FAVORS CHICAGO PLAN.

Thos. Austin Says Selection Was Wise From Many Considerations.

Thomas Austin, who was on the special committee that visited several middle state cities, prior to the selection of Chicago as the wool warehouse center, says it is his conviction that the committee acted wisely in agreeing on Chicago; also: "We have the positive assurance of a warehouse, loans on a change made the tariff be made high or instead of lower. At the meeting to be held here Nov. 9 we want every wool grower in the state present to listen to the full report of our committee and to the representatives of the Chicago chamber of commerce."

WHY COLDS ARE DANGEROUS.

Because you have contracted ordinary colds and recovered from them without treatment of any kind, do not for a moment imagine that colds are not dangerous. Everyone knows that pneumonia and chronic catarrh have their origin in common cold. Consumption is not caused by a cold but the cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the germs that would not otherwise have found lodgment. It is the same with all kinds of diseases, whether scurvy, fever, measles and whooping cough are much more likely to be contracted when the child has a cold. You will see from this that more real danger lurks in a cold than in any other of the common ailments. The easiest and quickest way to cure a cold is to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The many remarkable cures effected by this preparation have made it a simple matter of trade over a large part of the world. For sale by all druggists.

CAR TRACKS RE-BALLASTED.

The Utah Light & Railway company has been hauling 60 tons of heavy gravel daily, all this season, for making track bed, and 5,000 cubic yards have been placed on Seventh East street to Vandamere, making that thoroughfare better than it ever was before. A 1,000 feet single track has been laid on Ninth East below Tenth South street to prevent delays from waiting at switches. Heavier rails have been laid all over the system, the most careful attention being paid to packing heavy gravel under the ties, and especially under the ties bearing rail joints, so that there will be perfect drainage of the road bed, and no more sagging at the rail ends which gave so much trouble during the last wet season.

HAD A CLOSE CALL.

Mrs. Ada L. Croom, the widely known proprietor of the Croom Hotel, Yaghn Miss, says: "For several months I suffered with a severe cough, and consumption seemed to have its grip on me, when a friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery. I began taking it, and three bottles affected a complete cure." The fame of this life saving cough and cold remedy, and lung and throat healer, is world wide. Sold at Z. C. M. I. drug store, 112-114 Main St. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

AMUSEMENTS.

Orpheum—There is good measure of fun at the Orpheum this week, and the public has apparently sensed the fact. The bill is of high grade and evenly balanced throughout, with the possible exception of one of the acts in the "physical torture" start the meriment early with one of those leaping strong men who catch all the lights in front to conceal the yoke that does the trick. The second turn is devoted to a festive rounder who perhaps is not excessively vulgar, but motion pictures are the best feature after all. Charles De Haven and Jack Sydney, who made such a hit here season before last, with "School Boys and Girls," have graduated to an act of their own, which falls under the caption of "The Dancing Walter and the Guest." The boys have now grown up and during the interim have cultivated some additional acrobatic steps, and made a demonstrative band. But the fun really starts in earnest with the second part of the program. Eva Taylor and her players in "The Masseur's Office" was another success. Taylor, present the well known curtain-raiser in hurricane style. All the people are good and the costumes and staging leave nothing to be desired; the sketch of one of the men in the Orpheum, Ben Welch follows, and is greeted with loud acclaim. He has improved on some of his "stunt" since here last, and the change is for the better. Starting out with a semi-burlesque on his own race he concludes his act with a bit of pathos in Italian characterization. The headline in the form of the Trappe, a circus, is a new aggregation introducing a number of new acrobatic stunts the individual work is both fast and clean cut. To add to the charm of the act, the three girls and two boys are comely, fresh and full of ginger in a measure that elevates them above the usual circus headliner. The orchestral selection from "The Merry Widow" was another pleasing feature. These, with three humorous contributions on the part of the kinodrome rounded out a strong entertainment.

Grand—"The Yankee Doodle Boy," a musical comedy drama, is the bill for the first half of the week at the Grand, and is the first of its kind to make its appearance at that place. This sketch, which was written by a local writer, filled the house witnessed the performance, and for two hours all were kept in a state of continuous uproar. Many parts of the comedy, and especially the song, though all of it is not intended to be humorous by any means. With the music running through the plot and the musical program proper, there is an evening of entertainment that is not only a pleasure to the eye and ear, but also a pleasure to the heart. The comedians and star singers of the company are Mr. A. Patterson and Miss Truly, in the roles of Bud Hicks and Zora, respectively. Taken together, the aggregation is successful at fun-making.

Lyric—Another program of whole-some amusement is to be seen at the Lyric theater this week. The cameraphone numbers being among the best seen there. The bill is not one of so varied a character as that of a week ago, and in no sense is it a novelty, but it is clever. "The Lady and the Cowboy," given as the headline this week, is an amusing sketch and merits the praise it receives. The dialogue between the girl and the cowboy, though all of it is not intended to be humorous by any means. With the music running through the plot and the musical program proper, there is an evening of entertainment that is not only a pleasure to the eye and ear, but also a pleasure to the heart.
