

CLIPPINGS.

—Heirs to the estate of Lord Townly are now called for through the English papers. This is one of the largest estates ever left in England, and is now in possession of the government.

—The Magic Ruffle has the peculiarity of containing no gathering thread, the gathers being confined by the same line of machine stitching that holds it to the strip of cloth to which it is attached. A patent was granted to the inventor, dated May 8, 1860, and a company commenced the manufacture of Magic Ruffles for the market. From one machine and a single operator, they now occupy a room one hundred by eighty feet, have a steam engine for their exclusive use, and are manufacturing from 10,000 to 12,000 yards of ruffling a day.

—Recently at Petersburg, Va., about 400 worthless free negroes were sold for non-payment of taxes, the buyers agreeing to pay ten cents a day for them.

—Admiral Lord Cochrane, whose wife is seriously ill in Paris, has resigned his command in the South American waters and taken passage for that city. The admiral is now 85 years of age. His autobiography, on which he has been engaged for some time, and of which two volumes have appeared, is not yet concluded.

—In the official Report of the California Mint, the following passage occurs, which illustrates some of the many singular phases of social life on the Pacific. "Half dimes; three cent pieces, coppers and nickels are unknown in our commerce, and are almost unknown in our mint, although a few half dimes were once issued, to the great indignation of some people, who consider them a dangerous innovation as having a tendency to reduce the price of labor and the profits of trade."

—The Peach Crop in the Southern portion of Illinois, says the Galena Courier, is immense. A ridge in Union and Jackson counties, 25 miles long and from five to seven wide, will produce at least one million bushels. A large amount of this immense crop will be distilled.

—At Chatham, England, at noon each day, a gun is fired by electricity from the Greenwich Observatory.

—Mrs. Betsy Adams, a young damsel of 108 years, attended church at New London, Conn., and also, the evening service, and spoke in the meeting. On the following morning she walked half a mile before breakfast.

—Farming, in South Hardwick, Vt., seems to amount to something. Messrs. Holton & Judevine, of that place, have a pair of oxen that weigh 4,520 pounds, "true weight." A W. Powers has a half blood Durham bull, that weighed, when 15 months old, 1,120 pounds—and from one field of 4 acres, 14 tons of well filled oats were taken the other day.

—The Memphis, Tenn., Appeal, says, that the peach crop in that vicinity is larger than it has been for six years past.

—It is said, that near Davenport, Iowa, there is an 18 acre field of onions that will yield the neat little sum of $7,850 the present season.

—The expediency of establishing local market fairs, at stated intervals, as in England, is attracting the attention of farmers in New England, and an effort will be made to test the practicability in Westchester County.

—The apple and other fruit crops of the Connecticut valley promise an abundant yield this season.

—The "census man" in Philadelphia, found in one of the Wards a black woman, 111 years of age, formerly a slave, in Virginia. She is still active, and offered to dance, if the census taker would give her a quarter.

—The old sarcophagus, once the repository of the Roman Emperor Alexander Severus, which was brought to the United States from Beirut in 1839, and intended for a resting place for the remains of Andrew Jackson, has been removed from the Patent office to the Smithsonian Institute.

—The Roman Catholic Clergy in Austria is said by a Catholic journal to comprise 13 archbishops, 57 bishops, 700 convents, with 2,900 monks. The total number of clergy amounts to 28,000 individuals, who possess property valued at $250,000,000, personal or in trust for the church.

—The verdict in the case of Isaac H. Russell, of Concord, N. H., who recently drowned himself, is of the real old fashioned sort. The jury find that Mr. Russell "voluntarily and feloniously, as a fellow, himself did kill and murder, against the peace and dignity of the State."

—The schooner Forest City arrived in Albany, lately. She was the first sail craft that ever came from the lakes to Albany by way of the River St. Lawrence and Atlantic Ocean.

—One day, as Mr. C— was limping down the High street of Edinburgh, from the Court of Sessions, he overheard a young lady say to her companion rather loudly: "That is Mr. C—, the lame lawyer." Upon which he turned round, and, with his usual force of expression, said: "No, madam, I am a lame man, but not a lame lawyer."

—Suits have been commenced against four citizens of Richmond, Va., for refusing to answer the census takers.

—Governor Moore, of Alabama, has lately manifested his want of deference to the fair sex in a novel way. It is reported that, finding the penitentiary at Wetumpka too full, he has discharged the female convicts to make room for the males!

—The New Orleans Courier, says that the Bell-Everett men and Douglas men of Louisiana are about to form a combination by which they will "run their machine" in common.

—The South Carolinians are getting uneasy, not so much about the state of their defences, however, as regarding the $100,000 appropriated by the last legislature to arm the State. A correspondent of the Charleston Mercury beseeches Governor Gist, to tell what he has done with the money.

—The descendants of the late Holland Weeks, of Salisbury, Vt. whose ancestors emigrated from England in 1630, and who are lineal descendants in the maternal line of John Alden, the strapping who "first leaped upon Plymouth Rock," were to have a social reunion at the house of Ebenezer Weeks, in Salisbury, on the 12th of September next. This will be the fifth gathering of the family since 1840. They meet every five years, the relatives being in nearly every State, from New England to California.

—In Burmah when a young woman is taken ill, her parents agree with the physician, that if he cures the patient he may have her for his trouble, but if she dies under his medicines, he is to pay them her full value. It is stated that successful physicians have large families of females who have become their property in this manner.

—It is reported that the Secretary of Oregon has refused to issue a certificate of election to Mr. Shiel, lately elected to Congress by the Democrats, as successor to Mr. Stout, on account of the election being premature and unauthorized by law.

—An exchange says, that a Lady in Portland stood upon a barrel to get a better view of the Wide-Awakes. The head fell in, encasing her in a double set of hoops. She was fished out by an accommodating gentleman.

—The invention of a new clock, upon the principle of the thermometer, by the pressure of air on mercury, is creating a great sensation in Paris. The cost of the clock, which goes twenty-four hours, and then has only to be turned like the hour-glass, is not more than a frank.

—All free colored persons recently come into Berkeley county, Va., from other counties, have been given ten days by the Courts to leave.

—The Southern Churchman says: "The Bishops of the Episcopal Church have unanimously testified that the Church canon does not forbid the lending of an Episcopal church to any respectable denomination of Christians."

—The Millerites have been holding their religious services in North Wilbraham, Mass. This sect now numbers 50,000 in the United States and the Canadas, and they gather in camp meeting from nearly every State in the Union. A portion of the brethren look for the Millennium before the last of March, 1861; others are confident that the world will last ten years and two months longer, while others still predict a universal overthrow in about sixteen weeks.

—In South Danvers, Massachusetts, not long since, a Catholic priest, it is stated, entered a house situated in a part of the town called "Dublin," and spilled two barrels of liquor. The owner of the "beverage" was very indignant at the proceeding.

—A letter received in Boston says that a person from Foo-choo, China, describes the rebel forces as armed for the most part with sharpened bamboos—not a very effective weapon, certainly, in opposition to the rifled cannon and revolvers of the Anglo-French armies.

—It is estimated that the reception of His Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales, will cost the Provincial Government of the Canadas no less a sum than $1,000,000, independent of the vast amounts spent by the different towns.

—Pittsburgh was visited on Monday evening, Sept. 3, by a shower of flies which filled the air like snow flakes for nearly an hour, to the infinite amusement of hundreds of children, who seemed to enjoy themselves hugely in chasing and capturing them. The wings of the insects were white, and their bodies, which were quite long, of a light flesh color. They actually darkened the air in the neighborhood of the river, from which it is believed they were carried off by a brisk breeze which continued to blow towards the city.

—It is asserted that there have been more losses of life, and destruction of property by lightning, in Canada and the United States, this year, than in any previous one.

—New Milford, Connecticut, with 3,900 inhabitants, has 172 over seventy years, and it also boasts of three old maids who are each two years younger than they were in 1850. In Winsted there is an active old lady of 101.

—The hay crop in northern New York, Vermont and Canada is said to be so small that farmers cannot winter nor scarcely summer their stock.

—In England the papers speak of the want of popular political leaders. In this country, we seem likely to have more leaders than followers.

THE "DIGNITY OF BEIN' NIGGERS." A slave's speech on the relative standing of the races, and the superiority of slavery to freedom, is reported by the Petersburg (Va.) Express, of a late date, in this wise:

In front of the Central Warehouse, a philosophical darkey leaning lazily against one of the wheels of a dray, thus delivered himself to a brother Jehu, who was disposing of himself similarly: "All niggers ought to feel de dignity of bein' niggers, 'cept free niggers what dunno what dignity am. Dis minute I'm wuff about fifteen hundred dollars," and he gave a demonstrative gesture with his left forefinger, "and a heap ob' white folks can't say dat for deyselves. Now dar," and he pointed to a "gentlemanly vagrant," "is a white man; he couldn't turn hisself into money to save his life. More'n dat, he ain't wuff nuffin, he dunno nuffin, and he won't do nuffin. I feels de dignity ob de fack, and dat's what makes me say what I do say."

GREAT DESTRUCTION OF LIFE BY TIGERS.—The Singapore Free Press mentions the astonishing fact that since January, 1859, fifteen hundred Chinese have been carried off by tigers in Johon, the end of the Malacca peninsula. The tigers show more than their usual cunning, and regularly feed on human flesh. They lurk close to the narrow jungle paths, and spring out from behind on the unfortunate passer-by. The Chinese have immigrated into the peninsula in large numbers, and have entirely monopolized the cultivation of gambier and black pepper. The refuse leaves of the gambier (terra japonica) are used as manure for the pepper plant. It is now difficult to induce coolies to work in Johore, so great is the danger. At the present rate of deaths the cultivation must decline. The quantity of gambier imported into England annually, chiefly for dyeing purposes, is 6,000 tons.

THE BATTLE OF LIFE.—The battle of life, in by far the greater number of cases, must necessarily be fought up hill; and to win it without a struggle were perhaps to win it without honor. If there were no difficulties there would be no success; if there were nothing to struggle for, there would be nothing to be achieved. Difficulties may intimidate the weak—but they act only as a stimulus to men of pluck and resolution. All experience of life, indeed, serves to prove that the impediments thrown in the way of human advancement, may, for the most part, be overcome by steady good conduct, honest zeal, activity, perseverance, and above all, by a determined resolution to surmount difficulties, and stand up manfully against misfortune.—Self-Help.

Save your Paper Rags.

The Inhabitants of Utah are requested to gather up and save their worn out wagon covers, and every description of cotton and linen rags for paper making, and deliver them, from time to time, to the Bishops of the several Wards, or the 'News' and 'Mountaineer' Offices or their agents, for which, when clean, they will be allowed five cents a pound. The rags can be sufficiently cleansed in pure water, without soap.

It is expected that, in a few months, all who wish can receive paper in exchange for rags.
