Chinese Gamblers. The Chinese are predisposed to indulge in games of chance. On Monday night a couple of policemen entered one of these gambling dens, on Commercial street, and found a number of Chinese gamblers engaged in that kind of business. There were two or three dozen Chinamen in the room and the gamblers resorted to the old dodge of withdrawing from the table and mixing up promiscuously with the crowd, so that the keenest Caucasian discriminator could not tell "kicker from which." In this predicament the officers, finding that Ah Tie was the proprietor of the establishment, arrested him on a charge of keeping a gambling house.

Notice. To all the Bishops throughout the settlements. Brethren—It is pretty generally known that Bro. D. W. Jones was appointed to gather means for the purpose of publishing the Book of Mormon in the Spanish language. A portion of the means donated has been collected. Bro. Jones and company have stayed on their mission. There are still considerable means necessary to liquidate the debt already incurred, and we would respectfully urge the matter upon the attention of all who are interested in the cause of the Latter-day work, to assist in meeting these liabilities, that there may be no interruption of a lasting blessing may accrue to those for whom benefit this labor has been undertaken. Donations will be received in anything that can be made available, in this manner, which please forward as soon as possible to the General Tithing Store, Salt Lake City.
