The Season's Massacre a Carefully Planned Outrage.

FURTHER ATROCITIES EXPECTED. Revolutionary Headquarters in the United States—Parties Plotted to Martyrize.

YAN, ARMENIA, May 24.—(From the special correspondents of the Associated Press.)—The massacre of Armenians, which was planned, was one of the most carefully planned outrages in history. The evidence of this is circumstantial only, but it is alleged to have been the result.

During the months of June, July and August preceding the massacre, the Armenians in the districts of the country surrounding the massacre, and particularly in the districts of the south and southwest, were apparently quietly busy in gathering up the scattered warriors of their tribes, in an invasion of the Russian region. In July and August, thousands of Armenians were shipped from Constantinople and Mosul. This shipment was organized from Russia in Constantinople, and the quantity shipped was a subject of constant inquiry to the British and French consuls. It was a subject of constant inquiry to the British and French consuls.

PEACE ON WAR. European Striving for Truce Among Nations. VICTORIA, B. C., July 14.—The shipping news brought Australian news to June 23. News was received from James at Auckland dated June 15th which was to the effect that the natives were again in a quarrel state, preparing a big convention to decide on peace or war. It is stated that certain Europeans are endeavoring to stir up trouble with the natives, but the natives are more inclined to take some measures of their own accord.
