

BREVITIES.

Professor Proctor says the earth is growing larger. We are glad to hear it, for real estate has shrunk awfully the past three years.

The Danbury News man says: There is nothing that will change man so much as great grief, unless it is shaving off his mustache."

Of all the various methods proposed for the reduction of postage one is so practical as this—Get married. —Albany Evening Journal.

"Funny, isn't it, than when the Russian army uses its wings, the Turks fly?" Not very funny; same as when the Turks use their arms the Russians run.

After a boy is tired of hoeing potatoes nothing seems to rest him so much as to dig over a few square rods of greensward in search of bait.

One of the lady clerks in the Interior Department, being incorrectly told that she must pronounce "Schurz" like "shirts," replied, "If he is 'shirts,' then we are under-shirts." —Springfield Republican.

Sweet Home. —"Home's the place for boys," said a stern parent to his son, who was fond of going out at night. "That's just what I think when you drive me off to school every morning," said the son.

A Wisconsin constable levied on "the undivided half" of a gray mule. He wasn't particular which end he took, and it was thirteen days before he opened his eyes and recognized his wife.

How soothing it is for a young man with an empty stomach, knees out, and both coat tails off, to be told that it is only a question of time when he will be able to ride in his carriage! —Free Press.

Inscrutable old party—"Conductor, why didn't you wake me up as I asked you? Here I am, miles beyond the station!" "I did try, sir, but all I could get out of you was, 'All right, Mariar; get the children their breakfast, and I'll be down in a minute.'"

"Got all kinds of ties, here?" said a would be wit, entering a well-known furnishing store. "Yes, sir," replied the shopman. "Well, I'd like a pig's sty," replied the customer. "All right, sir, just bend down your head, and we'll take your measure," said the ready shopman.

A certain First Lord of the English Admiralty, on his first trip down the Thames in a rather leaky vessel, observed the men working at the pumps. "Dear me!" he said, "I did not know you had a well on board, captain; but I am really very glad, as I do detest river water."

An old man of the name of Gould, having married a young wife, wrote a poetical epistle to a friend to inform him of it, and concluded thus:

So you see, my dear sir, though I'm eighty years old,
A girl of eighteen is in love with old Gould.
To which his friend replied:

A girl of eighteen may love Gold, it is true,
But believe me, dear sir, it is Gold without U.

"Blind" Benevolence: Indignant Victim of Misplaced Almsgiving (recognizing the Belisarius of his terrace in a refreshment room)—Eh! What—what? You can see as well as myself! You hypocrite! Ingenious Mendicant—See, sir? Av course I can, the Saints be praised! Victim—What do you mean, then, by going about with a dog, and the word "blind?" Mendicant—Och, is it the dog ye mane, sir? Sure, and wasn't he sightless from his birth, and isn't it he that carries the keyard? —Funny Folk.

They arrested a vagrant, representing himself as blind, at Newburyport, Mass., last Saturday, who proved to be, in his way, quite a capitalist, for in his pockets were found $2,093 in small bags. The money was in gold, paper, and silver, and some of it was Canada currency; moreover, this pecunious tramp had a pocketful of silver spoons, and two valises full of raiment. John Miller he gave as his name, Illinois as his birth place, and he averred that he had been blind four years.

Nothing makes a man so mad as to be led on the road and have the other fellow look back at him through a cloud just. He can swallow the dust, but it is back look that shrivels a soul. —Kansas Herald.

That used to be considered fit only for a dog to dress is now extensively made into outside rigs, and is pronounced stylish. This would seem to indicate that the times are not as flush as once. —Ez.

CAN A TOAD HEAR? — The Bridgeport (Conn.) Standard says: "One of our citizens of an observing and experimental turn of mind found a toad upon his doorstep recently, and in order to discover whether it could hear well, got down upon his knees and made different noises to test the question. The toad bore the noise and took part in the experiments with such unflagging good nature, that the inquirer was working up considerable interest in the matter, when he happened to look up and found himself surrounded by a crowd of people who were speculating among themselves as to whether he was crazy or simply drunk."

A Sure Cure for the Piles.

A sure cure for the Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Ulcerated Piles has been discovered by Dr. Williams (an Indian remedy), called Dr. Williams' Indian Ointment. A single box has cured the worst old chronic cases of 25 and 30 years standing. No one need suffer five minutes after applying this wonderful soothing medicine. Lotions, instruments and electrics do more harm than good. Williams' ointment supports the tumors, gives instant and painless relief, and is prepared exclusively for Piles, and nothing else. Over 20,000 cured Patients attest its virtues and Physicians of all schools pronounce it the greatest contribution to medicine of the age.

WENT TO THE NOTED HOT SPRINGS.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 27, 1876.
DEAR SIR:—I suffered more or less for years with the itching or ulcerated Piles. I tried remedy after remedy advertised in the newspapers, and consulted physicians in Philadelphia, Louisville, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, and this city, and spent hundreds of dollars, but found no relief and comfort until I obtained a box of Williams' Indian Ointment some four months ago, and it has cured me completely. I had a part of the box left which I gave to a friend of mine who had doctored with many physicians without relief, and as a last resort went to the noted Hot Springs, of Arkansas, for treatment. He informs me that the Indian Ointment has also cured him of the piles. It is certainly a wonderful discovery and should be used by the many thousands who are now suffering with that dread disease.

JOSEPH M. RYDER.
For more certificates of cures see large circular around each box of ointment.
