FRAGMENTS.

ELECTION NEXT WEEK.
 F. A. MITCHELL has gone to Coalville.
 AUDITOR NEPHI W. CLAYTON took a trip to Ogden to-day.
 The People's Party should poll a full vote for Delegate Caine next week.
 HON. D. H. PERRY came down from the capital of Weber County this morning.
 DEPUTY MARSHAL SMITH went north to Kay's Creek, Davis County, this morning.
 ON Saturday 100 excursionists will arrive in this city from the east over the D. & R. G. W.

CONDUCTOR CHAUNCEY HALE, twenty-nine years in the service of the Erie Railway, is in the city, accompanied by his wife.
 At about ten o'clock last night a man lay stretched across the sidewalk a short distance west of the County Court House. He was muttering the unintelligible nonsense of stupid intoxication.

A LARGE crowd were attracted in front of Arbogast & Trumbo's establishment on Main Street last evening at sight of a man "pulling candy" in a position in which he could be plainly seen through the large show window.

ARTHUR CURTIS was convicted in the police court to-day of hating a Chinaman, and sentence was suspended until 2 p. m. to-morrow. General Maxwell appeared for the defense, but was not talk intelligible. When he informed the court that a boy who wasn't bad was not worth anything, and began to encourage young Curtis in his waywardness, the Judge quietly gave him to understand that such a doctrine could not be advocated in this court.

LOCAL NEWS.

The Immigrants.—The company of immigrants who arrived in Philadelphia on the steamer British King are expected to arrive in this city about Monday next, over the D. & R. G. W.

Indicted.—This afternoon the Third District Court issued an order that Bishop Lewis H. Munsley, of Bluffdale, John P. Mortensen, of the Tenth Ward, J. C. Gray, of the Thirteenth Ward, George B. Wallace, of Granger, and Herman Grether, of the Tenth Ward, who were placed under bonds by Commissioner McKay, should appear in court on Saturday next, at 10 a. m. to plead to indictments charging them with unlawful cohabitation.

Purchase Them.—This morning we had the pleasure of inspecting three water color landscapes executed by Mr. Alfred Nilsson, of this city. They represent scenes in Switzerland and possess decided merit. He wishes to dispose of them, and, in view of the dull times, being out of regular work, he asks a price altogether too modest being insufficient to cover the value of the time occupied in producing them. Somebody should promptly purchase them, as they would adorn any dwelling where they might be hung.

A Stock Cattle.—Mr. D. Guernsey, a prominent cattle man of Omaha, is among us. The gentleman has an extensive herd in Nebraska and has lately established one near Hamlin, in Washington County, whether he proposed to-day. He has every appearance of solidity, and especially on the local situation here is frank and generous in his views. He is said to be a pleuro pneumonia that it is neither so malignant nor extensive as has been represented, and that there is no present danger of its crossing the Missouri River.

The Teachers' Institute.—The following is the programme of the Teachers' Institute for Saturday, November 6th:
 1. What are some of the most suitable books for pupils to read, in order to cultivate imagination, observation and their reasoning faculties in general?
 2. Class exercise in drawing; Miss Constance Nelson.
 3. Song; A. S. Geddes.
 4. Practical methods of teaching the pupils language; Mrs. J. C. Gray.
 5. Select reading; Maggie Crismon.
 Besides the above programme a number of practical questions will be submitted to the teachers for answers.

Ignored.—The grand jury to-day reported that the charge of robbery against Oscar Krouse had been ignored. Mr. Krouse is a member of a prominent Chicago business firm, and was accused of robbing A. L. Tottenham, a member of the British Parliament, of several small articles. The M. P. suddenly left for the east yesterday, in company with a Mrs. Lamlan, whom the two men met at Reno, Nevada, on their way to this city. The facts developed by the investigation indicated that the trouble between the men originated in the attentions paid to the woman, and is not of a savory character. The accused was set at liberty to-day.

Pentitentiary Plans Accepted.—Last evening Governor West, Secretary Thomas and Marshal Dyer, the committee appointed to pass on specifications for the new pentitentiary, accepted those of Richard Ketting, of this city, and the Pauley Building and Manufacturing Company of St. Louis. A building is to be constructed outside of the present stockade, 32x44 feet, for entrance, visiting room, warden's residence, etc. This will be two stories high. Inside of the main walls will be a building 40x57 feet, and one attached to it 26x127 feet, the former having a dining room for 200 inmates—two in each cell. The plans are so arranged that at a future time additions can be made without any change in the old building. The whole work will not cost over $50,000.

Court Notes.—Proceedings in the Third District Court to-day:
 Samuel Levy vs. Salt Lake City; trial by jury. The case was argued by Frank May, Thomas Manning, Henry McEwan, Victor Carlson and C. M. Olson examined as witnesses for plaintiff.
 The grand jury came into court and reported seven indictments, six found under United States laws, and one under Territorial statutes. The charge against Oscar Krouse was ignored.
 The People vs. Oscar Krouse; grand jury; the defendant was discharged.
 John P. Mortensen, Lewis H. Munsley, J. C. Gray, Herman Grether and G. B. Wallace were ordered to appear on Saturday, October 30th, at 10 a. m., to plead to indictments found against them for disregarding the Edmunds law.

Saturday, October 30th, was set for the settlement of the bill of exceptions in the case of the United States vs. N. V. Jones and Frank Truesdale.

PROVO POINTS.

U. S. vs. HICKWOOD.

The trial in the Hickwood case was concluded Tuesday night, and no further evidence elicited than in the previous trial materially, except that two members of the grand jury were excused at the adjournment before the grand jury. The jury retired about 11:30 a. m. on Wednesday and said they could not agree. The Court told them that if they could not agree, they should go back to the jury box and consider the case again. They returned in half an hour and could not agree upon the first count, but returned a verdict on the other. They then retired to consider the case again. They returned in half an hour and could not agree upon the first count, but returned a verdict on the other. They then retired to consider the case again.

THE PEAKSON CASE.
 Mr. Highton concluded his opening address Tuesday afternoon, instantly being the main plea. Charles H. Highton was called and sworn, but being somewhat indisposed was excused till this morning. In the meantime the defense read several depositions as to the character of the defendant from residents of San Francisco. This morning Mr. Highton was called. He testified to having met Mr. Peakson on January 10th, a short distance from Nephi. He was on our way to town as a skating party, young men and ladies, when we met the defendant; he was walking around the horse, and throwing his hat around the horse's neck; he had been in a drunken state. I thought, he passed us, and we soon met the officer, Cazier, at his request I went with him to arrest Mr. Peakson; testified to the arrest about as heretofore related; the defendant was pretty drunk and had to be lifted into the wagon; talked like a drunken man; by drunk "that could not talk intelligibly. When he informed the court that a boy who wasn't bad was not worth anything, and began to encourage young Curtis in his waywardness, the Judge quietly gave him to understand that such a doctrine could not be advocated in this court."

Cross-examined—Was introduced to him a few days afterwards and have seen him since. He has been in the company of several other men who were with him at the time of the trial. He was not drunk at the time of the trial. He was not drunk at the time of the trial. He was not drunk at the time of the trial.

After recess Mrs. Green was called. Knew defendant four years; he and her son went to California together; were on friendly terms; he was at her home a few days, never saw him after wards. Alma Hoece was the next witness. Am a resident of Nephi; am cashier in the bank there; also Probate Judge; was present at the trial.

THE EXAMINATION.
 before the committing magistrate. The depositions of Painter and Borrowman were carefully read over to them before they signed them. I asked Sheriff Cazier if he knew who it was that shot the defendant, and told him that it was young Green from the river, and if I was I would like to telegraph to him to come to the city that night (Jan. 10th), but Mr. Cazier said it was no use, as Peakson was drunk when I arrested him; I saw him at the recorder's office; I saw much excited and broke down by crying, etc., several times.

Alleged Attempted Rape.—Shortly before noon to-day officer Johnson arrested Nels M. Andersen, a Scandinavian, who resides on Franklin Avenue, where he keeps a small store, on a charge of assault with intent to commit rape. He was arraigned before Justice Fryer, and a preliminary hearing of the case set for 3 o'clock this afternoon in default of $5,000 bail he was committed to the custody of Marshal Solomon.

The complaint in the case was made yesterday, by a young girl named Mamma Hansen. She is seventeen years of age, and appears to be rather unsophisticated. In company with her mother, she came to Utah a few months ago, from Denmark; being unable to speak English intelligently, she told her story through an interpreter. She states that she has been living with her mother in Andersen's house, for some time. A few days ago they moved next door. On Tuesday evening, about 9 o'clock, the defendant came to the door and asked for the girl, stating that his daughter-in-law was speaking to her. When she got to his house he familiarly took hold of her arm and attempted to carry her. She suspected no criminal intent on his part, though she did not like his action, and broke away and ran up stairs to see his daughter, but found the room empty. She turned back but was seized by the defendant, who caught her and made ineffectual advances. She repelled them, when he used violence, but by fighting and pulling her assailant's whiskers she succeeded in freeing herself, and getting to the foot of the stairs, where she found the door had been locked. Another struggle ensued, but she managed to open the door, and escape to her home.

The defendant's story of the affair is that he called the girl out to see whether he could not induce her and her mother to again rent the rooms they had occupied in his house. He denies having touched or interfered with her in any way, but admits that he made the excuse that his daughter wanted to see her to get her to come outside, when at the same time he knew that the former had gone to the Theatre with a Mr. Johnson, who also lived in the house. The defendant is sixty-four years of age, and has a wife, who, however, is not in the Territory.

There is testimony corroborative of the girl's being called out of the house and her returning in a state of excitement, but there are no witnesses, so far as is yet known, to the alleged assault.

A Thrice Broken Arm.—John Snyder, a fourteen-year-old son of James C. Snyder, of the Fourth Ward, Provo, met with an accident. While going through the stable he was kicked down, falling on his right hand and breaking both bones of his wrist. This is the third time he has broken the same arm within three months. The first time was while up in Provo Canyon, the second while he was working in an arm. Just eight weeks to the day he was driving a horse with a sulky rack, when the horse got frightened and ran away with him, throwing him off and breaking the same arm. He was picked up and taken to Dr. Pike's, near by, who set his arm again and he had just the splint taken off when he met with this last accident.

Reorganized.—At the call of the Bishopric of the 14th Ward there was a very good attendance at the Assembly Room of the Ward on Thursday, the 14th inst., at which time the Y. M. M. I. A. of that ward was reorganized with the following officers: M. W. Taylor, president; H. B. Eider and R. A. Shipp, counselors; J. M. Whitaker, secretary; C. M. Cannon, assistant secretary and treasurer; C. F. Wilcox, chairman, M. B. Shipp, F. W. Taylor, W. C. Morris and Arthur Stayer, Jr., programme committee; W. C. Morris, organist; Thomas Butler, chorister; John Clark, doorkeeper. Hereafter the meetings have been open to both ladies and gentlemen, but heretofore the young men hold separate meetings except once each month when conjoint sessions with the Y. M. M. I. A. will be held. The first of these will be held on Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The Y. M. M. I. A. meet on Tuesday evenings at 7 o'clock.

"NICE SWEET PORK"
 SOMETHING WORTH REGARDING ITS HEALTHFULNESS.
 SALT LAKE CITY, October 26th, 1886.

Editor Deseret News:
 With much interest, I have read the "Health Hints" in your columns, and am fully assured that, were they put in practice, they would be of great benefit to the sick and the weak, and to improve the physical, intellectual, and moral condition of the people. In the REVIVING NEWS of the 16th inst., I noticed some remarks upon pork eating, and was glad to see that I then determined to give you the result of my

OBSERVATIONS UPON 100 HOGS, which I saw opened last winter in various parts of the State. The young, small, lean hogs were the healthiest, though one of these, weighing 75 pounds had a highly degenerated liver. This organ was the brown instead of the banded glossy blue brown and red color; its substance had lost its natural firmness and with a fork was easily broken up into a mushy mass. In some English, that liver was in a semi-rotten state. Another animal weighing about 400 pounds, had a liver of this character, only it was much more putrescent; a very slight pressure of the finger penetrating it, while gentle agitation with a stick would reduce it to a soft mass. It was absolutely rotten. The lungs of this brute were congested, while two large spots were very dark red, bloody and decomposed. The intestines were also very dark in color, and would break on the slightest pressure, showing marked degeneration of their substance. The animal was kept in a clean pen, and, as the good folk, who feed on "nice clean food," which, by the way, is exceptional in feeding hogs. With not the least suspicion of anything wrong, in its external appearance, this animal, when opened, showed that

ONKUNG HAD WASTED to the size of a small fist; yet they said, the liver was good. I doubtless it made several "frics" for the family. Another large hog had a number of white, opaque, cheesy looking lumps imbedded in the substance of the lungs and the liver was labored and heavy. This was a case of tubercular consumption of the lungs, while the liver and intestines were diseased. Many other animals had ulcers of various sizes developed in the substance of the liver. In some cases the owners said it was only necessary to "cut out the bad spots"—the ulcerations—in order to render the remainder "good to eat."

Though I have specified but a few cases of the 100 hogs, yet nearly all suffer from either congestion, wasting or tubercular condition of the lungs, or from ulceration and degeneration of the liver, or degeneration of the intestines, and one hog had a marked inflammation of the bladder. The cases of LIVER DISEASE were the most numerous. All of these hogs were used for food, and the people prided themselves upon eating nothing but the "home-raised" article.

The general supposition is that, although the flesh is sweet and healthy, this is a great mistake. The whole mass of the blood passes through the liver and lungs, for its purification, and the matters composing the ulcers and tubercles are filtered out from the blood and deposited in those organs. The vital organs are corrupted, and the whole mass of the blood is corrupt. The flesh is made up from this diseased blood, and by means of the millions of blood vessels, a vessel which permeates every part of the body, blood largely comprises the bulk of animal food. As evidence of this, see how the red fluid flows from the rare, cooked roast and steak. In this case the tubercular, ulcerous, and scrofulous matter exist, and the muscular fibre—the flesh proper—largely partakes of the gross and
