

JIMMIE, THE BULL, DIES IN NEW YORK.

Supposed to be Scapegrace Son of A Former Judge of the Supreme Court.

MYSTERIOUS MOURNERS THERE

Drop Bank Notes Into the Battered Cup
Placed to Receive Contributions
For Expenses.

New York, Sept. 7.—Dying, as he had lived, a mystery to the denizens of Mulberry Bend and Chinatown, "Jimmie the Bull," who gave his name to the police a few days ago as James Murray, but who is believed by his closest cronies to have been the scapegrace son of a former judge of the supreme court who once lived in Brooklyn, will be buried tomorrow afternoon by those among whom he lived.

It is not their contributions alone which will pay the expenses of his funeral. As his body lay in a casket in a Mulberry street undertaking shop, the past of "Jimmie the Bull" was wrapped with further mystery when they left dropped two bank notes into the battered cup which stood at the head of the casket.

No one could be found who knew "Jimmie" by any other name, although for a dozen years he had spent his life in the space of two or three blocks. In the space of two or three blocks, he received an income from some source but of recent years his income was irregular. When the news of his death spread through the Bowery hundreds of his miserable comrades visited the room where his body lay and as each one passed pennies, nickels and dimes fell into the cup to pay for the funeral.

THE COUNTY SCHOOLS.

The System of Fines as Applied to the Mutilation of Free Text Books.

A meeting of the school trustees of the county was held in County Superintendent Ashton's office on Saturday, at which the introduction of free text books was discussed, and it was decided that a uniform system of fines be adopted for the mutilation or misuse of the books by the pupils. It was decided that the teachers throughout the county would be given the privilege of attending the State Teacher's association on Oct. 6, 7 and 8. If they attended the association they will be allowed to close their schools and be paid full pay for the time, otherwise they will have to keep their schools open during the time the association is in session. This is the rule adopted in a number of other counties as follows: The trustees authorized Supt. Ashton to advertise for bids for furnishing school supplies for the year, other than text-books.

TRIP THAT PAID.

Ten Miles to Get a Package of Postum.

Some sufferers won't turn over a hand to help themselves but there are others to whom health is worth something. A German woman living in the country made a 10 mile trip to get a package of Postum. She was well repaid, for brought health and happiness in return.

A translation of the good frau's letter says: "From a child I had been used to drinking coffee daily but the longer I continued drinking it the worse I felt. I suffered with heart trouble, headaches and dizziness. Then I had such an uneasy feeling around my heart that I often thought death to be near."

"I gave up drinking coffee and tried hotwater but that did not taste good and I did not get well. Then I read some letters from people who had been helped by Postum Food Coffee and I determined to try it."

"I had to go 10 miles, to get a package but I went. I prepared it carefully according to directions and we have used it now in our family for nearly two years, drinking it twice a day. It agrees well with all of us. My heart and bowel troubles slowly but surely disappeared. It is seldom that I ever have a headache, my nerves are steady and strong again and I am otherwise strong and well. My husband has been lately cured of his sick headaches since we threw coffee out of our home and have used Postum. Name furnished by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich."

HUSBAND HELD FOR SHOOTING.

A Sensational Charge Preferred
Against Man Prominent in Society of Los Angeles.

A MILLIONAIRE UNDER ARREST.

Col. Griffith, However, Denies His Wife's Assertion that He Attempted to Kill Her Last Thursday.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 6.—Col. Griffith J. Griffith, a millionaire resident of this city and a member of the board of park commissioners, has been arrested on the charge of assaulting his wife, with murderous intent. Mrs. Griffith is in a hospital, suffering from the effects of a pistol shot wound in the head and a compound fracture of the shoulder blade.

She was shot last Thursday evening in her room at a Santa Monica hotel, where she, with her husband and 15-year-old son, had been spending the summer.

In her statement to the district attorney, Mrs. Griffith said her husband shot her after forcing her to answer, at the pistol's point, some irrational questions as to her faithfulness and knowledge of an attempt to poison him.

When he shot her she was on her knees. She jumped up and ran to a window, out of which she jumped, falling on a roof some 14 feet below, fracturing her shoulder blade. Mrs. Griffith wanted a charge of insanity preferred against her husband.

Col. Griffith insists that his wife was wounded accidentally. He was bending over a trunk, according to his story, when he heard the report of the revolver and turned to see Mrs. Griffith fall to the floor. The weapon, he says, was one of his own, which Mrs. Griffith came across in gathering together their effects for packing.

How it was discharged Col. Griffith does not know, as he asserts that his back was turned. He denied that there was any possible cause for a quarrel between himself and Mrs. Griffith, and declares that reports of his having fired the shot are absolutely unfounded.

THE COLLEGE DEDICATED.

Impressive Exercises at All Hallows—
Fine Musical Program.

The fine new building of All Hallows college was dedicated yesterday afternoon, with appropriate dedicatory exercises presided over by Bishop Scanlan. There was preaching by Rev. Father Harding of New Orleans, a musical program under the direction of Prof. Pedersen, and the bishop made the closing remarks. The exercises were held in the chapel which was filled by an appreciative audience including Protestant citizens as well as Catholic. In his sermon, Father Harding spoke eloquently on the meaning of dedicatory service, and said he would call for the influence of the saints gone before to whom the college was dedicated, that their benedictions might be with the institution. The speaker paid a high compliment to Bishop Scanlan the founder of All Hallows college, and then referred to the scope of the college work, and what the Marist fathers are doing in training boys to become good citizens, fitting them for the various vocations and calling in life, as well as attending to the needs of the soul.

The bishop gave a short and instructive address and spoke of the progress made by the college, and the increase of its facilities for imparting instruction. He made a point that it is necessary to have God in the college work and administration to ensure success. The musical program included "Ave Maria" by Miss Renni Petersen; Dr. J. Lewis Browne's "Evermore and Evermore," a baritone solo by Charles Kent; "Ave Maria" by Francis Thome, a violin solo by Arthur Pedersen, and the hymn, "Holy God, We Bless Thy Name," by Miss Peterson, Miss Lulu Penrose, Mrs. Broome, Charles Kent, A. H. Peabody and Thomas Ashworth. Prof. McClellan presiding at the organ, Prof. Pedersen performing on the viola and Arthur Pedersen on the violin.

The entire musical part of the service was artistically presented and enjoyed by the audience.

The efforts of Miss Pedersen was particularly noticeable for its excellence and that of the sextet occasioned much favorable comment. Among the clergymen present and assisting were President J. J. Gulman and Vice President Murphy of the college, Rev. Father George Harding, Chavue, Roser, Walter, Estes and Myer. The occasion was a notable one in the history of the institution.

ROMANTIC MARRIAGE.

Salt Lake Colored Girl and Arizona Barber Principles in It.

The marriage of Mrs. Marie Howell, a talented young colored girl of this city, to Mr. George W. Brogg, a colored barber of Tucson, Ariz., which occurred at the latter place several days ago, was the culmination of a rather romantic courtship, which, up to the day of the wedding, was carried on by correspondence only. Mr. Brogg, editor of the Utah Plain Dealer, is responsible for the match, as he it was who brought back from Tucson the photograph of Mr. Brogg, which when shown to Miss Howell, made a decided impression and led to the making of arrangements for a correspondence between the two young people, which resulted finally in their marriage.

The romance began about a year ago, when Mr. Taylor returned from Tucson with Mr. Brogg's picture. A correspondence was started between Miss Howell and Mr. Brogg which lasted until several days ago when she departed presumably for Honolulu. Instead of going across the water, however, she stopped at Tucson where she was married to the man whom she had only known by photograph and correspondence. The bride is the daughter of L. M. Howell, and is quite an artist as well as a scholar. Her family is said to be well educated, and she has a brother who is now studying law in the east.

THE DELINEATOR FOR OCTOBER

and its issuance answers squarely the question of supremacy among the magazines for woman and the home. In your selection of a magazine you may choose from two classes—those you need and those you read for recreation—or else you take THE DELINEATOR and combine both. If the word "necessary" is susceptible of a superlative, THE DELINEATOR is beyond all question the "most necessary" of all the magazines published for Woman.

Nine hundred thousand families proved this to be so last month; and each month brings its new thousands of members into the ever growing DELINEATOR FAMILY.

Among the fashions it is the "most necessary" because it is all the fashion magazines in one, with their mistakes eliminated, their exaggerations corrected, and the really successful novelties stamped with the seal of authoritative approval, for if it is pictured in THE DELINEATOR it is "good form." It is equally the "most necessary" in the Nursery, in the Sewing-Room, in the Kitchen, throughout the whole house and out-of-doors, in city and in country. The partial list of contents below can only hint at the interest underlying every line.

The Evolution of a Club Woman, by Agnes Surbridge, begins in this number. It is an autobiography and is the predicted success of the year. J.C. Hemment, the world-famed camera expert, begins one of the most remarkable series of photographic articles ever presented. They relate to his personal adventures at home and in foreign lands. The Silent Partner, by Lynn Roby Meekins; A Florida Cracker, by Virginia Frazer Boyle, are prominent among the fiction features, while the departments are fuller than usual of good things, with especial interest centering in the children's pages.

If the "most necessary" of the magazines for Woman is that one which helps most in every hour of "her" day and brings its "after-hour of fascinating leisure-reading" when the day is over, then, surely
