

SPORTING EVENTS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Decoration Day Road Race, Horse Races and Bicycle Races.

MANY GOOD THINGS TO SEE.

Something About the Record of Jimmy Gardner Who is Here to Meet Jack O'Keefe.

Road race to Lagoon, 10 a.m., horse races, fair grounds, 2 p.m., bicycle race—Eureka vs Murray, at Murray #2 p.m.; bicycle race—O. S. L. vs Assembly club, Washington, at 3 p.m.; bicycle race, Salt Palace, 8 p.m., baseball—Salt Lake vs Spokane, at Spokane-Ogden vs Boise, at Boise.

The above sporting events are taking place today. Salt Lake's are interested in all of them.

The chief events are the road race, the horse races this afternoon at the state fair track, and the opening of the bicycle track at the Salt Palace this evening.

There are about 60 amateur bike riders entered for the road race, and Manager Hippo has done all in his power to see that the events goes off in a successful manner. Many prizes have been donated for the affair and each and every rider will have a chance to win something of value.

HORSE RACES.

A large and enthusiastic crowd of lovers of the sport of kings is down at Agric cultural park to witness the interesting program of horse races arranged by Manager W. H. Jones. The feature of the day is the free-for-all in which the best horses of the city will race for a purse of $1,000. Lester Smith, A. J. Ward and others are among the starters. There has been considerable betting on the result of this race. There are several other harness events and two good running events, all of which are pretty well closed contested and full of sensational teas.

BIKE RACER TONIGHT.

Cycle fans are expected to be out in force at the saucy meet this evening when the first race meet of the season will take place. Harry Heagen, manager of the track, has arranged a splendid program of sprint races for both professionals and amateurs. Some of the stars whose faces are familiar to patrons of the track will be seen again tonight. Good prizes have been offered, and it is believed that the racing will prove a success and to the opening of a most prosperous season.

ABOUT JIMMY GARDNER.

Jimmy Gardner, the noted little fighter from Lowell, Mass., who arrived here yesterday as chronicled in last evening's "News," will soon go to Ogden to take up training quarters there with his mother, Mrs. Gardner, and his brother, Billy Stitt, at the Junction City next Monday night.

Jimmy Gardner is hardly 22 years of age, but he has been in the ring for over 10 years. During that time he has beaten some of the cleverest lightweights and featherweights in the country. Such men as Harry Stebbins, Tom Dunn, Mike Fitzsimmons, Martin Carole, Bob Smith, the crack Denver fighter; George Mensnick, Canadian Mike Ward, and many others have gone down before him. Jimmy Gardner. He has repeatedly challenged Jimmy Britt and Battling Nelson, but neither of those fighters want any of Gardner's game.

Jack O'Keefe, Chicago last night and will reach Salt Lake as soon as possible. O'Keefe will train in this city. The match is set for June 12 in the saucy arena under the management of Willard Bean.

BIKE RACES AT OGDEN.

Hardy Downing's Motor Broke Down in Trial Race.

At Ogden last night Hardy Downing started out to cover the world's record for the mile behind the machine, but the sixth lap the machine went wrong and the event had to be abandoned. The results of the other events follow:

One-mile open amateur—Hume, Wilcox, Morgan, Time 30 sec.; Half-mile open, professional—Saxon Wm.

Loring's Tea.

Pitcher Peter Dowling from the Ogden team. Dowling, however, accompanied the team as far north as Pasco, where there was no room for him on the team. Dowling's release was simply for the purpose of cutting the Ogden team's salary list to the limit.
