FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

Bunday was a remarkably warn day for the time of year.

The residence of Mr. L. D. Young was burglarized on Saturday night.

Phanksgiving day next Thursday. It will be observed as a general holiday. All places of business are expected to be closed.

A cobble crossing is being laid over East Temple street, between the Wells corner and the Council House. It is a needed improvement.

On Thanksgiving night, at the Salt Lake Theatre, the Dramatic Combination will play "Collean Bawn," and on Saturday night, "Under the Gas Light."

This is the time of year when the wise farmer busies himself with odd jobs around the house. He keeps away from his fields to avoid being shot by amateur sportsmen.

Skunk fur has become fashionable and it is sold under that name, too. This fur is necessarily expensive, as svery time a hunter captures one of these interesting little animals he has to buy a new sult of clothes,- Logan is having a burglar boom as well as Salt Lake and Ogden. An unsuccessful attompt was lately made to enter the premises of Mr. Wm. Birdno, and another on the house of Mr. Joseph Wilson, of that town)

The police last night arrested three men at the Laramie Hotel, who arrived in the city st a late hour and are charged with having broken jail at North Platte, Nebraska. They were incarcerated therein for burglarizing a clothing store, and sawed their way out .- Laramie Boomer-

Following are the names of the gentlemen composing the grand Jury, now in session at Ogden: L. B. Stephens, Foreman; F. A. Curtiss, G. G. Griffith, R. H. Slater, A. W. Child, Geo. R. Hill, Albert D. in the act he did not succeed in stealing anything. The burglar is a young fellow, about ninetcen years old, named

Robert Frank. After his arrest officers Phillips and Salmon visited his com, and found a pistol and gold ring, which, with other articles, were stolen from the premises of week ago yesterday, showing beyond pired about 40 minutes past 7 o'clock doubt that Frank was the party who perpetrated that burglary.
