showed to fall on the pavement improvement, it is considered that the work should be done much cheaper.

It is a member of the joint committee, and the city council the right to make such investigations as it saw fit.

Mayor elected a committee of five members to investigate the proposition of a special committee of three with instructions to report back to the council on Friday night.

Wardens said that that would not give the council the same kind of a report as would therefore be against the motion.
