

FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

Remember the concert in the 15th Ward Hall to-night.

Concert in the 14th Ward Assembly Hall to-morrow evening.

Some people who think they need a little relaxation get off and get right.

Meeting of the Home Missionaries of the Salt Lake Stake at the Council House at 7 o'clock, this evening.

Yesterday afternoon we received a letter from Prof. H. S. Perkins, just as we was on the point of leaving for the West.

We are pleased to state that Judge Perkins has so far recovered that he is able to perform his duties in the Justice's Court to-day.

The gang of tramps, cornered by Mr. W. P. St. Clair and others, on Monday evening, numbered thirteen.

Death appears to have died in Bear Lake Valley, with the exception of one or two light cases in Bloomington.—Bear Lake Democrat.

Charles Reben, the boy who was fearfully injured accidentally at the Sierra Nevada lumber yard on Monday, died last night, shortly before 11 o'clock.

Never let a lamp when it is burning, never let him shoot at you who thinks it isn't loaded; never smoke a keg of powder; never try to get an express train off the track.

Yesterday Prof. Perkins, the musical musician, stated to us that the Tabernacle choir was not surprised by any body of characters in Chicago. This is a genuine compliment from one of the best musical authorities in the country.

Last night the tramps made an attempt to enter the bee hives in this city. This time it was the honey comb of Mr. J. D. Stephens, 25th Street, opposite the City Hall. The thieves emptied three hives, took away the honey and left the empty cases behind.—Ogden Herald.

There are indications that the Utah Pacific Railroad Company has decided to hold the Denver & Salt Lake City R.R. It is further stated that the April election of officers will demonstrate the fact. In all cases it is apparent that the railway in Utah is end-for-end.

Mr. Fillmore, an extensive cattle raiser on the Laramie Plains, and at one time a division superintendent of the Union Pacific, is visiting Utah for the purpose of shipping cattle to this place. The present high price of beef warrants the shipment of cattle west instead of east. What next?

Yesterday quite a commotion was caused in our community by the rumor that the old dam, fences and school at the back of the "sisters" ward had been saturated with coal oil. The discovery was made by one of the sisters. Inquiry made among the scholars failed to elicit any information as to how the oil came there, and the generally accepted theory is that it was the result of some one of the incendiaries who have lately been at work in our city.—Laramie Times.

Local and Other Matters.

Notice.—Meeting of the Committee on Thursday evening, March 30, at the Council House at 7 o'clock, sharp.

C. W. PENROSE.

Board of Trade.—The monthly meeting of the Salt Lake Board of Trade will be held in the Council House, Friday evening, March 31st, at 7 o'clock.

JOHN C. CUTLER, Secy.

Illustrated Periodicals.—We have the live establishment of J. M. Dwyer, Publisher, for March 28, which cuts with a keen blade, and contains a pungent paragraph, prominent public follies; Harper's Weekly for March 25th; and Leslie's for the same date.

The Long Expected Consumption.—The new railroad between the coal beds in the vicinity of Wadsworth, Sanpete County, is completed, and the trains are now running regularly between the two points named, the fare for passage being $1.25. The line passes in close proximity to Fountain Green.

Building Materials, Etc.—The movement of the long-established Chicago firm of Palmer, Fuller & Co., centers in each door and window, moulding, mantels, stairs, etc., appears in our columns. The sale of this well known house are kept by the largest lumber dealers of this city and Ogden.

Sheep and Wool.—Sheep husbandry has proved quite successful this winter. Many of the numerous flocks are coming in from their winter ranges. Wool growers are satisfied with the condition of their herds and the prospect of a good crop, and hope to get a fair price. There is a rumor of a wool union to make any effort that may be made to reduce prices below an equitable standard.

Remanded.—A short time ago a colored woman named Hattie Mansfield was sentenced in the police court to pay a fine of $25, for keeping an epidemic den. Not being able to pay the money she was imprisoned for twenty-five days.

This morning she was taken before Judge Hunter, on a writ of habeas corpus obtained by ex-Asst. Justice O. F. Strickland. After hearing the arguments Judge Hunter very sensibly sent the prisoner back to the custody of the city authorities, whose action in the premises he sustained.

Federal Services.—The obsequies of Elder William Hopwood were conducted at the 17th Ward School house, at 1 p. m. yesterday. Elder George W. Dufford offered the opening prayer, and Elder C. W. Penrose delivered a discourse suited to the occasion. Remarks were also made by Elder Robert Dunt, David James, James Dwyer and Richard Deane. The benediction was pronounced by Bishop Tingey. The deceased was identified with the 17th Ward Sunday school as "Mrs. A. A. Hopwood." A large number of the scholars and teachers were present. The assembly completely filled the house.

FRONTIER TRAGEDIES.

BLOODY SCENES IN THE VICINITY OF THE ATLANTIC AND PACIFIC RAILROAD.

A few days ago Mr. B. Y. Hampton, Jr., returned from Arizona having been in that part of the country nearly a year conducting a saddle and harness shop for John W. Young, Esq. He says that along the line of the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad in that part of the country, matters are as rough as need be, scarcely a day passing that does not witness some scene of blood and violence.

About the time of Mr. Hampton's leaving that part of the country three roughs entered Flagstaff, a small place which boasts 16 or 20 buildings, and commenced running the town. Deputy Sheriff E. Whipple, a young man about 25, raised a posse of seven and started after the trio. The latter ambushed, and opening a sudden fusillade on the pursuing party killed five of them—including Whipple—and wounded the remaining three. This is probably the affair that gave rise to the rumor that reached Kanab a short time since, to the effect that several of the brethren had been killed.

Another recent tragedy occurred at Hockett Mining Camp, about four miles from the line of the railroad. A desperado known as "Buckskin Joe" was in a saloon when a young man who had been hauling hay from one of the settlements on Salt River, and was about to leave for home, entered. Without any provocation "Joe" shot and killed him on the spot. Parties on the outside in turn immediately shot "Joe," and while he was in a dying condition put a rope around his neck and strung him up. The person from Salt River who was murdered was a young man named Bullock.

A Singular Character.—This morning officers A. Smith and W. Salmon had a writ placed in their hands for the arrest of a person of peculiar habits, who occupies a shanty on the Tenth Ward Square. This piece of ground is leased from the city by Mr. Andrew T. Case, who rented the house to the party whom the officers are after. Mr. Case made several unsuccessful attempts to evict him, for non-payment of rent. Last night he asked George Toole to serve the necessary writ on him. Going to the house Mr. Rose was greeted by having a gun stuck out of the window at him. Pushing the firearm aside he threw the paper into the house and retreated.

When Rose reached the sidewalk, the belligerent occupant of the place, who had followed him, set upon him with a club, with which he gave him a terrible beating about the head, inflicting some ugly wounds, and causing a good deal of blood to flow. The wounds were dressed by Dr. Hamilton.

We are informed that this strange person, whose name we did not learn, does not work, generally remaining in the house in the daytime and going out at night.

Since the above was written the man has been arrested. The manner of his capture was as follows: Officer Salmon approached the house alone and found the man outside repairing a little wagon. Not thinking that Mr. Salmon was on officer, he recounted with great glee the circumstances of his attack upon Rose; how he made the club bounce from his head; how his victim fell, and arose covered with blood, etc.

Mr. Smith appeared on the scene, when the party said he would not be taken. The officers seized him, when he gave Mr. Smith a couple of tremendous kicks in the abdomen, and another on the hand, and also hurt Mr. Salmon's hand. He was overpowered, however, and finally landed in jail. He said if he had known they were policemen, he would have prepared them a more vigorous reception.

Theatre.—Marie Gelstinger, who will make her first appearance in this city to-morrow evening, is an artist of great renown, and since her first appearance in America has won a reputation from both press and public wherever she has appeared.

Her tour of the United States has been one of the most successful, both artistically and financially, of any artist for years. The latest in her repertoire, while playing operatic parts, such as Boccaccio, Helena, Rosalind, Grand Duchesse, etc., she is equally as great in dramatic parts. Her company has been pronounced by the eastern press as superior to any other company.

Adrienne Lecocq is also her great part and in company, "The Street Fair of Paris," "The Boatmen's Song" and other plays are particularly her own. The lady is supported by one of the best organizations traveling, consisting of 30 artists from the Theatre Francaise, all under the management of Mr. Gustav Amberg.

The three comedians, Messrs. Schultzy, Lube and Jankel, have been pronounced by the San Francisco press as the best ever appearing in that city. Mrs. Babery, the leading support, has a wonderfully pure voice, and has been compared to Cary and Kellogg. Messrs. Steiner and Leiser are the tenors, Mr. Meyers, Baritone, Mrs. Lube, heavy parts and Miss Schultzy is soprano.

Mr. E. R. Lombke is treasurer, Mr. A. Nowak is thorough musician and artist is conductor, and Mr. Max Lube, formerly a great favorite on the Pacific Coast, is the stage manager. Mr. Louis A. Morgan, formerly a long time connected with the San Francisco Theatre, is the Agent of the company, and is at present in the city looking after their interests.

Clark Eldridge & Co.—To-day the new firm of Clark, Eldridge & Co. opened business in the Hooper Eldridge Block. All three of the gentlemen composing the new house, Mr. N. A. Empey being the third, are well known in the community as standing in the foremost rank of the prominent business men of Utah. They open with an immense stock, to accommodate which the gentlemen have engaged two other basements besides that under the ground floor store, which they occupy.

The gentlemen start in under excellent auspices, and none are more likely to make a success of mercantile business than they. Their advertisement will be found in another column.

A Forthcoming Pamphlet.—We learn from A. M. Messer, Esq., that an ex-Federal official is about to issue a pamphlet on the "Mormon Question," in which he will make some refreshing statements backed up by clear proofs.

Conjoint Meeting.—The 10th Ward meeting house, last evening, was crowded to excess on the occasion of the conjoint meeting of the 10th, 11th and 12th Ward M. L. Associations. George Bookle, President of the 10th Ward Association, presided. After the opening exercises, in which the 10th Ward choir took an active part, the following programme was creditably rendered:
