold the executive committees of both political parties in a grip of iron. "The Republican committee," he said, "is their plant tool, and the Democratic party is even more pliant."

Several stockmen each lost as high as 5,000 to 10,000 sheep. The loss, says Mr. Thomas, is offset in a measure by the immense amount of good done the range by the rain, the section of the country heretofore resembling a desert. It is now as green as a lawn.

THE AGRARIAN COMMISSION Consists of Ninety-Nine Members And Marks Second Stage Of Legislation.

It is considered moderate. Parliament will not be recessed against the will of the majority.

St. Petersburg, June 19.—The election of the agrarian commission of 99 today initiates the second stage of agrarian legislation in the lower house of parliament, but the unwieldy size of the commission and the reservation of eight places for members who have not yet arrived gives slight prospect of speedy presentation of a draft of the law. The commission consists virtually of the inner circle of the strongest Democrats leaning among the members M. Petrunkevitch, Prof. Hertzenstein, Prince Dolgoroukoff, A. Petrajewski and Nicholas Loeff, the group of toll naming M. Ankin and M. Aladdin, M. Stakovich and Prince Georgi, Ljovif, Volynsky and Frusoff.

The making up of the commission is regarded as moderate, and the selection of M. Petrajewski and Loeff is evidence that the Constitutional Democrats are not irrevocably committed to the project elaborated by the party convention held on the eve of the assembling of parliament, both the deputies named having vigorously attacked the provision for the rental instead of sale of expropriated lands as a step toward nationalization. The Polish representatives are unanimously opposed to this proposition and it probably will be eliminated as it was inserted only in deference to the radical group, which the Constitutional Democratic leaders are no longer attempting to conciliate.

The woman suffrage debate involved arguments familiar in the United States. M. Petrunkevitch picturing a regiment of amazons guarding the Tauride palace, but the discussion assumed almost the dimensions of a riot when it was introduced by the several delegates of the reactionaries at Peterhof, reassuring information has been received from the palace tonight that Emperor Nicholas has decided to send a senatorial commission to the Baltic provinces to investigate the complaints against the activity of the military authorities and to learn whether they are justified in claiming that executions and martial law cannot be abandoned.

Metropolitan Antonius, entertaining members of the lower house tonight, assured them that the government did not intend to recess parliament against the will of the majority.
