

NEWS OF THE WEST.

A Runaway Accident at Hoytville on Decoration Day.

A VERDICT OF SUICIDE.

Work on the Marysville Reservoir Progressing—Howard Offered for the Slaves of Harvey Bath.

The water supply of the Chino (Cal.) pipe factory is being increased so as to give an additional supply of 1,500,000 gallons daily.

At a meeting of the business men of Cheyenne, Wyo., held to consider a proposition of a Pennsylvania firm to furnish a steel and iron manufactory in that city, a committee was appointed to visit McKeesport, Pa., and secure necessary information for consideration of the matter.

A reward of $4,000, says the Utah (Wyo.) Herald, is offered for the arrest and conviction of information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the party or parties who killed Edward Smith, at his home in Evanston, Wyo., on the evening of Saturday, January 18, 1895.

In a runaway accident on the Moonshine Road near Arrow, Utah, last night, a horse-drawn wagon, driven by Allen, a local settler, and carrying a large number of cattle, was overturned, and the driver and several of the cattle were killed.

Swallowing on Decoration Day may be a strange position to eastern people, but it is not so with the people of the West. A local settler, who was known as the "Swallowing Man," was seen on the road to the Temple City on Wednesday morning. The storm kept up for most of the day, and the heavy rain was reported by the people.

At the request of the friends of Harvey Bath, who was found dead May 15th at Los Angeles, Cal., with a bullet hole through the head and one through the heart, and with a pistol in his hand, the jury brought a verdict of suicide, and W. H. Bath, who had been arrested on suspicion of having murdered Bath, was released.

Mount Pleasant, Ariz., From information it is evident that the Grand Canyon is not only intended to be a great attraction, but to be a source of revenue. It has just been announced that the United States Government has purchased the Grand Canyon, and will build a road through it, which will bring the first of the great canyon to the world.

J. H. Wendt, a man in the employ of Mr. Raymond, was leaving town, says the Dallas, Mont., Tribune, and was driving a horse-drawn wagon, which was overturned, and the driver and several of the cattle were killed.

During the heavy windstorm Monday, says the Mount Pleasant, Ariz., Tribune, a horse-drawn wagon, which was carrying a large number of cattle, was overturned, and the driver and several of the cattle were killed.

The wind-busting excitement, as it is called, is going along merrily in the city, and the people are beginning to get used to it. The wind is blowing from the west, and the people are beginning to get used to it.

Suma Press. Work on the Marysville Reservoir is going along merrily, and it is expected that the work on the dam will be completed about July 1st. A force of about thirty men are working on the dam, and the work is going along merrily.
