OGDEN, UTAH, - July 11, 1894.

DYING OUT.
Planes of the Strikers Being Filled—Arrests.

The strike at Ogden is gradually dying out and a great number of men who have been out of employment for some time are now seeking jobs on the railroad. All the trains are running regularly on the U. P. and B. & O. W. The Southern Pacific will make its attempt to run trains until sufficient troops are placed along the line to insure the safety of the passengers and to avoid any delay in getting through. About seven hundred strikers have been arrested for conspiracy since the territorial order was made permanent by Judge Miller and several others are in jail at their leaders. Robert Murray, president of the A. R. U., was placed under $100 bonds and F. D. Casey $15,000. The majority of those arrested have been able to secure bondmen; those who have not will remain in the county jail to await their hearing. F. D. Casey and several others charged with having set the house of the air hose on the B. & O. W. train which would have gone to Salt Lake on the morning of the 4th of July. He was put under $1,000 bonds.

There will probably be no trouble in securing all the men necessary to operate the strike and on train service even if the management should refuse to take back a single striker.

For Assault.
Sylvester in the county jail, because unable to procure bondmen. He was arrested on a charge of assault and battery, and is said to have been joined in with the gang of strikers who in his hotel and constantly a member of the banditti. The rumors about the city that an arrest had been made of the parties who cut the hose in front of the store, building on the night of the 15th or 16th. A reward of $500 is offered by Ogden City for the arrest and conviction of the party or parties who cut the hose in front of the store, building on the night of the 15th or 16th.

Mineral guard is kept at the Union depot by the soldiers, no one being allowed to go out without showing proof of identity to the guard.

Good work is being done by the police of Ogden City in gathering in the year and carrying it to the streets. Two yags and one drunk was the record last night.

Who Did You See?
Jack, an Irish settler whose house is in Maryland, has the regular duty of bringing the mail from the letter box at the gate, the house standing well back from the road. His family were out-ripping a two-wheeled sled to New York and proposed sending Jack to the country during their absence. Jack's wishes to the matter were not consulted, and he was not invited to take part in the excursion, but that he followed was proved by his actions. It was decided to start on a Tuesday evening, provided a letter was received by the morning's mail. It did not come, however, so in the afternoon, when Jack brought up a whole batch, and to his satisfaction some left home. Several days passed. Then a telegram came inquiring what was the matter. An exchange of letters disclosed the fact that the printed letter was written and should have been received when expected. A search, into which Jack was impressed, much against his will, discovered the missing letter hidden in a basket, and it was unmistakable evidence that Jack had placed it there.

Now, it is said to be supposed that Jack could read or distinguish handwriting, so his keen nose must have recognized the writer, who was a frequent visitor of whom he was very fond, but only from listening to the talk could he have connected that person with the plans for departure. This is the only instance of Jack ever betraying a trust, but the capacity entered was so great that confidence in him was increased toward of increased by H. Deseret's Magazine.

Can a Man do Better Than to Buy a "STEARNS!"

We made the bold statement, challenging contradiction, in last week's Tribune, that the Stearns Bicycle was the highest priced bicycle in the market—the highest priced bicycle in the world. Have any of the agents of other wheels accepted the challenge? Not one. They know that we have the proof. We know by a dollar what every wheel sold in this city, and within a long list of the cities. We are giving the ideas better value for their dollars in the Stearns, Fowler, Gendron, Waverly.

Naupaka Notes.
Manti is putting on metropolitan size shoes, as the district court and the summer school help to cultivate that beautiful form.

The people of Ephraim will not soon forget the grand reunion on August 12, 1894, held by Hon. R. H. Roberts on July 4, 1894. The new road to Castle Valley is now open to travel, and we already can hear our mother's laughter. Crops are looking fine, and will yield well, but the water supply is fast giving out, and more are estimated that some of the grain will be sacrificed.

The "Globe" has a fine article in its issue of yesterday, entitled "The People of Ephraim," which is a very interesting and timely article, as some of our merchants have just given in a car load from the trouble on so.

Several hundred pounds of carp and catfish have been caught in the Naupaka river, and the fish are in good condition. The fish are in good condition. The fish are in good condition.
