DAMAGE SUIT IS NON SUITED

Ezra Wardle Loses Case Against Ralph E. Hoag for Injuries in Runaway.

DEATH OF WM. H. PIDCOCK.

Respected Citizen Called at 74—Thanksgiving at State School—Cupid's Busy Day.

Ogden, Nov. 28.—The $10,000 damage suit brought by Ezra Wardle, a minor, through his guardian, Mrs. Susan Guthrie, against Ralph E. Hoag, cashier of the Utah National bank, was non-suited by Judge Armstrong in the second district court yesterday afternoon. The action was a suit for damages alleged to be due for personal injuries. The complaint alleged that on April 11, 1905, Wardle was riding a hay rake drawn by a horse and driven by Hoag, when the horse started and ran away, throwing the rider against a barbed wire fence, severely injuring him, as the result of which he was laid up in bed for several weeks. After the securing of a jury and the taking of only a little testimony, the court granted the motion of defendant's attorney for a nonsuit on account of insufficiency of evidence.

The divorce suit of Nelson R. Castor against Hattie L. Castor was heard by the court, and a decree entered in favor of the plaintiff on the grounds of desertion.

THANKSGIVING DAY

Will be Appropriately Observed at State School.

Thanksgiving day will be appropriately observed at the state school for the deaf and blind tomorrow, for which an excellent program has been arranged. One feature about the exercises that will be especially interesting will be the presentation in the evening at 7:30 of the drama, "The Courtship of Miles Standish," by pupils of the blind department, who have made their own costumes and will furnish their own orchestra music for the performance.

The day's program follows:

9:30 a. m.—Men of Harlech, blind orchestra.

The President's Proclamation—Miss Bowles.

Prayer—Mr. Ballantyne.

"America"—School.

Thanksgiving Address—Rev. Carver, Song, "Count the Blessings," girls.

"The Palm"—Blind orchestra.

Benediction—Rev. Carver.

11—Basketball game at the armory between deaf and dumb boys and National Guard.

1:30—Thanksgiving dinner to pupils.

3:00—Attend Salt Lake and Ogden high school football game at Glenwood.

7:30—Drama, "The Courtship of Miles Standish," by the blind pupils.

PROF. COOP'S RECITAL.

Prof. Squire Coop extends a cordial invitation to the music loving public of Ogden to visit his studio in the old Masonic building this evening at 8 o'clock, when he will give an interpretative recital of the compositions of Leoncavallo, the great Italian composer who appears in Ogden Friday evening with his immense orchestra. Considerable interest is being manifested in the appearance of so great a musician as Leoncavallo in this city and all who intend attending the musical Friday evening should hear Mr. Coop this evening, as it will greatly assist in giving a more comprehensive understanding of the operas to be rendered by the master, his vocalists and orchestra.

CUPID'S BUSY DAY.

Cupid had another busy day in Ogden and the four couples following were made happy by being granted licenses to wed:

Eriz R. Eckhart of Ogden and Miss Belle Littlefield of Morgan, Utah.

David Newey and Hazel Layne, both of Ogden.

Clarence E. Crase, Ogden, and Estella Asmuth, of Salt Lake.

Wm. J. O'Brien and Mary H. Prime, both of Chicago. They were married by Judge J. D. Murphy.

BRIEFS AND PERSONALS.

An excellent Thanksgiving entertainment is being rendered this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Sacred Heart academy.

Judge J. A. Howell is holding a session of the district court at Farmington.

The sale of tickets for the appearance of Louis James tomorrow night at the Grand Opera House is large.

Mayer Schmitt of San Francisco passed through Ogden last evening, accompanied by his wife, en route to his home. He refused to be interviewed here.

Song, the Chinaman who was caught by Officer Robert Burk in the act of smoking opium with three colored people, will serve a 60 days' sentence on the rock pile.

A meeting of the Press club of Ogden is called for this evening.

The report from the hospital is that Engineer Frank Looze, who was injured in the Montello wreck and was unconscious for so long, has regained consciousness and is rapidly recovering.

John O'Brien has been arrested on the charge of stealing a watch from Andrew Dobinsky while the latter was asleep.

MANTI.

NAUVOO VETERAN CALLED.

Mrs. Rebecca Wareham Closes Long And Eventful Life.

Special Correspondence.

Manti, Sanpete Co., Nov. 26.—Yesterday morning Mrs. Rebecca Wareham passed to the great hereafter after having lived upon the earth for a great many years. Deceased was among the few now living who were acquainted with the Prophet Joseph Smith. She never tired of testifying to the divinity of his mission. She was for many years a temple worker, but of her years she has been unable to do anything, being almost helpless, but she was tenderly cared for by her daughter, Mrs. Alvira Cox, until her death.

Her husband, James Wareham, passed away several years ago, a faithful member of the church. Deceased met with an accident some time ago which caused her some affliction and probably shortened her days, although she lived to a ripe age. Funeral services will be held in the tabernacle today providing her son Oscar E. Goodridge of LaParo, Or., arrives. Deceased was all the days of her life devoted to her religion.

AMERICAN FORK.

SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT.

Science Hall Nearly Completed and Ready for High School.

Special Correspondence.

American Fork, Utah Co., Nov. 27.—Friday evening the parents of the children of the American Fork public schools were delightfully entertained by Prof. Marshall of the State University. An entertainment along the line of education, illustrating beautifully, how only by means of an education, one can be raised to a higher plane of life.

The building allotted to the high school, science hall, is nearing completion and by Monday the high school will be settled in its new home.

The building is divided into several comfortable and convenient compartments, having a well equipped library, a large assembly room, besides a class and study room.

The public schools are full to overflowing. The patrons appreciate the Friday night programs given by the various departments.

Thanksgiving dinners are being prepared by the grammar grades and high school, and will be served to a score of the hearts of the needy of the town on Thanksgiving eve.

Several local farmers have their beets in the ground yet.

The scarcity of coal is beginning to be felt in this section, and coal dealers state they are unable to tell when the situation will be relieved.

The merchants report increased business in all lines of merchandise for this year over last.

MOUNT PLEASANT.

Death of Child—Shooting Match for Thanksgiving.

Special Correspondence.

Mt. Pleasant, Sanpete Co., Nov. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swenson buried their baby yesterday. Services were held at their residence.

When the first snow came several teams were sent over to open the road to the Sanpete valley coal mine. They came back without accomplishing their desire, as the snow was too much for them.

Six black mammoth jacks have just arrived in Mt. Pleasant from Missouri. The intention is to dispose of them in this vicinity if possible.

The Mt. Pleasant Gun club met last evening for the purpose of making arrangements for a target shooting match for Thanksgiving day.

LAKETOWN.

DEATH OF MRS. ANNIE WESTON.

Worthy Woman Called at 52—General Prosperity in Bear Lake.

Special Correspondence.

Laketown, Rich Co., Nov. 22.—Mrs. Annie Weston, one of Laketown's earliest settlers departed this life on Monday morning, Nov. 19. Deceased was born at Clayton, Yorkshire, England.

January 24, 1855, her parents being George and Sarah Craven Robinson. With them she came to Utah in 1873, and made her home in Laketown, where she became the wife of Joseph Weston. She was a diligent worker in the Relief Society, and acted as counselor in the presidency, and was an excellent wife, mother and neighbor and is survived by her husband and seven sons and daughters.

A good start has recently been made on the roof of the new meetinghouse. The bishopric desires to close it up before real winter comes and follow by indoor labors during the winter.

Excepting for coughs, lingering from summer whooping cough epidemic, good general health prevails, and material prosperity is very evident in southern Bear Lake Valley.

Thrashing was completed here a week ago. Crops were good.

Nine acres here, the zero weather Observer Moffat's report for last Sunday night. There is about eight inches of snow. Traffic is greatly impeded since the sudden cold snap and snow fall.

FOUNTAIN GREEN.

SUCCESS OF BEET GROWING.

Typical Claims Little Victim—Winter's Early Advent.

Special Correspondence.

Fountain Green, Sanpete Co., Nov. 28.—Winter has begun here in earnest. The about four inches snow and still snowing, and sharp frost prevailed during last week. Farmers have had a bounteous harvest this year of grain, hay and sugar beets. The sugar beet crop is the most successful with the neighboring settlement of Moroni, and the average per acre is about the same. Some 40 acres all told were grown here; they averaged 15 tons per acre, making a total of 600 tons, which, at $4.50 per ton, netted the growers about $2,700, after deducting for seed and planting. Those who have raised sugar beets here are well satisfied with the results. There were but few farmers who raised beets here, and the largest acreage by one person was only six acres, yet he raised on that six acres 118 tons.

There has been but one diphtheria case for several months.

The public school is doing well, under the able management of Principal A. R. King.

KAMAS.

Two Ladies Accidentally Burned—Old Lady Suffers Bad Fall.

Special Correspondence.

Kamas, Summit Co., Nov. 23.—The home of Bishop Dan Lamborn, best known to the community, was the scene of an incident this afternoon, caused by the explosion of an overheated pan of grease placed in an oven to heat out. Miss Lyle Lambert was fatally burned about the face and neck and the right arm and hand by the flames; the flames reached the ceiling, and for a few moments it looked as though the house would be burned, but timely assistance extinguished the flames, and the young lady was given every attention and it is thought there will be no serious results. Mrs. May Lambert received slight burns on the face and one hand.

Fred Pack and family returned from the reservation yesterday; they report a cold trip after crossing the divide, but say the weather on the reservation to have been ideal to within the last few days with very little frost.

Mrs. Lois Mitchell, an aged resident of this place, fell down stairs a few days ago, and her skull was fractured. She is doing as well as could be expected at this writing.

Many illnesses come from impure blood. Can't have pure blood with faulty digestion, lazy liver and sluggish bowels. Burdock Blood Bitters strengthens stomach, bowels and liver, and purifies the blood.

KIMBALL, CANADA.

Farm Crops Abundant But Prices Low.

Special Correspondence.

Kimball, Alberta, Canada, Nov. 20.—This place is located on the St. Mary's river, near the intake of the Alberta dam. This is a most prosperous season and all have harvested good crops, but the price of grain is low. Wheat is quoted at 50 cents a bushel and oats at 35 cents a bushel. The stock interests are looking up, with prices fairly good.

There are two teachers employed in the school and its two departments are now running smoothly, with a fairly good attendance.

W. R. Sloan is the bishop of this ward and with D. W. Card and Hy Thompson, his counselors, is looking after the interests of the Saints of this district.

MONROE.

SHORTAGE OF FUEL.

Bonanza Beet Crop—Schools Flourishing—Boy Suffers Painful Accident.

Special Correspondence.

Monroe, Sevier Co., Nov. 23.—For the past week cold and snow has made a great demand for wood and coal. The snow makes it unpleasant to visit the canyons to get wood.

Glendia Johnson, the nine-year-old son of Niels and Maria Johnson, slipped from a bugle a week ago and broke his leg in two places. He is doing well considering the nature of the break.

Monroe schools have over 400 enrolled and much interest is manifested by the splendid corps of teachers. An entertainment is under way by teachers and pupils for the 25th inst, the proceeds to go to purchasing books for school library.

Several cases of smallpox in mild form were developed and promptly quarantined; all are now better.

The plastering of the new school-house is nearly completed and it is hoped part of the house will be ready for New Year's.

Some work has been done on the Otter creek reservoir, which has now 25 feet of water in it, over 20 feet of it being held over from last spring's supply.

Mr. F. R. Gould of this place, who has charge of the beet industry in this county for the Lehi sugar factory, reports most satisfactory results. Many

CERTIFICATE OF PURITY

This is to Certify that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, is purely vegetable and does not contain any calomel, mercury, creosote, morphine, opium, strychnine, cocaine, nitrate potash (salt-petre), bromide potassium, narcotic alkaloid, whiskey, wine or any harmful or habit producing drugs. Swamp-Root was discovered through scientific research and study by Dr. Kilmer, who graduated with honors and is now actively engaged in the practice of his profession, which calling he has successfully followed many years.

Jonas M. Kilmer, senior member of the firm of Dr. Kilmer & Co., of the City of Binghamton, County of Broome, State of New York, being duly sworn, deposes and says that the guarantee of purity of Swamp-Root, as described in the foregoing certificate, is in all respects true.

Subscribed and sworn to before me April 26, 1898.

Jonas M. Kilmer

James O. Haddock, Notary Public

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything, but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble, it will be found just the remedy you need. Swamp-Root makes friends.

Each bottle contains the same standard of purity, strength and excellence.

YOU may have a sample bottle of Swamp-Root free by mail, if you have not already had one. When writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure to mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

If you are already convinced that Swamp-Root is what you need, you can purchase the regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles at drug stores everywhere. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

of the beet raisers here will receive over $1,000 each for this season's crop, and next year will see a larger acreage of this crop.

MARYSVILLE, IDAHO.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

Lou McBride Killed While Out Hunting—Mrs. Zollinger is Dead.

Special Correspondence.

Marysville, Idaho, Nov. 22.—A fatal accident occurred yesterday morning to a young man named Lou McBride, who, it is believed, came from American Fork, Utah. The young man had been working on the canal for a short time, and yesterday morning, he, with one or two others, started out hunting, there having fallen a little snow during the night, making it easy to track elk. While climbing up the steep canal bank, Mr. McBride slipped and fell striking the back of his head on a rock. He died in about half an hour after. Dr. Young of this place was summoned but arrived too late. Efforts have been made to locate the young man's parents, but without success so far.

ELDERLY LADY HURT.

While walking across the floor Mrs. Sarah F. Hendricks stepped on a badly worn board, which gave way, letting her foot through and she fell with such force as to jar the old lady quite badly, and it is believed fractured one bone of her leg. She is unable to get around except by the aid of crutches.

Severe cold weather has prevailed for a week and night before last about three inches of snow fell, being the first snow of the season.

Many of the people feel encouraged with the beet industry. Though the yield was light this year it was fairly good for the first trial. It is believed this is the best beet country in that way. Ten of the people become educated to the best manner of growing them.

DEATH OF MRS. ZOLLINGER.

Mrs. Albert Zollinger, who has been ailing for a long time, was taken to Salt Lake the other day to receive medical aid.

News came this evening that she died there and would be brought home for interment tomorrow. This is a shock to the whole community.

PEOA.

HAY SHORTAGE.

Predicts High Prices for Feed Will Prevail—Thanksgiving Ball.

Special Correspondence.

Peoa, Summit Co., Nov. 24.—The weather since the 15th has been very cold; snow fell on the 15th, 16th and 17th, and there is now about five inches on the ground making it bad for wagons and worse for sleighing.

The necessity of feeding livestock so early in the season will, it is believed, make a shortage in the hay supply; some predict that hay will be worth from $25 to $30 per ton before spring.

Mrs. Maria L. Miles of Peoa, is visiting with relatives and friends in Emmett, Canyon Co., Idaho.

Bishop Arthur Maxwell is on the Utah reservation looking after his interests out that way. Ten of Peoa's citizens have taken up claims on the reservation and there are others who intend to try their fortune out that way in the spring.

The trustees of the stake boards of the Y. L. & Y. M. M. I. A. of Summit stake, a grand ball will be given in the Hoytville amusement hall on Thanksgiving night, Nov. 29. During an hour's intermission an interesting program will be rendered. Refreshments will be served during the evening. It is expected that a large representation from all the wards of the stake will be in attendance.
