Y. L. M. I. A. FAIR.

Our local fair, gotten up by the Y. L. M. I. association, in the city pavilion opened up last evening with a very large attendance, and the exhibits are very creditable and worthy of praise. The Utah Sugar company's display calls forth a great deal of comment and especially are the farmers taken up with the solls and products thereof of the Bear River valley, and many are inves-tigating on what conditions they can secure farms in that valley. The young ladies fancy work deserves special men tion, and also the paintings. The curlo department attracted a great deal of attention, and the floral display, under the supervision of Chas.
