The Tribune's Washington spe-cial says Morton says the ticket will be the weakest that could be will be the weakest that could be made. Both gentlemen he said were violent southern sympathizers during the war, and he thought their financial theories could not be harmonized. Those in Indiana, who had worked for Hendricks for the first place would not have the zeal to work faithfully for him as second to a man like Tilden. He said Haves and Wheeler would said Hayes and Wheeler would floor, pistols being drawn on all carry Indiana by at least 10,000. He was sure also of New York and

year. There is yet nothing but a vague expectation that some of the more important appropriation bills may be get through, and for even this vague expectation there is no apparent basis. The demo-crats at St. Louis are engaged in demanding repudiation of the na-tional faith while the democrats in Washington are trying to force political legislation through the Senate under the threat of stopping the wheels of government. Within forty-eight hours consequences of the most serious, not to say disas-trous character, will ensue. Unless their crazy obstinacy can be broken down, certainly a more disgraceful exhibition of reckless partizanship never was made in the United States.

Washington Opinion. says, Speaker Sayler says it was rough on Ohio. Southard was confident that the Ohio democracy would make a strong fight for Tilden. Hamilton, of Indiana, thought Hendricks essential as Vice-Presi-Hendricks essential as Vice-President to insure success. Landers, conspicuous as an independent democrat, said he would as soon have Hayes and Wheeler as Tilden and anybody else, provided the republicans would leave off stealing. Blount and Candler believe the southern states will ascept Tilden's success over Tammany as the best evidence of his deserving the united support of the democracy. Wells, Clark, and Kehr, of Missouri, are confident that state will paper money can justly be paid souri, are confident that state will give as great a majority for Tilden as for any man that has been named. The President said he was now more contacted in paper money can justly be paid in silver dollars, which were unlimited until the year 1873, and that no other way can the differ named. The President said he was now more certain than ever that Hayes would be elected, though he was too long in military service to underrate the power of the enemy. He hoped, however, to turn over the key to the White House to Hayes. Yeates, Robbins, and Waddell put down the old north state for 20,000 majority and a united delegation in Congress. Lane said the most north-western states can be secunted for Tilden by 1,500. Warcounted for Tilden by 1,500. It insures New York, Connecticut, New Jersey and Ore-gon, that with Hendricks Indiana gon, that with Hendricks Indiana can be carried, that there is a good chance of carrying Wisconsin, California, Massachusetts and possibly New Hampshire. NEW ORLEANS, 29.—At the Re-publican Convention the majority report of the committee on creden tials came up for adoption. The vete was taken amid tremendous applause, and declared adopted. Then came a dead-lock; the report was adverse to the Packard faction. Numerous calls were made for the minority report, but without suc-cess. Later in the afternoon, Pinchback declared the convention sides, but were not used. Partial quiet having been restored, Packard made a conciliatory speech, and the Convention thereafter agreed to take a recess till ten to-morrow.

land, that republicans had given up the east and the country upon the west and northwest on Friday, for their strength, with such southern states as can be coerced by the bayonet." Thurman says the ticket is a good one, and when asked whether he had sent a congratulatory dispatch replied, "What in the devil should I send a congratulatory dispatch for, when I only received two votes?" Lamar said, "If people wanted reform, new is their chance. The nomination is excellent and the leader incomparably superior to that of the republican party." Booth spplauds the nomination as the best that could have been made. Kentucky's representatives all gave great praise to the choice of the St. Louis Convention. The Daily Telegraph's Paris correspondent calls attention to the fact that Prince Milan's journey to the frontier must occupy forty-eight hours. This delay leaves a last loop-hele for negotiations.

The Bersagliere, of Rome, has a special from Trieste, stating that Turkey has offered the Prince of Montanegro territory towards the sea if he remains neutral. The Prince would accept, he being urged to do so by Austria and England, but he fears popular resentment.
