The Lot Smith company was raised by Brigham Young at the request of President Abraham Lincoln. It did ex-cellent service in protecting the prop-erty of the Telegraph and Overland Mail companies in 1862. This company of cavalry was mus-tered into service in the regular army, April 30, 1862. The company had a full complement and was enlisted to serve 90 days or until relieved by a detach-ment from the regular army. The duty of the company was to patrol the ter-ritory in and about Independence Rock. The company was mustered in follow-ing a number of Indian outbreaks that ended disastrously to the whites. The officers of the company were: Lot Smith, captair; Joseph L. Rawlins, first licutenant; Richard H. Atwood, orderly sergeant; James M. Barlow, quartermaster sergeant; Samuel H. W. Riter, John P. Winmer, Howard O. Spencer, Moses Thurston, sergeants; Seymour B. Young, Newton Myrick, William A. Bringhurst, John Hoagland, Joseph H. Felt, John Neff, Andrew Big-ler, Hyrum B. How One Doctor Successfully Treats Pneumonia,

Preumonia. "In treating pneumonia." says Dr. W. J. Smith, of Sanders, Ala, "the only remedy I use for the lungs is Cham-berian's Cough Remedy. While, of course, I would treat other symptoms with different medicines, I have used this remedy many times in my medical prac-tise and have yet failed to find a case where it has not contrilled the trouble. I have used it myself, as has also my wife for coughs and colds repeatedly, and I most willingly and cheerfully rec-ommend it as superior to any other cough remedy to my knowledge."
