

BURGLARS PLY TRADE IN SAFETY

Police Suppress All News of Crimes Which Are of Nightly Occurrence.

TWO RICH HAULS ARE MADE

Residences of F. N. Cameron and Dr. A. A. Kerr Entered and $2,000 Worth of Property Stolen.

Owing to the policy of the police under the present administration of suppressing news of all burglaries, holdups and other major crimes in which no captures are made, it has just been learned that the home of F. N. Cameron, special representative of the Phelps-Dodge interests in New Mexico, and well known among local mining men, who lives at 574 east South Temple street, was broken into by thieves and burglarized of $4,000 worth of jewelry and $700 worth of clothing and furs, Sept. 24.

All of the members of the family were absent from the house, having gone out to the mountains, according to President Taft. Some time in the afternoon the burglar pried open a rear window with a "Jimmie," and proceeded to loot the rooms. They took all of the fine women's clothing that they could find, including four silk skirts, a brown silk dress, a brown rain coat, a pink muff valued at $150, three silk shirt-waists, several necklaces, rings and fur seals, including diamonds rings, hair-belts, souvenirs, a rare lady's watch made in Switzerland, a set of solid silverware engraved with the family monogram, and a number of other articles.

The burglary was promptly reported to the police, but the thieves have never been apprehended, and none of the stolen property has been recovered or returned by the police.

The ladies in the family are particularly anxious to recover the heirlooms, which are several hundreds of years old, and Mr. Cameron, despairing of any aid from the police, has put private detectives on the case.

RICH HAUL AT DR. KERR'S.

The police have found no trace of the burglars who broke into and robbed the home of Dr. A. A. Kerr, 161 east South Temple, owners of clothes, furs, jewelry, silverware and precious souvenirs valued at $1,000, between 6 and 8 o'clock, Sunday night.

The family was dining out at the time the robbery occurred. The thieves gained entrance to the house by prying up a window with a "Jimmie." Then they ransacked every room in the house, taking several sets of wash cloths, a gold bracelet set with three large diamonds, a cameo pin, a pearl necklace, a pocketbook containing about $150 in bills and gold, two bank checks, a white dinner set of solid silver engraved with the family monogram, a fine alligator suit case belonging to Dr. Kerr, a big pile of fine linens, silk lace and other articles.

The burglars ruined an enormous sideboard by cracking and cutting the top to pieces in opening it. Mrs. Kerr's wardrobe was looted, and the thieves got away with all of her best dresses, including several silk skirts, evening gowns, an opera cloak, valuable furs and silk waists.

The only thing of value that could be carried away and was not taken by the burglar was a sterling silver tea set, valued at $250, which was a wedding present. The solid silver dinner set was wrapped up in separate pieces, in dresses and cloths, and was thought to be safely hidden in the clothes press, but the robbers overhauled it.

It is believed that the robbers must have been surprised as they left a number of linen tablecloths spread out on the parlor floor, with several articles laid on top ready to roll up into a bundle.

BURGLAR RECALLED ANGRY.

Mrs. R. S. Robertson, who is Mrs. Kerr's mother, and lives at the corner of Second South and Eleventh East streets, thinks that she met one of the burglars while she was coming from her place on her way to Dr. Kerr's home. She says that the man was carrying a red table cloth, such as was taken from the kitchen, and that it was rolled up in his arms in a large bundle. Mrs. Robertson thinks that he came to apologize, such a sight on Sunday night, and followed the man to a point on Tenth East street between Seventh and Eighth South streets, where he finally turned on her and angrily demanded why she was following him. Mrs. Robertson replied that she thought it suspicious that a man should be carrying a table cloth full of stuff on Sunday night, and that he was probably in the darkness under a bridge close by.

In spite of the fact that the police were immediately notified after the burglary had been discovered, the robbers have not been captured.

A private safe may be rented in the Salt Lake Security & Trust Co., 32-34 Main street, $2.00 per year.

FEAST OF ALL SAINTS.

Entire Catholic World Today Is Celebrating the Annual Event.

The entire Catholic world, including the members of that faith in Salt Lake City, today celebrates the Feast of All Saints. The Catholic church throughout the world, including the United States, observes this day in honor of the saints.

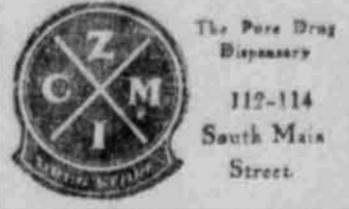

An interesting history attaches to this feast, which date back to the commencement of the seventh century. At that time there was a temple in Rome known as the Pantheon, built by the pagans and dedicated to the worship of all the pagan mythological deities. After the downfall of paganism, the Christians took possession of the Pantheon, and in the year 609 A.D. Pope Boniface IV dedicated it to the service of the Almighty in the names of the virgin and all the saints. Soon after the Feast of All Saints was celebrated throughout the entire Christian world, and is now observed among its most sacred feasts.

Quick Delivery A FEATURE

Thirty teams are at our service, visiting each part of the city four times daily.

In addition, our own messenger boys take care of special prescription deliveries.

PHONES 148.

HALF A MILLION FOR SCHOOL BONDS

Proposition to Vote on Issue for New High School Building Comes Up Nov. 9.

At the next regular meeting of the board of education, to be held Nov. 9, resolutions providing for the submission to the people of the proposition to vote for $500,000 in bonds for the purpose of erecting a new central high school building, will be presented to the board for adoption.

President J. T. Hammond of the board and Mathison Thomas were appointed a sub-committee to draft such resolutions, at a meeting of the board Saturday afternoon. The resolutions will be preliminary and when adopted by the board the foundation will be laid for further proceedings in the matter.

Architect R. Kleeting is now working on plans for a building to be erected in the neighborhood of $400,000, which sum is estimated sufficient to erect the new school high school building in the community, and the remaining $100,000 will be ample to purchase a site and furnish the building in an up-to-date manner.

The members of the committee were of the unanimous opinion that the matter of voting the bonds should be brought before the people at the earliest possible moment, and that the arrangements should be made so that the matter might be placed before the people in the papers rapidly each day, and went to bed early, nearly every night, tired out.

His source of information about politics—on the back end of a street car—is unquestioned.

"The average passenger ought to know something about the sewer down there yet and the three installments on the special tax is now due. It is a right thing to do."

"There are boasting about the sewers they've laid but I understand about 20 miles of them can't be used yet until the main sewer on the west side is fixed and it has cost a bunch of money, too."

FOR THE "AMERICANS."

The bartender had a couple of men off at one end of the bar talking politics. "The Americans" have given us a good administration this last year.

"Business is picking up, the bar has been taken off the slot machines, and—"

"Give me a quarter's worth of nickels," a young fellow said as he entered the saloon.

"The game will be fine after election," he said, after waiting on the young fellow who was busily engaged in feeding the slot machine. The young fellow broke into a smile during the conversation.

"With a few more bad breaks like the intercepting sewer and the like, these politicians who are running things down in the city and county building will put this town on the bum."

"There are a lot of these fellows on South Temple street that's got plenty of goods that are ripping the "Americans" up the back for the way they have been doing things. When you find these fellows kicking, you can depend upon it that there is something rotten in Denmark."

"I've been thinking over the proposition for a day or two and I believe I'll vote the fusion ticket."

DESERET EVENING NEWS MONDAY NOVEMBER 1 1909

LOUDING OF THE SILENT VOTE

Some Haphazard Sentiments of The Casual Voter Caught On the Streets.

SENTIMENT ON "AMERICANS"

Administration Criticized for Its Errors of Commission and Omission Generally.

The silent vote—the implement of political warfare—is being sounded today. With pencil and tab, the political sharpshooter old and new—are attempting to figure out what effect the suspense unbottled in this campaign has had and which way the vote will go. The merchants, bankers, brokers, contractors, real estate dealers and other business men have taken an active interest in the campaign and have decided what is to their best interest to follow. Many of them have had a voice in the issues which have been raised and presented to the people.

In most elections it is the silent voter which decides the contest, the politicians say. It is made up of the industrial classes whose daily labor prohibits them from taking an active part in politics. The candidates and their adherents are not interested in the issues in the cause of this vote and now it is under searching investigation to find which way it has gone.

"How are you going to vote tomorrow?" inquired the barkeeper as he was lathering up his customer's face with the soap. "The "American" party," said a teamster who was unbuttoning his teamster's coat, "is being sounded to figure out what effect the suspense unbottled in this campaign has had and which way the vote will go. The merchants, bankers, brokers, contractors, real estate dealers and other business men have taken an active interest in the campaign and have decided what is to their best interest to follow. Many of them have had a voice in the issues which have been raised and presented to the people.

"If you will come down and look at the sidewalk in front of my place, I can soon tell you. I live down in the southeastern part of the city and happen to be in sidewalk extension No. 1. I think that I have the most interested piece of sidewalk in the city. The sidewalk is in good shape and it sounds like walking over a drumhead. I've had to pay cold cash for it and I didn't get my money's worth and there are several others in the same fix. I think the "American" party is about done for this time."

"The man had been here by an open sewer trench on Second West and Eighth South," replied the customer and I have had about enough of that kind of work. We haven't been able to connect with the sewer down there yet and the third installment on the special tax is now due. It is a right thing to do."

"They are boasting about the sewers they've laid but I understand about 20 miles of them can't be used yet until the main sewer on the west side is fixed and it has cost a bunch of money, too."

"Give me a quarter's worth of nickels," a young fellow said as he entered the saloon.

"The game will be fine after election," he said, after waiting on the young fellow who was busily engaged in feeding the slot machine. The young fellow broke into a smile during the conversation.

"With a few more bad breaks like the intercepting sewer and the like, these politicians who are running things down in the city and county building will put this town on the bum."

"There are a lot of these fellows on South Temple street that's got plenty of goods that are ripping the "Americans" up the back for the way they have been doing things. When you find these fellows kicking, you can depend upon it that there is something rotten in Denmark."

"I've been thinking over the proposition for a day or two and I believe I'll vote the fusion ticket."

PEACE HUNTERS ACTIVE.

The bartender had a couple of men off at one end of the bar talking politics. "The Americans" have given us a good administration this last year.

"Business is picking up, the bar has been taken off the slot machines, and—"

"Give me a quarter's worth of nickels," a young fellow said as he entered the saloon.

"The game will be fine after election," he said, after waiting on the young fellow who was busily engaged in feeding the slot machine. The young fellow broke into a smile during the conversation.

"With a few more bad breaks like the intercepting sewer and the like, these politicians who are running things down in the city and county building will put this town on the bum."

"There are a lot of these fellows on South Temple street that's got plenty of goods that are ripping the "Americans" up the back for the way they have been doing things. When you find these fellows kicking, you can depend upon it that there is something rotten in Denmark."

"I've been thinking over the proposition for a day or two and I believe I'll vote the fusion ticket."

RETURNS BY TELEPHONE.

Ask for "Elections Bureau." Bell telephone, for election news Tuesday evening.

EARTHQUAKE RECORDED.

The state university seismograph recorded a fairly well defined earthquake at 3:25 a.m. Sunday, the wave traveling along an east to west line, coming, it is believed, from a distance of several hundred miles.

BOYS MUST GO TO SCHOOL.

From this time on to the close of the year all children of school age must attend school, according to the announcement made by Alma C. Clayton, trustee officer. "The law requires that all children between the ages of 8 and 16 years shall attend school at least 20 weeks in the school year," said Mr. Clayton. "After lecture you'll be able to get anything you want from a game of craps to manslaughter in this town."

"Shine, your next."

BOYS MUST GO TO SCHOOL.

Ask for "Elections Bureau." Bell telephone, for election news Tuesday evening.

EARTHQUAKE RECORDED.

The state university seismograph recorded a fairly well defined earthquake at 3:25 a.m. Sunday, the wave traveling along an east to west line, coming, it is believed, from a distance of several hundred miles.

BOYS MUST GO TO SCHOOL.

From this time on to the close of the year all children of school age must attend school, according to the announcement made by Alma C. Clayton, trustee officer. "The law requires that all children between the ages of 8 and 16 years shall attend school at least 20 weeks in the school year," said Mr. Clayton. "After lecture you'll be able to get anything you want from a game of craps to manslaughter in this town."

"Shine, your next."

BOYS MUST GO TO SCHOOL.

Ask for "Elections Bureau." Bell telephone, for election news Tuesday evening.

EARTHQUAKE RECORDED.

The state university seismograph recorded a fairly well defined earthquake at 3:25 a.m. Sunday, the wave traveling along an east to west line, coming, it is believed, from a distance of several hundred miles.

BOYS MUST GO TO SCHOOL.

Ask for "Elections Bureau." Bell telephone, for election news Tuesday evening.

EARTHQUAKE RECORDED.

The state university seismograph recorded a fairly well defined earthquake at 3:25 a.m. Sunday, the wave traveling along an east to west line, coming, it is believed, from a distance of several hundred miles.

BOYS MUST GO TO SCHOOL.

Ask for "Elections Bureau." Bell telephone, for election news Tuesday evening.

EARTHQUAKE RECORDED.

The state university seismograph recorded a fairly well defined earthquake at 3:25 a.m. Sunday, the wave traveling along an east to west line, coming, it is believed, from a distance of several hundred miles.

BOYS MUST GO TO SCHOOL.

Ask for "Elections Bureau." Bell telephone, for election news Tuesday evening.

EARTHQUAKE RECORDED.

The state university seismograph recorded a fairly well defined earthquake at 3:25 a.m. Sunday, the wave traveling along an east to west line, coming, it is believed, from a distance of several hundred miles.

BOYS MUST GO TO SCHOOL.

Ask for "Elections Bureau." Bell telephone, for election news Tuesday evening.

EARTHQUAKE RECORDED.

The state university seismograph recorded a fairly well defined earthquake at 3:25 a.m. Sunday, the wave traveling along an east to west line, coming, it is believed, from a distance of several hundred miles.

BOYS MUST GO TO SCHOOL.

Ask for "Elections Bureau." Bell telephone, for election news Tuesday evening.

EARTHQUAKE RECORDED.

The state university seismograph recorded a fairly well defined earthquake at 3:25 a.m. Sunday, the wave traveling along an east to west line, coming, it is believed, from a distance of several hundred miles.

BOYS MUST GO TO SCHOOL.

Ask for "Elections Bureau." Bell telephone, for election news Tuesday evening.

EARTHQUAKE RECORDED.

The state university seismograph recorded a fairly well defined earthquake at 3:25 a.m. Sunday, the wave traveling along an east to west line, coming, it is believed, from a distance of several hundred miles.

BOYS MUST GO TO SCHOOL.

&lt;p