All that is necessary to show that the movement to close the saloons on Sunday and to enforce the ordinances against gambling, is not a party question-that is, that one party is in favor or against, in contradistinction to the other-is to quote planks from the platforms adopted by the Republican and Democratic conventions in October of last year, prior to the municipal campaign. It will be observed that both parties went on record in emphatic manner for peace and order at that time. It was one of the strong issues of the campaign. There is no reason to believe that the rank and file of either party have changed their views since then. The law and order planks, of each party follow:

REPUBLICAN AND DEMOCRATIC PLATFORMS ON SUNDAY SALOONS AND GAMBLING.

The history of the Republican party, national, state and city, has been one of law and order, a conservator of public morals and peace, by the promulgation and enforcement of law.

We approve the action of the Republican administration in suppressing gambling houses, and in closing saloons on Sunday; and we pledge the Republican nominees to the enforcement of the laws and ordinances for the preservation of public morals. We denounce the action of the Democratic party in its persistent and wilful effort to mislead the public as to facts and to bring discredit on the name of our fair municipality.
