FRAGMENTS.

Umbrellas and overshoes are again in demand.

The Phosca McAllister company leave for Montana this evening.

JOHN EVANS was yesterday assessed $10 for drunkenness by Justice Spiers.

The crime of opera will not doubt be reached at the Salt Lake Theatre to-night.

EMIL HOBBERK, for lewd conduct, was yesterday fined $20 in the police court.

The rainfall last night was the heaviest which has visited Salt Lake for many months.

PATTI has $200,000 worth of diamonds and Gerster about $250,000, all of them presented by admirers.

High water at Blue Creek, on the C. P., delayed this morning's train on that road five hours.

FOUR leaded patients from the Horn Silver Smelter were admitted to the Holy Cross Hospital yesterday.

"THUNDER IN SPRING" peeled forth its resonant bolts last night, accompanied by hail and rain in torrents.

The D. & R. G. train was four hours behind time this morning on account of snow at Marshall's Pass, Colorado.

The third trial of Joseph Biddlecome, for the murder of Charles Jensen, in 1878, is going on in the District Court.

We have received from Raybold's a copy of the New York Graphic containing the likenesses of General Clawson and family.

WITH tragedy, emotional drama and opera in full swing at our Theatres, there is no lack of entertainments for the amusement loving people of Salt Lake.

The Sabbath school concert announced to take place in the 17th Ward Schoolhouse to-morrow, Friday evening, has been postponed to next week. Due notice of the date will be given.

In the case of the people vs. John Leland, charged with assault with intent to rape, the jury yesterday returned a verdict of guilty, and the sentence will be pronounced on Monday the 10th inst.

We are informed by the management that to-night's operatic performance at the Salt Lake Theatre is not an occasion for full dress costume, and the audience will be composed of people in their ordinary attire.

A good attendance at the Opera House last night and the acting of Phosca McAllister as "Leah," in the fourth act, was superb, at the end of which she was vigorously encored, and was the recipient of a beautiful bouquet.

DOCTOR D. BARKS McKENZIE, is in Ogden to-day, effecting arrangements by which the people of that city can attend the Abbott Opera next week at the Walker Opera House. Many Ogdenites are expected to take advantage of the special rates.

"Ten Nights in a Bar Room," will be presented on the boards of the Salt Lake Music Hall, Monday evening, the 10th inst., by a carefully selected company of performers, all of whom are well known and need no extended notice. We feel safe in predicting a good performance and a full house.

LOCAL NEWS.

High Council. - The High Council will meet in the Social Hall, to-morrow, (Friday) evening, March 7th, at 7 o'clock.

WILLIAM W. TAYLOR, Clerk.

Postponement. - Just as we go to press a telegram from Eureka informs us that the Raymond-Holmes Co. cannot appear in "Whims" before Saturday, being detained by a washout.

Notice. - The 23d Quorum of Seventeen and all Seventies living in the 7th, 4th, 5th and Farmer's Wards will meet in the basement of the 7th Ward Meeting House at 7:30 this evening.

The "Exponent." - The March 1st issue of this periodical contains among its principal articles the following: "To the Poet-Bishop," Augusta J. Crocker; "Answer to Woman and Sin," Helen M. Whitney; "Nothing on the Books," Augusta Joyce Crocker; "Thinking of Home," M. A. P. Smith; "A Friendly Visit," editorial; "Letters from Bern, Annie," "Musings," Aggie Childs; "Missionary Letter," Newell W. Kimball; "Extract from a Letter," A. W. Ivins. Besides other matter of interest. The Exponent is like most good things, improves with its age.

Water. - The meeting of residents of the North Bench, called for the purpose of again agitating the question of a water supply for that section of the city, was well attended last evening. A petition to the City Council was adopted as the order of the meeting, and a committee appointed to obtain signatures to it.

We sincerely hope that the prayer of the people will be granted, and we understand that there is a pretty general disposition among the municipal authorities to give the relief asked for and so much needed. Let the people have water.

Territorial Bee Convention. - There will be a meeting of the Deseret Bee Association in this city some evening during the April Conference. All who are interested in this growing and important industry are urged to attend. We will be glad to receive a verbal or written report of the number and condition of swarms, the methods of wintering, quantity of honey taken, and wax made, etc., from every county in Utah. Due notice will be given through the papers of the time and place of meeting. Territorial papers please copy.

A. MILTON MUSSEY, President.

Returned Elder. - Elder Joseph Wild, of American Fork, returned from England on Sunday last, in company with Elder Eleazar Evans, of Lehi. The latter left here on a mission to Germany last fall, but owing to ill-health was obliged to return. He was honorably released, as was Brother Wild, who brought him home.

The latter left here on the 9th of May, 1882, and labored first in the Manchester Conference, England, for four or five months, and was then appointed to reside over the Leeds Conference, where he labored some sixteen months and was then released for the purpose specified.

He had nearly finished his mission, however, and would have returned with the season's first company, any-how, having been notified to that effect by President Smith. Brother Wild took his companion, Brother Evans, home to Lehi, and then returned to this city. He left for American Fork this afternoon.

OPERA TO-NIGHT.

ARRIVAL OF HER MAJESTY'S OPERA COMPANY - "LUCIA" AT THE THEATRE TO-NIGHT.

Her Majesty's Opera Company, comprising one hundred people in charge of Colonel Mapleson, the famous impresario, arrived in this city by special train about two o'clock this morning. As heretofore stated the company travel in their own train, composed of eight cars, and undoubtedly the most magnificent one that ever crossed the Rocky Mountains. Six of the cars are for passengers and the remaining two are baggage cars. Owing to the lateness of their arrival, which was several hours behind what was anticipated, the principals of the company, instead of going to their hotels, remained in the train at the station till a late hour to-day. The most of the troupe remain with the train, where they are entertained quite as sumptuously as at any hotel.

We have already given the names of the principal performers, but to refresh the minds of our readers and prepare them in a measure for what they are to see and hear to-night, we subjoin the following list of artists composing Her Majesty's Opera Company.

Soprano - Mme. Gerster, Mlle. Dotti, Contralto - Mme. Tiozzo, Mme. Bianchi, Tenor - Signor Vicini, Signor Bello, Signor Rinaldi, Signor Anton, Signor Giovanni, Signor Bieleto.

Baritone - Signor Gallassi, Signor De Vascetti, Bass - Cherubini, Lombardelli, Carlini.

Harpiste - Mme. Sacconi, Signor Arditi, director of the music. Signor Bassi, assistant conductor. Venturi, master of the piano forte. Signor Parry, stage manager. Signor Belasco, armorer. Signor Zanni, master of the chorus. J. H. Mapleson, director. W. Raper, treasurer. Angelo, controller. Italian, private secretary. Signor Nicolini and Mme. Adeline Patti.

Count Zacharoff, of the Mann Boudoir cars.

This evening, at the Theatre, the Salt Lake public are to have the rarest opportunity in the city's history of seeing and hearing the greatest Opera company now traveling in one of the most famous masterpieces of musical art. Madame Gerster appears in the role of "Lucia," one of her finest impersonations, and will be supported by the full strength of this powerful organization. The indications are that a monster house will greet this, the first, last and only appearance of this company in Salt Lake City.

Since the above was in type, we learn from Mr. H. H. Mapleson, agent of the company, that most of the principals, Mme. Gerster and Mme. Patti included, had ordered rooms at the Continental, and by noon were installed. The orchestra registered at the White House, the chorus remaining in the cars.

The company leave to-night after the opera, for San Francisco. It was the intention of Mr. Mapleson to remain here another day for slight seeing, but this was rendered impractical by the bad weather and other considerations, which make his arrival desirable in San Francisco on Saturday. The company report an extraordinary good business in Chicago, where the receipts were over $2,000 and the best seats had been sold for $10 apiece.

Relics. - Brother S. L. Adams, of this city, writes from Chicago, as follows:

"I was informed Brother Joseph Bull that some man of this city had obtained possession of the old Nauvoo press. To us it was the extended rumor said that it was the press that printed the Book of Mormon. Out of curiosity, and having an hour to spare, we were kindly escorted to the spot by one of Mr. Bull's clerks. We believe the press to be the identical one broken and thrown into the Mississippi River, through the following facts. First, my eye had the privilege of looking upon a manuscript copy of a portion of the Book of Mormon, the paper of which was so tender that we could scarcely separate the leaves. We tried our best to read it, and could not. We read enough to make us look the portion up in the Book of Mormon when we got home.

Brother Bull took a number of notes which will be of interest to many of our people. With this manuscript was also a few part leaves of the Times and Seasons, published in 1840. These relics were obtained out of the foundation of Nauvoo. I am seeking to work up a business connection with a very fine establishment in Salt Lake, which by the way purposes to engage the advertising columns of the NEWS. The water here is fearful. I think I never saw or felt the weather so cold in my life. Rivers frozen solid, snow in the air, the frozen, business dull, trains late.

The Abbott Company. - The long looked for event at the Opera House is near at hand and on Monday night the Abbott Opera Company will sing to an audience that for size and brilliance will compare favorably with those that have greeted this noted and esteemed prima donna in other cities. The fashion of the city as well as the music lovers will all be there, and expectation is raised to the highest pitch to see and hear a prima donna who has succeeded in raising herself from obscurity to such enviable prominence and fame.

There is one thing concerning her company which is in striking contrast with most; she has the very best artists in each part that can be found, and so many of them that there is scarcely a possibility of an audience being disappointed in a performance. This was shown in the recent great engagement in San Francisco, where thirty-three consecutive performances were given, and this fact was remarked by the press as something extraordinary. For the opening of the season, Manager McKenzie selected the new Oriental opera of "King for a Day."

"Whims." - The Alta California says: "Last night before a very large audience was produced 'Whims,' another of those ever pleasing nonsensical figurines of absurdities in which is displayed a sufficient amount of taste to suit every understanding, and a sufficient amount of understanding to suit every taste. Raymond Holmes as the Professor is a comedian clever and versatile in his part and the support is good, and furnishes an agreeable and amusing evening's entertainment. They are all earnest workers having good faces and excellent voices. 'Whims' has taken an excellent hold, and the bright talking way in which it has given warrants a large and successful patronage."

Indian Homeosted Patents. - We were shown to-day by Brother G. W. Hill, a couple of homestead patents issued by the U. S. Government to "Toby" and "Salpura" two noted Indians of the Goshute band of Shoshones, located at Skull Valley, Tooele County. These are the first County. Patent of the kind issued to Indians in Utah. The tribe refused to have cultivated their land for the last ten years, and the two members named have each entered 160 acres under the Homestead Act. Other patents will be forthcoming, and the papers are expected from Washington shortly.

This box office for the sale of tickets to the Abbott Opera, opened to-day at the Opera House.

Provo Land Jumpers. - The following special came over the wires at 10:30 a.m.

Provo, March 6, 1884.

Yesterday the citizens of Provo were apprised of the fact that parties were trying to jump their land. The land is that bordering on Utah Lake, below the First Ward pasture, the south meadow and south pasture, nearly two miles in extent. It seems that the land, which has been held by the people of Provo for many years, had never been surveyed by the proper authorities. On Tuesday the land was surveyed by parties from Salt Lake. The owners of the land, getting wind of the same, met yesterday morning and decided to defend and maintain their rights. Two houses were put up Wednesday afternoon by the parties, and the citizens of Provo tried to put up buildings and it seems pretty evident, judging from the spirit of the people, that they had better not attempt it. The people's men slept in their houses last night, and will guard their property during the day time. From this time, against all intruders. The jumpers are as yet unknown, but they are evidently connected with the whiskey ring of Provo.

General Admission. - General admission tickets to the Theatre to-night will commence selling at 6 p.m. The price is two dollars and the buyers run the risk of getting a seat not reserved, or standing up during the performance. Admission to the Third circle is one dollar.

Mr. M. M. BOWAN, of South Cottonwood, returned from Bear Lake yesterday, bringing with him two valuable horses stolen from him last October.

George Thompson, the thief, is in jail at Provo, charged with another larceny, and will be tried in Idaho. Mr. Rowan speaks highly of the Bear Lake County officials.

William G. Turner, now of Boise, has been given the commission for the Perry statue at Newport.

"Peek's Bad Boy," by John Steadson's Company, will be played next week at the A. S. Street Opera House.

Thomas W. Keene's many admirers in Philadelphia talk of tendering him a complimentary benefit during his engagement at the A. S. Street Theatre next week after next.

A MAGIC POWER.

A Secret Agent at Work.

We were surprised the other day to learn that certain individuals in this city, who had for many years yielded to what was apparently an invincible fate, were startled from their torpid condition of semi-stupidity, into asserting their right to "Life, Liberty and the pursuit of happiness." These parties had been bound by an influence as powerful as it was comprehensible. They knew not the cause, yet they were victims to the result. They were enchained, but they could not discern by what means they had been manacled. They had long sought deliverance in vain. Their appeals to science and the knowledge contained in books were equally unavailing. At last, relief came! It was through an action of the President, or of Congress, for their trouble was not of a political character. Neither did the Governor's Message relieve them, nor any action of the new Legislature, for it was out of their power, and foreign to their jurisdiction. Yet they were suddenly and effectually released from the bondage they suffered, and placed on the equal scale of human happiness. "What was their trouble?" is what our readers will ask. They had been rendered helpless by that universal enemy - rheumatism. They had not walked or even moved without pain for years, and on the strong recommendations of friends "who had been there," they tried Bannin, and were at once relieved and radically cured. Britannia was what it did. It acted like a magic power. This secret agent quickly entered through their veins, removed the cause of the trouble, liberated the captive from their dreary condition, and now they congratulate each other on the accomplishment of such a triumph, and the acquisition of the knowledge by which they can at any time resist the encroachments of their common foe. We could give the names of the parties, but will wait a future time.

REFRESHMENT NOTICE.

As I intend shortly to retire from the liquor business, my friends will please take notice that the prompt payment of their accounts will be appreciated. Accounts long past due, hereafter will be placed in the hands of attorneys for collection.

Respectfully,

GEORGE A. MEARS, Salt Lake City, Feb. 14th, 1884.

BUY A FARM.

We pride ourselves on having the best list of Farms for sale, come and see us. S. W. DARR & CO., Real Estate Agents.

C. H. Lewis, druggist, of Cedar Vale, Kansas, writes: "I have sold 'Pricely' Acheson's Kidney and Bladder Pills for years, and consider them one of the most reliable proprietary medicines I have used. It is cured by the continual increase in sales and the almost universal satisfaction which attends their use."

To poison a well is one of the worst of crimes. It is worse to poison the fountain of life for one's self and for posterity. Often by carelessness, or misfortune, or inheritance this has been done. A. S. Sarsaparilla goes back of the symptoms, picks up these impure seeds from the blood, the vital stream, and restores appetite, strength and health.

EXCITED THROAT.

All our friends who are in ecstasy over Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their unlooked for recovery by the timely use of this great life saving remedy, causes them to go nearly wild in its praise. COULDN'T AFFORD IT.

Made Honest by Business Principles - A Druggist tells the Square Truth.

"Now, my friend, let's be perfectly frank and candid about this little matter," the druggist said, "both he and I have been in the same line of business for years, and looking his customer fairly in the eye, you have a lame back and want a plaster to put on it. You don't know me, and, judging of my nature as it runs, you are afraid I'll humbug you in some way. You may think it an odd statement, but I can't afford
