

NEVADA WON BY A VERY CLOSE SCORE

Utah Varsity Team Put Up a Noble Struggle Against Big Odds.

VISITORS SIX, LOCALS TWO.

An Immense Throng of Enthusiasts Witnessed and Enjoyed the Great Struggle at Walker's Field.

Six to two is the score by the hardy sons of the Sagebrush state demonstrated their superiority over the sons of Utah in the matter of football yesterday afternoon in their inter-state struggle down at Walker's field. It was a battle which called for the exercise of brain, muscle and skill, and it needs no argument to convince the multitude of people who witnessed it that the very best in the boys was brought out. It is demonstrated by facts. First, if the visiting team is reputed to be the weakest eleven of Nevada, (and that assertion has been made) then the champion team of the neighbor state had no occasion to take a back seat from any team in the country. If those fellows are past grand masters in the art of cultivating shrewdness, they have not neglected the opportunity in their research, to stir up an invaluable amount of football knowledge. Second, it settled for all time the question of Utah championship. The Varsity team's masterful playing against the odds, as it is indicated that the crimson and silver will have triumphantly for some time to come. It was a glowing tribute to the ability of those who have handled the team this year, and pay a compliment which no words can equal to Manager Hiser and Coach Holmes.

There were those who freely predicted the score would at least be 40 to 0. When the game was over they were just as free to admit they were way "off," that they had been misguided.

THE GREAT CROWD.

The contest was billed to start at 2 o'clock sharp, but at 1 o'clock the crowds began to pour in at the east gate and take up points of vantage which they tenaciously held until the struggle was over. At 1:30 vehicles of all kinds and descriptions began to arrive. The Raymon coach hacks, private carriages, wagons and cabs, were to be seen, as well as the teams of the home team, with a liberal sprinkling of blue and silver. The fair sex was represented in great number, dressed in the brightest and latest fashion. Gayly plumed hats, which flags waved to and fro were much in evidence and the ladies were anything but backward in cheering and encouraging their favorites on to victory.

It was truly a brilliant and enthusiastic gathering which witnessed this great amateur game—essentially the game of the season.

GOV. WELLS KICKS THE BALL.

The big clock at the city and county building had chimed the hour of 2:30 and the impatience of the throng was attested by the appearance of Governor Heber M. Wells, accompanied by Manager Hiser of the Utah University team striding towards the middle of the field, where the playing arena was being prepared. It was to be kicked into the air by his excellency. The chief executive of the state, required but little coaching. He walked back several paces, heaving the ball into the air with a flourish. There was a death-like stillness while the governor made a lumpy cheer long drawn out, and the fall was in play.

"Go! What if he'd missed it," remarked a small boy who knickered over the north fence, to his companion, who had entered on the same remark. "Ah, I guess his player's game before," was the reply of the other urchin.

But the governor did not miss the hoghide. It went sailing gracefully through the air into the waiting arms of a Varsity player. Then pandemonium broke loose with a fury that must have startled the honest farmers of the adjoining counties from their beds. Hats, banners, handkerchiefs and gloves were tossed into the air while banners waved, horns tooted, people screamed and which could be plainly heard the hoarse cry of some enthusiast through a big megaphone.

THE PLAYERS.

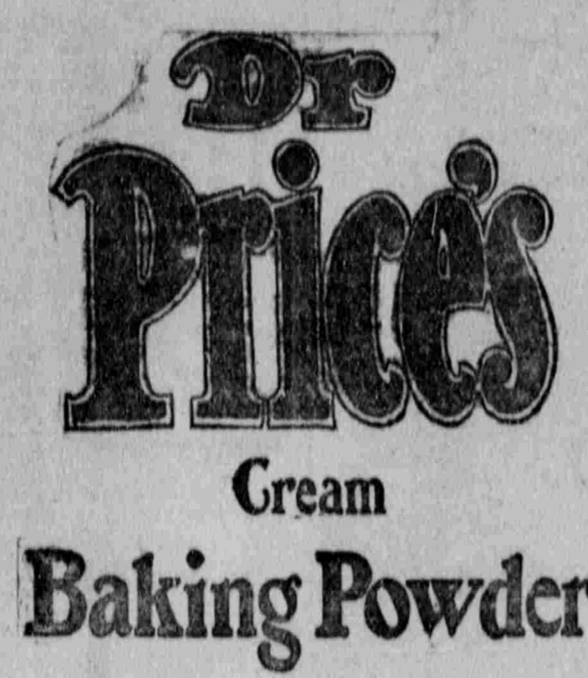

Not a man on either team displayed the white feather. Every man appeared to think that the result of the battle depended upon his individual work and they all went into the melee as though their very lives were at stake. No wonder it was a good game!

SALT LAKE'S WIN.

Ogden High School Defeated by 5 to 0 at Glenwood Park. Salt Lake City and Ogden high schools met on the Glenwood park gridiron yesterday afternoon, and the home team went down to defeat. The visitors made five points but the Ogdens failed to score. The game was hotly contested in the first half, neither side being able to score. Twice was the Ogden goal in danger, but each time a determined player brought the pigskin back into the middle of the field. In the second half Davis went shooting through the Ogden line and after a brilliant run of twenty-five yards, touched the ball down on the other side of Ogden's goal line. Hyde did not make good in his kick for goal, however, and a few minutes later the game was called, leaving the score 5 to 0 in favor of Salt Lake City.

DETAILS OF THE GAME.

One of the main features of the game was the wonderful punt of Graham who shot the ball fully seventy-five yards. Other features were the forty-two yard run of Harker's. Bennion's splendid punting under extreme difficulties, Smith's fine blocking and Wade's tackling came in for a good share of praise. In the B. Y. college team today by a score of 9 to 21. A

Used in Millions of Homes. 40 Years the Standard. A Pure Cream of Tartar Powder. Superior to every other known. Makes finest cake and pastry, light, flaky biscuit, delicious griddle cakes—palatable and wholesome.

PRICE BAKING POWDER CO., CHICAGO. NOTE.—Avoid baking powders made from alum. They look like pure powders, and may raise the cake, but alum is a poison and no one can eat food mixed with it without injury to health.

YOUNG CORBETT DEFEATS M'GOVERN

Denver Lad is Now the Champion Featherweight of the World.

IT TOOK BUT TWO ROUNDS.

To Lay Low the Brooklyn Terror Who Held the Title So Long—Fight Was a Shock.

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 28.—Knocked out in the second round, of which one minute and forty-four seconds had elapsed, was the referee's verdict in the flat battle between "Young Corbett" of Denver and Terry McGovern of Brooklyn, who has held the featherweight championship unflinchingly since he won it from George Dixon eighteen months ago. Outwitted and outpointed with a fighter just the same as himself, McGovern had to lower his colors this afternoon at the Nutmeg Athletic club to "Young Corbett" within six minutes from the start of the fight.

"Young Corbett," who outside of ring parlance is Billy Bothwell, got the better of the champion in less than two rounds of fighting, and he did it so perfectly that there was no doubt about the result. The shock to the New York enthusiasts who crowded the boxing pavilion when the little champion was knocked out in the second round, was a repetition of the disappointment exhibited by the adherents of John L. Sullivan when Corbett defeated him in New Orleans.

TERRY IN GOOD HEALTH.

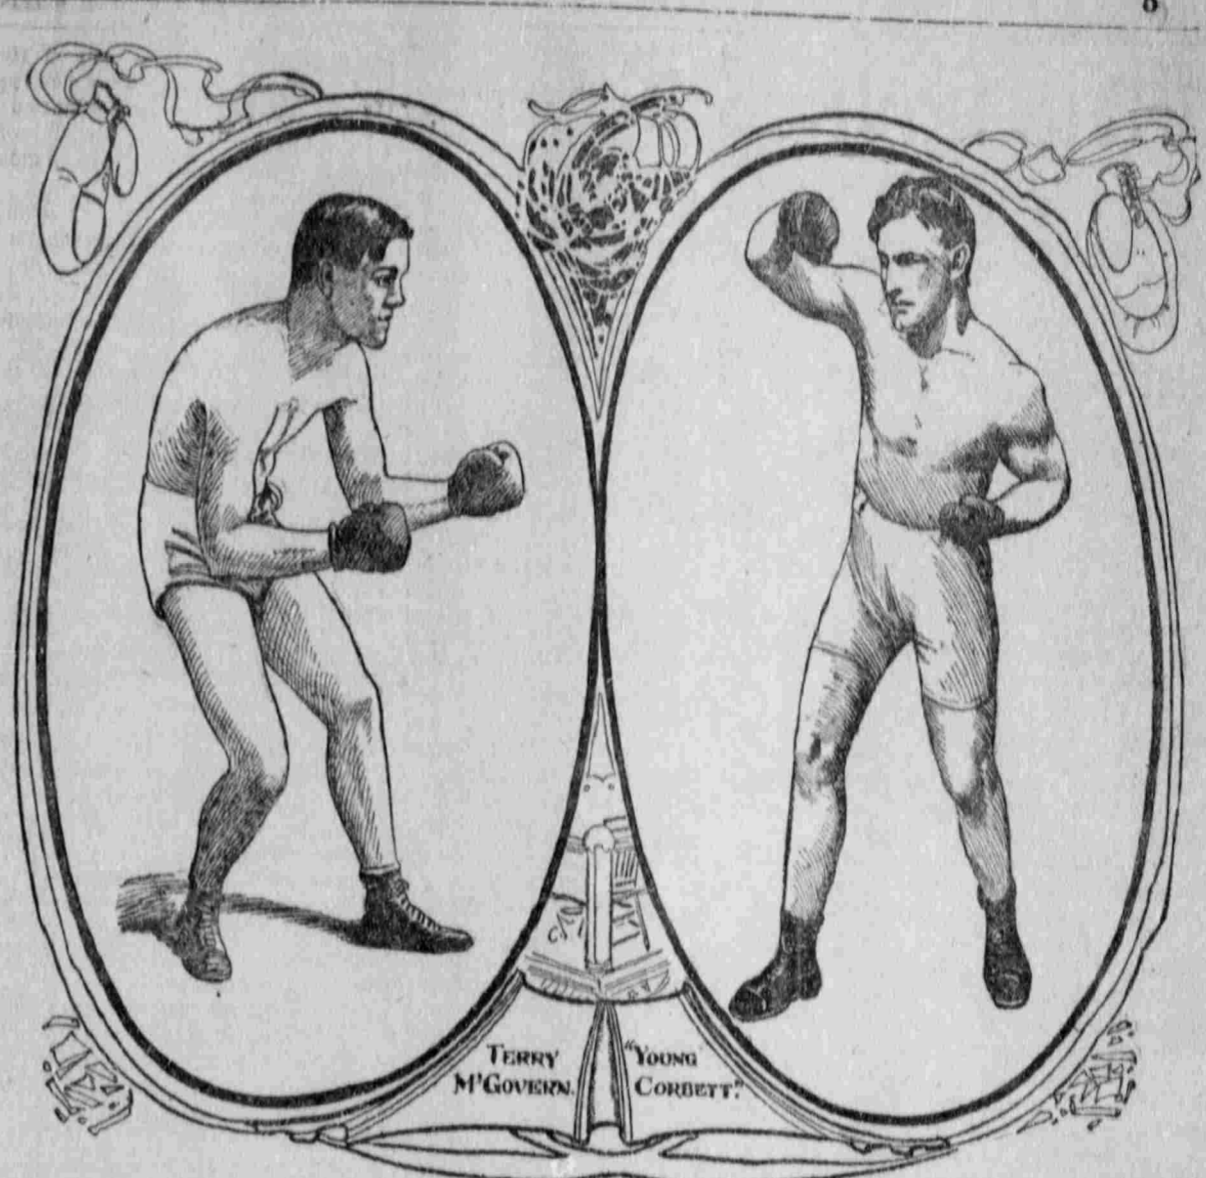

Terry was as fit as the proverbial fiddle, but he was not fast enough for his man. From the word "Go" the men went at each other like gamecocks, and it looked as if either would get the worst of the opening round, and in his endeavor to get in, left himself open several times. Corbett stood off McGovern on every lead and trick, but the little Brooklyn boy went on as if there was nothing to it but the winner's end of the purse.

THE FIRST ROUND.

Round One—McGovern tried for an opening with his left and sent the right to Corbett's jaw. They clinched. In the mix-up both landed lefts. They exchanged lefts on the face, and McGovern, rushing again, sent his left to the body, and right to the head. Corbett was short on his leads, and Terry bored him to the ropes with a hard right over the heart.

THE KNOCKOUT BLOW.

Round Two—McGovern rushed in with a left to the body, and the men clinched. A rapid exchange of rights and lefts followed. Corbett was on the defensive and met Terry's rushes with straight left jabs. Suddenly he brought up his left, uppercutting McGovern and sending him to the floor. McGovern took five seconds of the count and came back like a wild man, with left and right swings. Science was thrown to the winds, and the boys began slugging. McGovern was very wild and he made a half circle of the ring, fighting in this manner. At this stage it looked like anybody's fight, should one of the vicious swinging blows land. While Corbett kept his head and seemed to bide in better, his body blows were apparently no better than those of McGovern. However, he kept on foreing McGovern across the ring, and finally Terry forgot his defense. He simply saw a hurricane of blows coming toward him, and there was no guarding on his part. Suddenly a right swinging uppercut landed squarely on the point of his jaw, and McGovern went down and out. He was not rendered unconscious, but it was evident to all present that he knew the championship had taken wings, and he made wild efforts to regain his feet. Referee White called off ten seconds and McGovern valiantly struggled. Corbett stopped back in obedience to the referee's gesture, although he evidently was in doubt as to his fallen opponent's condition. McGovern had

TERRY M'GOVERN AND "YOUNG CORBETT" IN RING POSES.

I had him from the first punch, but I was cool-headed all through. When I began to sting him he lost his head, and when he lost his head it was all over. I had him right there and with a right swinging uppercut I landed the blow which won the battle.

THE KNOCKOUT BLOW.

Round One—McGovern tried for an opening with his left and sent the right to Corbett's jaw. They clinched. In the mix-up both landed lefts. They exchanged lefts on the face, and McGovern, rushing again, sent his left to the body, and right to the head. Corbett was short on his leads, and Terry bored him to the ropes with a hard right over the heart. McGovern ducked a left swing and landed right hard on the eye, forcing Corbett to the ropes. Corbett came back pluckily with a left on the body, which was countered with a right over the heart from his opponent. McGovern led again with his right, landing on his opponent's shoulder, and Corbett came back with a hard right over the heart, sending McGovern back. But the Brooklyn boy retorted with right and left, only to be met with a swing on the jaw which sent him on his back. He jumped to his feet immediately and went to his opponent hammer and tongs, on the chest and face, forcing him to his knees. Corbett got up and the round ended in a draw. Terry won on record, with honors about even.

CORBETT WINS THE FIGHT.

Round Two—McGovern rushed in with a left to the body, and the men clinched. A rapid exchange of rights and lefts followed. Corbett was on the defensive and met Terry's rushes with straight left jabs. Suddenly he brought up his left, uppercutting McGovern and sending him to the floor. McGovern took five seconds of the count and came back like a wild man, with left and right swings. Science was thrown to the winds, and the boys began slugging. McGovern was very wild and he made a half circle of the ring, fighting in this manner. At this stage it looked like anybody's fight, should one of the vicious swinging blows land. While Corbett kept his head and seemed to bide in better, his body blows were apparently no better than those of McGovern. However, he kept on foreing McGovern across the ring, and finally Terry forgot his defense. He simply saw a hurricane of blows coming toward him, and there was no guarding on his part. Suddenly a right swinging uppercut landed squarely on the point of his jaw, and McGovern went down and out. He was not rendered unconscious, but it was evident to all present that he knew the championship had taken wings, and he made wild efforts to regain his feet. Referee White called off ten seconds and McGovern valiantly struggled. Corbett stopped back in obedience to the referee's gesture, although he evidently was in doubt as to his fallen opponent's condition. McGovern had given him such a grueling argument that he was for the moment dubious as to whether the Brooklyn boy might not be able to come up again and renew the battle. But it was all over, and in a few minutes the new champion was in his dressing room receiving the congratulations while McGovern was wondering how it all happened.

CORBETT'S MEASUREMENTS.

The day before "Young Corbett" went into the ring, Dr. John R. Child of Hartford examined the fighter, and said his condition could not be improved upon. He said it was easy to see that his muscles had been developed in a scientific manner. His heart action, he said, was perfect. The following record was made by the physician: Age, 21; weight, 135; height, 5 feet 2 1/2 inches; forearm, 11 inches; biceps, 12 inches; wrist, 7 inches; ankle, 9 inches; calf, 13 inches; thigh, 19 1/2 inches; waist, 29 inches; hips, 33 inches; neck, 15 inches; shoulder, 41 inches; chest, 36 inches; chest expanded, 38 inches; reach, 66 1/2 inches.

CHICAGO SHUT OUT.

Wisconsin Runs Up a Score of Twenty-five. Chicago, Nov. 28.—Wisconsin, 25, Chicago, 0, and Wisconsin's goal only twice in the slightest danger. Thus did the Wisconsin eleven make good their boast to defeat the University of Chicago football team by a good round number over the score of 25 to 0, made by their rival for the western championship, Michigan. Straight football won the day, and team work on the part of the victors was clever, though in nearly every case scores were made by star plays. Chicago, throughout the game, put up a manful, though unavailing, offense.

MICHIGAN DOWNS IOWA.

One Sided Game, the Score Being Fifty to Nothing. Chicago, Nov. 28.—Michigan scored almost at will against Iowa today, making 50 points to the Hawkeyes' nothing. Thus Michigan closes the regular football season with a total record of 50 points, while not one of the teams she has met has been able to score a single point against her. Iowa played a plucky game, but was outclassed. Huston and Shotts played a spectacular game for the Wolverines. The game was played on the National league baseball grounds and the attendance was 12,000.

PENNSY AGAIN BEATEN.

Team Ends its Disastrous Season in Crushing Defeat. Philadelphia, Nov. 28.—The University of Pennsylvania football team ended its disastrous season today with a crushing defeat at the hands of the Cornell eleven, the Ithaca boys scoring 24 points to the Quakers' 6. It was the first time since the two universities have played football together that Cornell has been able to conquer Pennsylvania. All through the contest the red and blue players fought their opponents every inch of the way, but the doughty boys from New York state were superior to them in every department of the game, except in punting. No matter how hard the Pennsylvanians tried, Cornell was always there to meet them. Cornell's offense was perfect. It seemed a little difference where they tried—through the center, against the tackle or around the ends—Pennsylvania was able to hold them not more than a half-dozen times. The visitors also got into the muck better and quicker than the home men, which counted for much in the mass plays.

A notable feature of Cornell's attack was the fine interference for the runner in open play. Two of her touchdowns were made solely through the good help given the man with the ball, in the defense Cornell was like a stone wall. It was near the end of the first half before Pennsylvania was able to make a first down, and the total made in the entire contest did not number more than ten. The weather was clear and cold. Attendance, 29,000.

THEY'RE AFTER HIM.

Lightweights Would Like to Meet Young Corbett. Hartford, Conn., Nov. 28.—After the fight a purse of $10,000 was offered by the Twentieth Century Athletic club of San Francisco for another fight between McGovern and Corbett and McGovern accepted the offer. Dave Sullivan challenged the winner of today's fight.

Pittsburg, Nov. 28.—Billy Curran, manager of Jack McClelland of this city has posted a $5000 forfeit on behalf of McClelland for a fight with "Young Corbett" for a side bet of $1,000, winner to take all, or any other terms satisfactory to the win of the champion.

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Three challenges to Young Corbett tonight from Chicago featherweights—Harry Harris, Tommy White and Benny Yanger put up a deposit of $1,000 and offers to meet Corbett for any number of rounds and at any weight. Corbett was knocked out by Yanger in eight rounds last winter. A few months later they met for the second time and fought ten rounds to a draw.

A Violent Attack of Croup Cured.

"Last winter an infant child of mine had croup in a violent form," says Elder John W. Rogers, a Christian Evangelist of Pileo, Mo. "I gave her a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and in a short time all danger was passed and the child recovered." This remedy not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the first symptoms appear, will prevent the attack. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by all Druggists.

E. K. THOMAS. A lot of Children's Jackets, 6 to 14 years, $1.25, $1.75, $2.25, about 75 per cent off, to close.

Advertisement for Cannon Book Store. Santa Claus Headquarters. Now Open!!! DOLLS, TOYS, GAMES, BOOKS, AND XMAS CARDS, CALENDARS, NOVELTIES. Largest and best selected stock in the city. PURCHASE EARLY and get your choice at RIGHT PRICES. Cannon Book Store, 11 and 13 Main Street. Desert News, Proprietors.

Santa Claus Headquarters

Now Open!!! DOLLS, TOYS, GAMES, BOOKS, AND XMAS CARDS, CALENDARS, NOVELTIES. Largest and best selected stock in the city. PURCHASE EARLY and get your choice at RIGHT PRICES. Cannon Book Store, 11 and 13 Main Street. Desert News, Proprietors.

Table of scores from various games. Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 28.—With the score tied, the football game between the University of Alabama and the University of Tennessee was called in the second half. Objecting to the umpire's decision over what he claimed an off-side play, a crowd of 2,000 persons, sympathizing with Alabama, swarmed over the field, and the players were unable to continue the game.

HERBINE sweetens the breath, brightens the eyes and clears the complexion without the slightest ill effects whatever, and ensures the natural bloom of health. Price, 50 cents. Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.